The Nineteenth Annual Meeting of the Tennessee Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions will be held (D. V.) in the Otey Memorial Church, Sewanee, May, 1906.

MINUTES

The Eighteenth Annual Meeting of the Tennessee Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in Epiphany Church, Knoxville, on Tuesday, May 2, 1905. The business meeting was preceded by the celebration of the Holy Communion, the Bishop of the Diocese being the celebrant, assisted by the Rev. R. B. Balcom, Rector of the Parish.

The sermon was preached by Bishop Gailor from the text, "Why seek ye the living among the dead?" (St. Luke xxiv., 5.)

After the service the meeting convened for organization, and the following delegates responded to the roll call:

Brownsville.—Mrs. J. W. E. Moore, Miss Mary V. Moore.
Chattanooga, Christ Church.—Mrs. D. E. Howell, Miss Howell and Mrs. S. B. Gray.
Chattanooga, St. Paul's.—Miss Josephine Chapman.
Idlewild.—Mrs. Chas. Duntze.
Greeneville.—Mrs. W. H. O'Keefe.
Franklin.—Mrs. H. P. Cochrane.
Knoxville, Epiphany.—Mrs. S. L. Hoover, Mrs. B. A. Hamilton.
Knoxville, St. John's.—Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. H. A. Ijams, Mrs. C. J. Milligan.
Memphis, Calvary.—Mrs. R. E. Mitchell.
Memphis, Cathedral.—Mrs. T. F. Gailor.
Memphis, Grace Church.—Mrs. O. T. Jaquess.
Nashville, Advent.—Mrs. Mary Sharp.
Nashville, Christ Church.—Mrs. W. E. Norvell, Mrs. F. F. Reese, Mrs. W. E. Jonnard, Mrs. A. J. Porter.
Nashville, St. Ann's.—Mrs. Andrew Allison, Mrs. Fred Hardy.
Nashville, St. Stephen's.—Mrs. T. S. Joy, Mrs. J. F. Horne.
Sewanee.—Mrs. W. B. Barnwell.

The women of Epiphany Church invited all delegates to luncheon in the parish house, where the hospitality and social hour were much enjoyed.

At 3 o'clock the meeting was called to order, the President in the chair. After the usual services, the Rev. Mr. Rhames spoke for ten minutes on the need for the study of missions, calling the attention of all to the fact that the Bible is the first and standard book on the subject, where we find the Great Commission and the fulfillment of it in the early Church, where we gain inspiration from the Apostles, a strong incentive to us, who claim to belong to the Apostolic Church. Besides the Bible, Mr. Rhames advocated the study of the lives of missionary heroes, and showed many pamphlets published by the Church Missions Publishing Company to facilitate this study.

Father Bazett-Jones then brought before the meeting the newly organized League of the Baptized, having for its object the relief of disabled clergy, their widows and orphans. His appeal was that all women should return home and put the cause before their respective branches.

Next followed the regular order of business. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, after which the reports of the Secretary, the Treasurer, and the Custodians were read. In the absence of the Custodian for Specials, her report was read by the Treasurer, and Mrs. F. F. Reese represented the Custodian of the United Offering.

Miss Chapman read the report of the Junior Branch, and besides this, Mrs. Robertson's report of the work done by the Little Helpers.

The only communication to be presented was a letter from Miss Emery on the subject of the Auxiliary's pledge to the Board of Missions and the increasing demand for study classes. We welcomed the news that we have sent in this year the $420 suggested as Tennessee's share in the $100,000 promised by the Auxiliary for general missions.

Delegates were next called upon for pledges for the coming year, and the meeting adjourned to re-assemble at Epiphany at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon.

The adjourned meeting was called to order at the appointed hour, when the minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved, two belated reports presented, and the pledges re-read for correction. Each delegate was called upon for an account of the year's work and the methods employed in her branch.

When the business of the afternoon was finished a very earnest and helpful paper on the "Consecrated Personality" was read by Mrs. Frederick Hardy, of St. Ann's Branch, Nashville, and with this spiritual note, the meeting of 1905 came to an end.

