Minutes of the Annual Meeting

The twenty-seventh Annual Meeting was held on November 7th, in Christ Church, Allegheny, and it was most gratifying to note the increased attendance at the celebration of the Holy Communion, at which service Bishop Whitehead welcomed the women of his diocese and urged them to more abounding deeds of devotion and a consideration of the pressing needs within their own diocesan borders.

During the morning addresses were made by Bishop Funston, Missionary Bishop of Idaho; Bishop Kinsolving of Brazil, and Deaconess Drant of California.

Bishop Funston made definite appeals for scholarships in St. Margaret's School for Girls at Boise, for the furnishing of a room in St. Luke's Hospital at Boise, and for funds to build a simple church at a place on the Snake River where settlers are rapidly opening up the country.

Bishop Kinsolving explained the general character of the work in Brazil and what had been accomplished during the past eighteen years, while Deaconess Drant appealed for a hospital for the sick and aged Chinese in California and particularly in and about San Francisco.

Fully 350 persons were present at the morning service, and at the luncheon served at one o'clock in the new parish house at least 175 visitors were entertained with a most generous hospitality.

At two o'clock the business meeting was called to order in the nave of the church, the President conducting the devotional exercises.

The roll call and payment of annual dues was responded to by 150 delegates from 30 parishes, the increased attendance being an encouraging sign of increased interest.

The matter of Joint Work and Specials was then brought before the meeting, and from various parishes the Treasurer received pledges amounting to $1040.00.

The distribution of $850.00 of this sum was then acted upon as follows:

Florida	$100 00
Brazil	200 00
Alaska	150 00
Cape Mount, Africa	50 00
Work in Mexico	50 00
Rev. Mr. Hunter, Raleigh, N. C.	100 00
Bishop Funston, Boise	50 00
School at Arden, N. C.	50 00
Bishop Nichols for work among Chinese	50 00
Miss Thackera, Fort Defiance, Arizona	50 00

The Triennial report of the United Offering was read by the Treasurer of the fund, and a letter of greeting was read from Mrs. Mackey, First Vice President of the Northern Convocation.

A rising vote of thanks was given the entertaining parish for their cordial welcome to the Auxiliary, and in congratulating them on their possession of a fine new parish house, it was remarked that the same spirit of hospitality which welcomed the Auxiliary five years ago to less commodious quarters in the basement of the church, had entered into the life of the new building.

All other business being disposed of the annual resignation of officers took place, and Mrs. Ferris read the following report of the Nominating Committee:

Your Committee appointed to nominate the Officers for the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Pittsburgh for the coming year respectfully submit the following report: The work of the Committee has been rendered more difficult than in former years through the expressed unwillingness of our honored President to allow her name to be presented again for re-election. And in passing from her name to the consideration of some other standard bearer, the Committee felt the desire to place on record the sense of love, honor and appreciation this organization, as a whole, must entertain for Mrs. Phillips, who for more than a quarter of a century has so faithfully, acceptably, and efficiently discharged the duties of her office; and had she been willing to accept the nomination again no other name would have been presented by this Committee.

And in desiring to honor her in whatever way may still be open to the Woman's Auxiliary, the Committee has decided to name her for the new office of Honorary President.

Coming now to the names of those to be presented for the active offices it should be understood that any member is at liberty to nominate, or substitute on the ballot, any name which she prefers.

The Committee, however, has canvassed the field as conscientiously as it could, and in making the report feels especially gratified to have the permission to name for the Presidency one who would be acceptable to all, and one who is so abundantly qualified for the office.

For President: Mrs. D. G. Stewart of Pittsburgh; Vice Presidents: Mrs. Cortlandt Whitehead, Pittsburgh; Mrs. C. W. Mackey, Franklin; Mrs. E. M. Paddock, Allegheny; Miss E. Wade, Oakmont; Mrs. F. M. Hutchinson, Sewickley; Mrs. F. C. Hartshorne, Kittanning; Mrs. John R. Campbell, Oil City; Corresponding Secy., Mrs. Marcellin Adams, Pittsburgh; Recording Secy., Mrs. Daniel Duroe, Pittsburgh; Treasurer, Mrs. Alex. J. Wurts, Pittsburgh; Librarian, Mrs. J. M. Barrett, Beaver; Directors of the Junior Auxiliary: Mrs. Frank Steed, Miss Mary Barnett, Crafton.

Respectfully submitted

Mary E. S. Ferris, Chairman

Eliza P. Byram

Anna B. Childs

Ballots to this effect were distributed among the delegates, when Mrs. Gormley made a motion to shorten proceedings and instruct the Secretary to cast the ballot. The motion being seconded and carried by a rising vote, the Secretary cast the ballot and the appointment of the remaining officers was left until the December meeting.

Notice was given that the Directors of the Junior Auxiliary would soon pack a Joint Box of Christmas gifts to be sent to Porto Rico and contributions of toys and money were desired.

