PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Bishop Fawcett, the Reverend Clergy, Members of the Woman's Auxiliary—

Friends All:—

This is the thirty-sixth annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary in the Diocese of Quincy. It is a pleasure and a privilege for us to be together here in Kewanee. Let us make it also a day of profit to the cause of the Auxiliary.

Before we proceed with our report, let us pause to pay tribute to our beloved leader, Bishop Tuttle, who has finished the course. The Auxiliary can never forget the wonderful support he gave us. We have been fortunate in this Diocese in having had him with us in some of our Diocesan gatherings and we remember his presence as a benediction.

So many months have elapsed and so many reports have been given about the General Convention that it seems almost like quoting history to mention it, yet we are proud to recall how many representatives our Diocese had at the Triennial. Certainly we can expect the impressions which they received there to bear fruit in the Diocesan work. At those sessions in Portland some important general resolutions were passed affecting the Auxiliary in every Diocese. These cover the subjects of prison reform, care of disabled veterans, proper laws for women and children, Christian inter-racial and international relations, limitation of armaments, and Christian unity. How we may enter into the carrying out of these resolutions we shall discuss under the head of New Business.

During the past year only a few visiting speakers from without the Diocese have been reported. St. Paul's Branch, Peoria, has had as speakers Mrs. Snowden of Milwaukee, Mrs. Tilton of Chicago, and Mrs. Biller from Church Missions House. Our Executive Secretary, Miss Lindley, enroute from Chicago to Kansas City, stopped in Peoria for an evening meeting and in Galesburg for a brief conference. May I urge upon all the branches the value of bringing in, now and then, workers from other fields. It arouses our enthusiasm, helps to create a healthy competition, and enlarges our vision by making us realize that we are part of a great whole. Often we feel that we of this Diocese are a very small part, but I cannot help deplore the attitude which complains that because we are few in numbers we should be excused from many responsibilities. Of course, our totals will not make large figures, but they can and should be proportionate to our membership. I feel very strongly that we should take our place in the big movements for which the National Auxiliary is sponsor. Our Lord, in His Ministry, did not scorn to work through small groups and I like to think His Work can still be done in that way. Indeed large Dioceses may envy the personal friendships and personal consideration which are possible in the small group. Presumably we know that the three aims of the Woman's Auxiliary are prayer, study, and giving to Missions. Of these I am more and more convinced that prayer is the greatest; and who shall say that the prayers of the few shall not avail with those of the many?

It is gratifying to know that the Racine Summer Conference is resumed this year. Let me urge you as the Diocesan Auxiliary and as Parish Branches to encourage your people to attend this Conference and, if at all possible, assist some of your young people to go.

In closing, let me thank you for the support and response you have accorded your president during the past two years and may I bespeak for the new term your continued, earnest co-operation.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGUERITE H. WILSON.

Minutes of the Church Service League Meeting.

The third annual meeting of the C. S. L. of the Diocese of Quincy was held at St. John's, Kewanee, May 8, 1923. Bishop Fawcett presided, giving a brief resume of the organizing and work of the C. S. L. in this Diocese, and stated that while it was successful in some places it did not function here because of no present need and no financial ability to handle it.

The Rev. Campbell Gray presented the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the C. S. L. under present conditions in the Diocese of Quincy does not function as a Diocesan organization, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Diocesan C. S. L. be held in abeyance until such time as the parishes and missions may be so organized along C. S. L. lines as to create a need for correlation; and also

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Woman's Auxiliary be requested to function in the matter of delegates to the House of Church Women and to the Conference at Racine.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Deaconess Josephine's report was read and placed on file. Bishop Fawcett appointed the following officers:

Deaconess Josephine—Executive Secretary of Little Helpers; The Rev. W. L. Essex—Executive Secretary of Church School Service League; Dr. F. G. Hall—Treasurer of Church School Service League.

The report of the Church School Service League as prepared by Deaconess Josephine was read and given to the Rev. W. L. Essex.

