MINUTES OF SECRETARY, ANNUAL MEETING, MAY, 1929

The Forty-second Annual Meeting of the Springfield Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Presiding Bishop and Council was held on May 14th and 15th in Champaign.

On Tuesday, May 14th, the delegates met at 5 p. m. for registration and were assigned places for entertainment during their stay at meetings. At 6 p. m. a reception was held at Champaign Country Club, followed by Church Club Dinner at 6:30 o'clock, Mr. George Williams, President, acting as toastmaster. Excellent addresses were given by Bishop Francis of Indiana, Rev. F. Deis of Chicago, Mr. H. L. Choate of Washington and Bishop White.

On Wednesday at 7:30 a. m. a corporate Communion of the Synod and Woman's Auxiliary was held in Emmanuel Memorial Church, Champaign. This was a very beautiful choral service, celebrant being Bishop White, assisted by Archdeacon Haughton. Breakfast and all meals for the ladies were provided and served in the Episcopal Guild Hall by the ladies of the Chapel of St. John the Divine.

At 10:00 a. m. a combined meeting of Synod and Woman's Auxiliary met in Emmanuel Memorial Church to hear Bishop White's annual address, being the fifth year of the Bishop's consecration. After the address the ladies were excused and returned to Episcopal Guild Hall and convened for business at 11 a. m., Miss Whitley, President, in the chair.

The meeting opened with hymn and prayers said by Rev. J. Wallace. Mrs. Crathome gave a few words of welcome in behalf of the chapel women. Roll call showed seventy-five women present from twenty-six parishes and missions.

The Secretary and Treasurer's report of the year's work was adopted.

The President appointed Mrs. George Simpson, Decatur, Chairman of Nominating Committee, and Mrs. Langton, Jacksonville, Chairman of Resolutions.

The President conducted noonday prayers, followed by a short talk urging all to see that a blue box was in every home, also that we increase our membership and stress the objects of the Woman's Auxiliary, prayer-study and work, realizing more and more personal religion. In the last year's work there has been a general increase in study classes, more Corporate Communion, more using "The Spirit of Missions," more younger women taking up the work and interest in the Woman's Auxiliary.

Mrs. Lansden of Cairo gave a report of the Executive Board, which was held on Tuesday, May 14th, eight members being present. It was suggested to have a Christian Social Service Chairman appointed. A motion to this effect carried. Motions were presented and passed that Miss Bowen, the Diocesan Director of Girls' Friendly Society, and Mrs. Gerould, Convenor of Church School Service League, be included as members of the Executive Board. It was agreed that Miss Whitley be allowed to use her own judgment in disbursing here and there a little money, as needed, as an encouragement to Branches. The United Thank Offering to be presented by April 1st and October 1st. In the annual reports all the work being done by the women is to be included. It was moved to pay Miss Beardsley of the Church Mission House $25.00 for her additional expense in stopping over for annual meeting.

This report was adopted by the meeting. Some discussion was carried on in regard to power of Executive Board, and a motion was carried that the Executive Board have full power to transact all business coming up between annual meetings. Adjournment for lunch.

At 2 p. m. meeting convened. After opening hymn and prayer, Miss Whitley introduced Miss Edna Beardsley, Assistant Secretary to the National Executive Secretary, New York, who gave a very excellent talk on the Woman's Auxiliary, telling all we must "heroically create a new world out of the old"—as new conditions are being faced all Auxiliaries must stop and take stock and each one keep the thought, "We would see Jesus," in our hearts and work; also aim to help the church, and bring to people of the world a knowledge of the name of Jesus. We must have ourselves in close relationship with our Lord; know the meaning of study and prayer. The speaker referred to the different funds in the Auxiliary and also the five fields of service, Parish, Community, Diocese, Nation, and World; also the different departments and the study for next year to be "World Mission of Christianity," a study of The Jerusalem Conference.

The Chairmen of Committees-Departments then gave short reports.

Supply Work Department, given by Mrs. C. W. Armstrong, Decatur, giving explanation of correct slips to send in and also information on second-hand clothing.

Corporate Gift—Mrs. C. Woods, Lincoln, Chairman, reported all paid in full.

United Thank Offering report—Miss Nelle Moore reporting up to date nineteen places, sending in offering amounting to $495.70. Also offering at Communion Service; amount, $33.87.

Educational Secretary—Mrs. W. B. Riley, progress of Study Classes.

Little Helpers—Miss C. Forbes. Thirteen branches to send Christmas books.

Religious Education—Mrs. Gerould. Church school the greatest asset and help; greatest drawback lack of teachers.

Rev. M. C. Stone gave a splendid report of the student work at the chapel.

RESOLUTIONS

Third—We wish to express to Miss Edna Beardsley of the Church Missions House, New York, our appreciation of her message from headquarters—of courage to help us carry on in bringing abundant life to the world.

Fourth—To our hostesses, the women of Emmanuel Memorial Church of Champaign and of St. John the Divine, we express our thanks for their cordial hospitality and delightful welcome in their homes and at the Episcopal Guild Hall.

REPORT OF THE UNITED THANK OFFERING SERVICE

The Second Annual United Thank Offering Presentation Service was held in St. John's Church, Decatur, on October 3, 1929. About ninety women were present at the service. Rev. T. G. C. McCalla, General Missionary in the Diocese, preached the sermon, which was most inspiring, filled with United Thanksgiving thoughts and efforts and many personal experiences. The offering amounted to $518.05. Rev. S. A. Macdonell was the celebrant, assisted by Rev. T. G. C. McCalla.

