Minutes of Annual Meeting

The Twenty-fifth Annual Meeting of the Pittsburgh Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held on Friday, November 10, 1905, at the Church of the Ascension, Pittsburgh.

The exercises of the day began with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10 o'clock by Bishop Whitehead.

The Rev. Robert Meech read a "Resume of the work done by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Pittsburgh during the twenty-five years of its existence," prepared by the Recording Secretary.

The Rev. John G. Meem of Brazil spoke at length concerning the work carried on in that particular field; and Miss Sallie Stuart, President of the Virginia Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, addressed the meeting.

At one o'clock, the Ladies of Ascension Parish served a bountiful luncheon and a large number of delegates enjoyed their hospitality.

The business meeting was held in the chapel at two o'clock, and the President opened the meeting with a scripture reading and prayer.

Before proceeding with the regular order of business, Bishop Whitehead, in a few well chosen words, presented Mrs. Phillips with a thank offering from the Pittsburgh Branch in token of appreciation for her many years of faithful service as President of the Auxiliary, with the request that the money be used by Mrs. Phillips in whatever sphere of missionary activity she was most deeply interested; and Mrs. Phillips, in thanking the Auxiliary for their tribute of love, announced her decision to devote the offering to Bishop Kinsolving's work in Brazil.

At the Bishop's request the Auxiliary heard a short appeal from the Rev. P. P. Alston, a colored clergyman who happened to be in the city collecting funds for his school at Charlotte, N. C., and a collection, amounting to $33.25, was taken to aid him in his work.

The regular order of business was resumed, and to the roll call, 125 delegates from 24 parishes responded. During the election of officers, Miss Wade took the chair, and the Nominating Committee reported that as no changes by reason of death or resignation made any new nominations necessary, they were prepared to accept nominations from the floor. No nominations being made, it was regularly moved and seconded that the present officers be elected to serve for the coming year. Carried.

Mrs. Phillips resumed the chair and made these appointments: Treasurer of United Offering, Miss J. Cuddy; Treasurer of Miss Carter's Salary, Miss Margaret Phillips; Secretary of Northern Convocation, Miss Louise Bostwick; Assistant Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. W. Corcoran.

The amount of the pledge for Joint Work was taken up, and a motion was made and seconded that, for the coming year, $1200.00 be pledged for Joint Work and Specials. A general discussion followed, and sufficient pledges being received from various branches to warrant the action, the motion before the meeting was carried. The appropriation of the entire pledge was then acted upon as follows:

At the conclusion of the business meeting, Miss Stuart made an address and related some incidents of the work going on in Virginia among the Mountain Whites.

Mr. John W. Wood, Corresponding Secretary of the General Board of Missions, being present, the members had the privilege of asking him many questions concerning the inter work of the General Board with the diocesan branches of the Woman's Auxiliary, and he cleared away some of the mists of perplexity in a very felicitous manner.

A rising vote of thanks was taken for the generous hospitality extended by the entertaining parish, and the meeting was adjourned.

At a general missionary service in the evening, Bishop Whitehead presiding, Mr. Charles Vickery, Secretary of the Young People's Missionary Movement, gave a talk on that subject illustrated by stereopticon views. Brief addresses were made by Mr. Meem and Mr. Wood, and the Twenty-fifth Annual Meeting closed, leaving all who had participated in its services, better informed and prepared to carry on the work of the Auxiliary.

MRS. DANIEL DUROE, Recording Secretary

Recording Secretary's Report

The record of the past year shows an encouraging progress in every department of our work.

The regular meetings have been well attended, and the Corporation of Trinity Parish has honored the Auxiliary by providing a room in the new Parish House for their meetings.

At the annual meeting last November we celebrated the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the Woman's Auxiliary in this diocese, and the memories of our birthday are pleasant and helpful to dwell upon.

Meeting in Ascension parish, the Auxiliary was hospitably entertained and the speakers chosen were peculiarly competent to broadly review the labors in Missionary fields. The attendance at the business meeting was the largest in the history of the Auxiliary, 125 delegates being present who represented 25 parishes.

The notable event of the day was the Thank Offering presented to our President, in appreciation of her many years of service, the fund to be offered to the field of Missionary labor in which she was most deeply interested.

We still feel stirred with gratitude when we think of the record of those twenty-five years of work—a grand total in money and boxes amounting to $267, 000. 00 having been raised, and we trust we shall gain a higher level in the coming quarter century.

At the Annual Meeting, the subject of Joint Work was discussed with a worthy consideration, each parish having come prepared with a definite pledge which has somewhat lightened the burdens of the Treasurer who hopes to report at the June Meeting that all the pledges have been paid.

The duties of the Corresponding Secretary expand with the growth of the Auxiliary, and were it not for system and promptness, the work would often fall behind, and particularly is this the case in the Northern Convocation where the parishes are so widely separated that any attempt at Joint Work, to be successful, involves much correspondence.