Motion was made by Mrs. Campbell Gray that a vote of thanks be extended to Deaconess Josephine for her untiring efforts in behalf of the Church Service League. Motion carried.

Meeting adjourned.

(Signed) JESSIE S. LINTER,
Secretary.

Report of the Executive Secretary of the C. S. S. L.

The Church School Service League of the Diocese of Quincy was represented in Portland by the Executive Secretary, Deaconess Josephine, and the Box Secretary, Miss Emma Stittg, at the Conference on the C. S. S. L. extending over a period of thirteen days.

Work was reported by 75 Dioceses, 9 of them retaining the Junior Auxiliary organization. As stated by the Chairman of the C. S. S. L. Commission, Miss Frances Withers, the C. S. S. L. at present functions in three spheres: 1. In the National administration of the Church by means of a Commission, which develops and recommends programs and methods. 2. In the Diocese, where there must be some kind of organization—Commission or Committee—that will put the C. S. S. L. into effect. 3. In the work of the Parish, where the C. S. S. L. may be a program, with or without organization.

Your secretary has been inclined to maintain that the only organization necessary was the Church School. Osco demonstrates that some C. S. S. L. work can be done where there is not even a Church School.

One of the important days at the General Convention at Portland was Sunday, Sept. 10th, when the first Birthday Thank Offering of the boys and girls was presented. That was the time when Bishop Tuttle caught the attention of the children—big and little—by the words, which have recently been quoted in the Church press: "Johnnie and Susie eat their bread and drink their milk and grow to be strong men and women. Johnnie and Susie also receive their spiritual food from the Church and grow to be strong soldiers of Jesus Christ." Bishop Rowe has his new Pelican! $8,126 was received. Of this amount your Executive Secretary brought $79.39 from the Church Schools of this Diocese.

On recommendation of the Conference at Portland, the next B. T. O. will go to Liberia. Literature has been sent out to all points in the Diocese known to have a Church School and several requests for a supply of leaflets and envelopes have been received. The B. T. O. should be presented as a whole in each parish on Whitsunday and sent to Dr. F. G. Hall, acting Treasurer of the C. S. S. L., to be put at interest until the General Convention in New Orleans in 1925.

Copies of the Lenten Leaflets "A Call to Service" were also sent to our schools. The "Book of Programs for the C. S. S. L." is recommended for suggestions and information; also "Working together" if you have a G. F. S., Brotherhood of St. Andrew, or Boy Scout organization. Both can be had from the Church Book Store at the Church Missions House, at 30c and 5c respectively.

Your Secretary had an opportunity to present C. S. S. L. work as the Church School in action, at a conference on Religious Education at our Diocesan Synod last January.

The report of our faithful Box Secretary shows 14 boxes sent from 13 parishes in 1922, containing 1260 gifts valued at $610.25; a gain over 1921 of 119 gifts and $51.90 value. Miss Withers reports that about 38,000 children each received two gifts and 2500 men of the Seamen's Institute received Christmas cheer. A wonderful growth since the C. S. S. L. has charge of the Christmas boxes.

Again this year a C. S. S. L. Treasurer has left our Diocese. Happily Mr. Hall's father, Dr. F. G. Hall, kindly consented to take charge of the work.

We can now report five divisions of The Little Helpers: Rock Island, Kewanee, Warsaw, St. Paul's, Peoria and St. John's, Galesburg. The latter two are new this year. Sister Mary Angela hopes to report one at the Cathedral next year. To begin the work of the child's Christian training from the time of his baptism is surely a worthy objective.

"The program of the C. S. S. L. provides activity in Church life through prayer, study, work, gifts, and fellowship in the five fields of service: Parish, Community, Diocese, Nation and World."

Respectfully submitted,

DEACONESS JOSEPHINE,

Exec. Sec'y C. S. S. L., Dio. Quincy.

May 7, 1923