Mrs. Stewart spoke a few words of greeting to the Auxiliary and the business session was adjourned. Bishop Funston and Bishop Kinsolving spoke concerning the larger future of their present work, and the Annual Meeting closed with the result, we trust, that with renewed consecration will come loftier ideals, and that a more spiritual vision will discern a broader outlook.

MRS. DANIEL DUROE, Recording Secretary

Recording Secretary's Report

The work of the Woman's Auxiliary during the past year has been brightened by repeated blessings and corresponding privileges. Abundant opportunity has been given us to hear of the progress of the Kingdom from the laborers themselves. At the Annual Meeting, Bishop Kinsolving of Brazil, Bishop Funston of Idaho, and Deaconess Drant of San Francisco, told of their work, and in December we had the pleasure of listening to a very energetic talk from Bishop Johnson, Bishop Coadjutor of South Dakota.

In January the annual sale of Indian lace was held, and general regret was expressed that the state of Miss Carter's health would not permit her to pay us a mid-winter visit. In January also the Junior Auxiliary arranged for a stereopticon lecture by Rev. Mr. Mayo on the work in the Ragged Mountains of Virginia.

In February Dr. Lloyd addressed a large gathering of church women, and at the March meeting Rev. Mr. Taylor of Alaska visited us, while the Archdeacon of the Diocese and some of the clergy have presented the claims of the home field.

Quite a number of our members availed themselves of the opportunity to attend the General Convention in Richmond, and came home feeling they were more intelligently prepared to aid their own branch of the Auxiliary after hearing methods of work discussed in a broad and general way.

It is with deep sorrow that we record the death of two of our fellow-laborers, Mrs. Agnes Hays Gormley, and Miss Anna E. McCandless. Mrs. Gormley had filled several offices most efficiently and at the time of her death was the Traveling Secretary. Miss McCandless was an untiring worker in one of the parish branches, very zealous in the work of the United Offering, and a constant attendant at all the Auxiliary meetings. May the memory of their faithfulness be our constant inspiration!

The past year has also witnessed the retirement of our beloved President from the active duties so cheerfully assumed by her for more than twenty-five years. The Auxiliary delighted in creating for her the office of Honorary President, and chose for their acting head one who is abundantly qualified to carry the work onward and upward.

We have made some new high marks in the past year of work. The attendance at our Annual Meeting, held last November, was the most encouraging in number of delegates and parishes represented, that we have ever recorded. Our diocesan part of the United Offering was greater than ever before, surpassing our most sanguine expectations; and yet the women who were privileged to attend that wonderful service in Richmond, when the Triennial Offering was presented, came home feeling that more must be given in the next three years to hasten the coming of Christ in His Kingdom.

It is essentially human that where new high records are created in some departments, there should be a corresponding recession in others, yet your Recording Secretary would not be faithful to her trust if she did not call attention to a falling away in our Diocesan contribution towards the $100,000.00 pledged by the Woman's Auxiliary as a whole to the Joint Work of the General Missionary Board.

In Miss Emery's report of 1907 she says: "The officers of the Auxiliary show more and more a sense of the importance of arranging early in the working year for the accomplishment of this duty, i. e., the appropriation for Joint Work, before going on to the privilege and pleasure of special gifts." But in this same report we are credited with $630.00 for Joint Work, against $775.00 in 1906, and $875.00 in 1905, a difference of $245.00 in three years.

Another matter of regret has been our omission the past two years to prepare any Joint Boxes—small matter for wonderment when we consider that parochial work is not fully mapped out before the Annual Meeting, which is quickly followed by the whirl of Christmas festivities, and the close of the Lenten season is practically the close of missionary activity in every parish.

At the last meeting of the Auxiliary a most helpful conference was held which bore directly on this subject of Joint Work, and in discussing the methods of other Diocesan branches, we saw how we could still improve our own ways. Endless discussions have arisen on the subject of Joint Work and Specials, and most of our workers have only a vague notion of the whole matter, and so it was suggested that before the Annual Meetings, the Executive Committee should consider the needs of the various fields included under Joint Work, and the Missionary endeavors that are still to be supported by special contributions, and that a printed slip of suggestion and explanation be sent to each parish branch, that they may understand to what objects they are asked to contribute and the reason for such choice. So when the delegates come to the Annual Meeting they will be prepared not only to state how much they can give, but to know for what it will be appropriated. This action on the part of the Executive Committee would apply to Specials as well as to Joint Work.

These suggestions do not reflect in any way upon the record of the year's work, which has shown progress in every branch. The monthly meetings have been largely attended, and the workers have been earnest and enthusiastic. Our number of out-of-town delegates has been steadily growing, some new branches have been formed and some old branches reorganized, all of which have been visited by some officer of the Auxiliary.

The Junior work has been faithfully attended to, and new branches have been formed in six parishes. The Juniors sent a Joint Box of Christmas gifts to Porto Rico, and the letters of thanks from teacher and pupils were painstakingly circulated among the contributing branches, together with a photograph of the Christmas tree, a method calculated to interest and encourage the children.

The Corresponding Secretary cheerfully accepts her duties which increase yearly as shown by her report, knowing that it means an enlarged field of labor.

