PROCEEDINGS.

The annual meeting of the Diocese was held in Grace Church, Chattanooga, May 18, 1899.

There was a celebration of the Holy Eucharist by Rev. E. A. Bazett-Jones at 7 a.m., at St. Paul's Church.

The meeting was called to order at 2.30 p.m., the President, Mrs. John Shortridge, being in the chair.

The Secretary, Mrs. Telfair Hodgson, being unavoidably absent, the President appointed Mrs. Susan D. Smedes Secretary pro tem.

The Secretary called the roll and the following delegates answered to their names:

Cleveland: Mrs. J. D. Patton, Mrs. Jackson Kemper, Mrs. W. E. Dakin.

Chattanooga: Mrs. Rosalie Duval.

Memphis, Calvary: Mrs. Nellie Portlock.

Memphis, Cathedral: Mrs. T. F. Gailor.

Bishop Gailor then addressed the meeting. He explained that the Bishops in many of the Northern and Eastern Dioceses were given funds called the Bishop's Purse, these funds to be used at the discretion of the Bishop. He also spoke on the subject of a Memorial Theological Chair at Sewanee, to be supported by the Woman's Auxiliary as a memorial of Bishop Quintard. After discussion this was tabled until next year, the members of the Auxiliary not being sure that this would be Auxiliary work. On motion of Mrs. Gale, seconded by Mrs. Portlock, it was voted that Parishes, not the Woman's Auxiliary, should raise this memorial to Bishop Quintard. The meeting adjourned until 10 a.m. Friday. After prayer by the President the meeting was addressed by Rev. E. A.

Bazett-Jones. On motion of Mrs. Gailor, seconded by Mrs. Portlock, that each Branch pay deficit in Contingent Fund by July 1st, the same was adopted.

On motion of Mrs. Gailor, seconded by Mrs. Smedes, that each member pay 10 cents annually to Contingent Fund, the same was adopted.

On motion of Mrs. Lodge, seconded by Mrs. Jounard, that the Secretary write and ask Miss Emery if work done in the Diocese outside of Parishes be considered Auxiliary work, the same was adopted.

Mrs. Gailor addressed the meeting on the subject of studying about Missions, advising all Branches to subscribe for "Spirit of Missions" and try reading it for one winter, also to get reading matter from Miss Emery who would furnish information from all mission fields free of charge.

It was decided to give to the Bishop for the Bishop's Purse all money on hand for the Bishop Gailor Scholarship at St. Katherine's School, Bolivar, the same amounting to $257.00.

The President asked that each Branch send a contribution, if only a few lines, telling of their work, to be printed in the Diocese of Tennessee.

Mrs. Gale read the correspondent's report of the Church Periodical Club.

The President requested Mrs. Gale to make a motion expressing sympathy for and regret at Mrs. Hodgson's absence.

The President closed the meeting with prayer.

Respectfully submitted.

FANNY G. HODGSON,

Secretary Tennessee Branch of Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions.

The record of work accomplished by the Junior Auxiliary during the past year, though not as much as we should like to report, is encouraging. Two new Branches have been formed, making eight in all, and a Babies' Branch is just being organized in Memphis. For the first time our Juniors sent Christmas boxes to poor Mission Schools; and, besides the great joy they gave to the needy little ones, we hope their own hearts were made happier by learning the blessedness of giving as well as receiving at that holy season. The Sewanee Branch sent a box of toys and clothing to the Mission at Cowan, and four other Branches united in filling one large box for a poor school in North Carolina.

The Rector of Christ Church, Nashville, has instituted a change in the Junior Auxiliary of that Parish. The society, as such, has ceased to exist, and has discontinued its monthly meetings. The whole Sunday-school is formed into a Branch of the Junior Auxiliary; each teacher is asked to give her class instruction about missions, and occasionally the Superintendent or Rector will talk to the children on that subject, and take an offering. This plan has worked well in other dioceses, and we hope it will in Tennessee.

Again we would urge our Juniors to inform themselves about the great missionary work of the Church. Organize classes for reading and study, and send to the Junior Auxiliary Publishing Company, Hartford, Conn., for instruction and leaflets.

Respectfully submitted,

LULIE H. CUNNINGHAM,
Diocesan President Junior Auxiliary.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDENT OF THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB.

---

The Church Periodical Club in Tennessee reports for this year an increased number of papers, but is able to report no increase in the number of Librarians.

During the year seventy papers and magazines have been sent to missionaries and others. It is sincerely hoped that a greater number will be disposed to help in this good work during the coming year. We have in this Diocese eleven Librarians, named in the order of appointment:

1. Miss H. H. Turner, Knoxville.
2. Miss Lucas, Nashville.
3. Mrs. T. Hodgson, Sewanee.
4. Mrs. A. E. Trabue, Nashville.
5. Miss Pearson, Monteagle.
6. Miss B. A. Shanks, Memphis.
7. Mrs. Barnes, Memphis.

Information or addresses to which papers, magazines, etc., may be sent, can be had of the Diocesan Correspondent.

Respectfully submitted.

FANNIE G. HODGSON,