The Directors of the Junior Auxiliary have increased their duties this past year in keeping each branch informed by letter concerning the progress of the work, and the results have been gratifying to a marked degree, for in no other department have the funds collected been more than doubled, from $620. 21 in last year's report to $1524. 45 as reported this year. Honor is due the Directors of the Junior Auxiliary and to all who labor among the children of the church, and yet the work brings its own reward, for our faithlessness is rebuked by the simple faith of childhood, and we go on our way refreshed by these embodied "songs in the house of our pilgrimage."

The Treasurer of Miss Carter's Salary has completed her yearly task and we have had the privilege of hearing our beloved Missionary not only at the time of her annual lace sale but also when she made us a hurried visit on her return from a tour of her lace schools, and at her request a Joint Box was prepared for the lace school at Birch Cooley Mission.

We regret the temporary absence of Mrs. Doubleday, who not only served the Auxiliary for thirteen years as Correspondent of the Church Periodical Club, but has ever been helpful and resourceful in all the emergencies of committee work. Her duties in the Periodical Club have been assumed by Mrs. Barrett, who reports that during the year 212 periodicals have been sent regularly and a large amount of miscellaneous literature dispensed. Librarians are needed in several parishes and it is to be regretted that more interest is not taken in this truly Missionary work that can be undertaken by those who cannot assume any duties that take them away from their homes, and a very small outlay of time and strength can yield large returns in carrying the current events of the day to those who would otherwise feel that in their isolation they were falling out of step with the great army of fellow toilers.

The Treasurer of the United Offering reports the sum of $1002.35 given in the three semi-annual collections since the last General Convention, and as only three collections remain to be taken it is to be hoped that a more general interest can be aroused in the fall that the Pittsburgh share in the United Offering of 1907 may exceed the $2279. 82 presented in 1904.

The Missions Study class has been well attended and interest has been aroused among some who otherwise would not have come in touch with the work of the Auxiliary. We have only a small report from the Babies' Branch, but from its very nature, the work is sure to grow as its purpose becomes more generally known.

The secretaries are frequently asked for suggestions as to the best means of arousing missionary interest in the weaker parishes that have heavy responsibilities and small means, and we answer to such inquiries that one must be interested in order to arouse interest in others.

A largely attended Annual Meeting always means a successful year for the Auxiliary, and a goodly attendance at a business meeting means that Joint Boxes will be promptly prepared, deficits will be speedily made up, and valuable suggestions be offered that in time will bear fruit.

In collecting funds, we do not always use the wise precaution of experienced travellers in avoiding the beaten path of travel, for our first impulse is to ask aid from those who loom up prominently in the field of benevolence, forgetting that in every parish there are willing though obscure souls who would be glad to give their mite to the missionary cause. Even the most active parish organization may have overlooked them or failed to interest them in local needs, and yet the system of contributing towards a Joint Box or taking a mite box for the United Offering or Babies' Branch might appeal to them. It is expedient to touch on this subject of Joint Boxes as it is a most efficient means of bringing the smaller parishes in touch with Auxiliary work, and gives the greatest scope to individual preferences, as any offering from a towel upward through the range of household necessities can be slipped into the capacious reserves of a Joint Box. During the past year, six such boxes have been prepared by the Auxiliary and Juniors, two being Diocesan Boxes, the others being sent to Porto Rico, Brazil, Birch Coulie and Idaho.

The method of providing for Diocesan Boxes has been improved and the committee on this work has a fund (to which they will thankfully add any further contributions) which is intended for the prompt relief of any pressing need, and it is to be hoped that at our next Annual Meeting the pledges will be so liberal that all future collections at the semi-annual meetings may be devoted to this emergency fund.

Another year of work is finished, and the women of the Auxiliary have abundant reason to feel the honest joy of a completed task; but the new year lies before us, and "forgetting the things that are behind," let us press forward to a higher work, to a richer fruition.

Report of Missions Study Class

The Missions Study Class was organized because it was felt that it was not right that we should depend entirely on the visits of our missionaries for our knowledge of their work. The class strives, by means of papers and discussions made possible by an abundance of missionary and other literature, to inform those who attend the meetings as to the condition of the missionary fields, and thus bring them into closer sympathy with the labors of these noble men and women.

During the past year, four meetings have been held and papers read as follows :

Thursday, Nov. 16, at St. James' Memorial Church,—“The Philippines.”

Thursday, Jan. 11, at St. Stephen's Church, Wilkinsburg—“Haiti and Africa.”

Thursday, March 8, at St. Mary's Memorial Church—“Mountain Whites and Church Work in Mexico.”

Thursday, May 10, at St. Thomas' Church, Oakmont—“Our Indians.”

A paper on “Our Church Work in the Northwest” was held over for next year.

At each place tea was served after the meeting to give an opportunity for further discussion and a social hour followed.

At St. Thomas', Oakmont, a delightful lunch was served before the meeting.