The Treasurer reports that she has disbursed the unusually large sum of $1,895.17, and has still a balance in the treasury—a much more encouraging state of affairs than a deficit.

The amount of the United Offering was a matter of joy to all who shared in the privilege of giving, and to the zealous workers who are hedged about with limitations in giving and doing comes the comforting knowledge that others must be taught to covet the same high privilege; and that, while there are limitations imposed on the individual, there are no limitations to the work itself.

The patient gathering of Miss Carter's salary has been accomplished by the treasurer of that fund, and we could wish to share with our three treasurers the happiness that comes from tasks worthily completed. Many a princely income does not mean so much to its possessor as the assurance to a devoted woman of a certain sum to supply her modest necessities, that she may be free to give her working hours to the Master.

The Correspondent of the Church Periodical Club has tried to come in personal contact with the parish librarians by giving a tea for them and the officers of the Auxiliary, and feels she has gained an increased hold on her work and has also added to her list of librarians.

More stress is laid every year on the educational side of our missionary endeavors, and the Church Periodical Club is the oldest organization with this in view.

At present, the Missions Study Class reaches only those who can come to some central point to hear papers read and follow some outlined course, but for many years the Periodical Club has sown its seed beside many waters, and who can tell what the harvest will be? A noble work is being done by the Missions Study Class, and all the members of our Diocesan branch owe their heartfelt thanks to the committee who prepare the year's programme and arrange for the meeting places with such quiet thoroughness that the members who attend with care free minds know as little of the work involved as an honored guest knows of the preparations of her hostess.

In touching on the different departments of our work we must not overlook the Babies' Branch, for the smallest and weakest of our helpers certainly appeal to every heart, and we cordially welcome the new Director who brings to her duties both experience and enthusiasm.

While there is an ever-increasing necessity to raise funds, yet we have the comforting assurance that the spiritual side of work in the Woman's Auxiliary is being cherished by the Church Periodical Club, the Missions Study Class and the Babies' Branch.

The knowledge of missions leads to the love of missions, and in the light of this more perfect knowledge we shall see clearly how love finds its proper expression in imparting the light to those who walk on still in the twilight of ignorance and in the darkness of unbelief.

Describing her visits to Missionary stations in many lands

"Twice Around the World"

SECOND EDITION

250 PAGES AND 100 ILLUSTRATIONS

PAPER COVER, 50 CENTS

STIFF COVER OF ART CANVAS, $1.00

The first journey takes the reader from East to West, the second begins with the trip across our own country to the Pacific.

A useful addition to our Missionary Libraries, and a help in study classes as well as in other meetings of the Auxiliary, and in Junior work.

Used in many Mission Study Classes as a text-book, a chapter being read at each meeting, different members of the class adding whatever further information they can obtain about the special country referred to.

A Plea for the Babies Branch

In the year 1820 the foundation for the Woman's Auxiliary was laid—in the Foreign and Domestic Missionary Society. This Auxiliary was advanced year by year, until now it stands for united, consolidated strength. In 1889, the Junior Auxiliary was authorized to be carried on along the same lines, and still later comes the "Babies Branch."

The life of the Church is its Mission work, and the Mission chain is incomplete without the "Babies Branch," which takes in the children from infancy or date of baptism to ten years of age. So few seem to realize its great importance in the future growth of the Church. The work of this Branch is sweet and tender—its influence for good untold. It so often happens in the young and growing household that the many daily cares, the many little calls upon the inexperienced young mother's time crowd out the all-important thought of early consecration of themselves and their little ones to God's service. The Babies Branch helps in this; helps the Rector in the number of baptisms and often brings to the mother peace and comfort she would not know otherwise. The little prayer—"God bless the Missionaries all over the world and all of the little Helpers—for Jesus' sake," said by the Mother for her babe, or by the little child, when dropping the weekly offering—cannot help awaken sweet thoughts of the Saviour's love and a wish that others might know.

A Secretary of the Babies Branch is often the most loved of any of the Church Society leaders. She keeps in touch with the mother and child. Tender thoughts must come as she thinks of what these little ones all over the world are doing for the "Master," who told the "grown ups" to let them come to Him.

The Director of the Babies Branch is ready and desirous to visit any parish desiring information in regard to the work.

MRS. J. S. SLICER

Director Babies Branch

Report of the Missions Study Class

The Missions Study Class of this diocese was organized under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary, November 12th, 1903.

Its object is to bring the Auxiliary into closer touch with the missions and missionaries of our Church.

It is the duty of those who stay at home to work heart to heart and hand to hand with those in the mission field. This can only be accomplished when there is a complete knowledge of what is being done and the great needs and opportunities in our own and the foreign field. The Missions Study Class will be found a very great aid in obtaining this knowledge.

The average attendance since organization has been twenty-five. During the past year four meetings have been held and four papers read on "Strategic Points in the Home Field."

The average attendance has been thirty. At the last meeting "The Church of England and of America in the South Pacific" was chosen as the subject for next year's course.