Luncheon was served in the Parish Hall by the ladies of St. John's Church.

A business meeting followed, with Miss E. M. Whitley presiding. A few words of welcome were given by Rev. S. A. Macdonell and Mrs. George Simpson, President of St. John's Guild. Registration showed eighty-six members present from fourteen parishes and missions. Miss Whitley gave a few words of encouragement, asking all to feel a deeper personal responsibility in work for God, asking each member to devote at least fifteen minutes a day to reading of the Bible. Also at least once a month go to Holy Communion with thoughts and prayers for the work of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Mrs. White of Springfield read a letter from Bishop White, expressing regret at not being able to be present, but remembering the members in prayer and also expressing gratitude for work being done by the women in the Church. The Bishop also stressed the need of the Hayner Fund and the work of the Orphanage.

A rising vote of thanks on motion of Mrs. White was given the ladies of Decatur for the delicious luncheon.

Miss Whitley then introduced Mrs. E. A. Kirkland, the United Thank Offering Custodian of the Diocese of Chicago, who gave a very excellent talk, expressing delight at being present and referring to the General Convention, when the great culmination of Thank Offering was presented at Washington, D. C., in a service when over four thousand communions were made and people were present from all parts of the world to carry away the uplifting power of the service. By making the Thank Offering twice a year the interest grows into a very large sum, being over $69,000 last Triennial. The National Council has had to cut out all missionary work except that undertaken by the U. T. O. Mrs. Kirkland urged the women to go forward in the work and try to get the younger women interested. She also cited work being done by the Thank Offering in sending out missionaries to foreign fields, Christian training for boys and girls in our own land, nurses, medical care and sending out the message of Christ's love to the elderly.

Rev. T. G. C. McCalla gave a short talk on Christian Social Service, giving many of his own experiences in larger cities out in the west and also in Cleveland.

A few words were spoken by the Diocesan officers present.

An invitation to hold the next Annual Presentation Service in Emmanuel Memorial Church, Champaign, on the first Thursday in October, 1930, was accepted.

Meeting adjourned.

JESSIE MACDONELL,
Secretary.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

In going over the Parish Reports with the Diocesan Secretary, we find that about the same number of Branches have reported as were reported last year. The reports are not, however, in every instance, from the same places. One of our Branches, which was a charter "member" of the Diocesan Auxiliary when it was organized in 1887, has failed this year for the first time to send in a report. This we deeply regret. On the other side of the "balance" we have this year reports from several of the smaller places in the southern part of the Diocese which have not reported before.

On the whole, I consider that the year has been one of progress. The Treasurer's totals show a small increase of funds handled. The Supply Department shows an increase of over $300 in its totals. The United Thank Offering shows some increase, and a decided gain in the number of places using the Blue Box. Christian Social Service work is reported by a number of Branches. There have been more Corporate Communion and more groups of women using the Course of Study for the year. The "Corporate Gift" has been fully subscribed. Last time, you remember, it was necessary to make up a considerable part of our quota from the Diocesan Treasury. More organizations are paying the annual dues of fifty cents a member.

The report of the "Little Helpers" and "The Christmas Boxes" was fully completed before the death of the dear Diocesan Chairman, Miss Forbes.

We gave three scholarships last year—two to the Church Workers' Conference at Racine and one to the Rural Conference at Madison.

My visits to the different Branches continued after the annual meeting. Since then I have visited about twelve places. In at least three places Auxiliary work was started or revived, and in each instance a Study Class was formed. My last visit for the summer was made on July 18th. Visiting was again started in the fall, but was interrupted a number of times by the extremely severe weather and once by illness.

On October 3d we had our Second Annual United Thank Offering Service in Decatur attended by about eighty women.

On October 16th and 17th our Diocese was well represented at the Provincial Synod and House of Church Women, meeting in Indianapolis at this time. The name of Provincial Woman's Organization was changed from the House of Church Women to "The Provincial Woman's Auxiliary," with Miss Elizabeth Matthews of Southern Ohio as President. The next meeting of these Provincial Organizations will be held in Springfield in October.

I would like to thank the Bishop, the Executive Office and the Diocesan Officers for help and encouragement—especial thanks to the Diocesan Secretary for her untiring patience and faithfulness.

For our Advance Work—The New Corporate Gift—quota will soon be assigned to our Diocese. This time it is the whole Church working for 170 objects. Under the able leadership of our Diocesan Corporate Gift Chairman, I am sure we will respond generously and graciously as before.

I cannot close this report without another word of deep sorrow in thinking of the death at Christmastide of Miss Caroline Forbes, our Diocesan Chairman of "The Little Helpers." "May she rest in peace and light perpetual shine upon her."

Looking forward to our annual meeting in Centralia on May 21st, when I hope to meet many members of my Auxiliary "family."

Faithfully yours,

E. MAUDE WHITLEY.

REPORT OF THE CORPORATE GIFT

The amount apportioned to the Diocese of Springfield to be raised for the Corporate Gift for 1929 was $229. This sum was given in full, the larger part being subscribed by the time of the meeting of the Synod in May. A subscription was sent very promptly and generously from the majority of the Auxiliaries in the Diocese. Perhaps this was due to the vital appeal of the objects of the Gift. The sum of $50,000 was divided between three projects—the erection of a Church at Santo Domingo; the improvement of the Indian School at Wind River Reservation in Wyoming by furnishing a water supply, and the building of a boys' dormitory at Christ School, Arden, N. C.