DEANE S. DuBOSE,
Secretary.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

It has been the privilege of some of us since the last annual meeting to attend the General Convention in Boston, and to hear some never-to-be-forgotten missionary talks, and join in many inspiring services. Would that every Auxiliary woman could have been there!

Nothing impressed me more than an address made by Bishop Brent before a great mass meeting in Tremont Temple. That seemed to me a perfect expression of missionary zeal. The Bishop had traveled over land and sea all the way from the Philippines, and might he not have been pardoned if he had taken every opportunity to plead the many needs of his new field? His talk was not about his own work, though, but about all the islands of the sea. He told us that he had come to Boston secretly believing that the Philippines needed more help than any missionary field, but that, on hearing and learning more about the others, he felt that every district had needs as pressing and opportunities as great. And this seems to me to show the truest missionary spirit, the very spirit needed for a great missionary Bishop. We are too prone to see only the needs about us, and to leave all else to take care of itself.

You remember that eighteen years ago we women of Tennessee acknowledged our duty not only at home, but towards the whole country and toward distant lands, and we organized a branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions. All of us know that the Board is the representative of the Church at large, and that its managers have the responsibility of distributing all the missionary funds. As its motto is that the missionary field is always to be regarded as one—the world—its effort is yearly to support more missionaries and to equip more schools and hospitals.

Our Auxiliary to the Board of Missions is not an independent society, but a department—an important department—of the Board of Missions. By our study, our prayers and our gifts we are organized to assist the Board. There are two or three branches in Tennessee that do nothing but diocesan work. Instead of being branches of the Auxiliary, they are really diocesan aid societies. Besides these, there are branches that devote most of their energies to diocesan work. Shall we not return home determined to work just as hard for the general work of the Church?

In San Francisco the General Secretary asked the Auxiliary to give, besides its boxes, United Offering and specials, $100,000 annually toward the appropriations of the Board, and though it seemed then a hard duty, it is being realized to-day as a privilege. So far the sum has not exceeded $75,000, but all of the women at the Boston Convention resolved to exert every effort to increase the gifts. Cannot every woman here give something annually toward this one hundred thousand? You will see that the report of boxes shows a falling off of twenty-five per cent. over last year's report. It may be that the severe winter and consequent sickness affected this department of our work. Greater results will come when as a diocese we study more about Missions. In some of the larger parishes there are well organized study classes, but there should not be the smallest mission branch without a systematic plan of learning more about all mission fields. To this end the Church Missions Publishing Co. is issuing lessons with helps, that the whole Auxiliary may study the same country at the same time.

We hope that every branch in Tennessee will take up the course, and I shall gladly let you know the subject for this year when it is ready for circulation. Let us learn all that we can about Missions, and let us desire more earnestly the spread of the Kingdom. Thus shall we have a share in the advancement of Christ's cause and hasten the fulfillment of His promise: "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

D. S. DuBOSE.

REPORT OF JUNIOR AUXILIARY.

I herewith submit my report for your consideration, and while, unfortunately, owing to the non-arrival of several reports, it does not represent all the work done this year by the Tennessee Juniors, yet it shows that there has been much work done in spite of a slight falling off in some directions.

I think we may feel encouraged to-day by the fact that there is in most branches a fuller appreciation of the responsibility and privilege of the work, a decided growth in missionary intelligence and in the zeal that is sure to come with increased knowledge.

With nearly every report comes the statement that "the Juniors are learning more about missions, and are taking an increased interest in the work and workers in the different fields to which they have contributed," in far Japan and China, in Alaska, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, the North Carolina mountains and in our own Diocese.

The Tennessee Juniors are pledged, as usual to contribute to (1) the Board of Missions, (2) Diocesan Missions, and all money for these pledges is to be sent direct to the proper custodians, designated as Junior contributions and reported to me; (3) to the support of our Bible woman in Japan, $85.00 special; (4) contributions to the annual Christmas box. These two latter are sent direct to me.

I am glad to report a Junior branch connected with St. Mary's Cathedral, Memphis. It has begun under favorable auspices, and promises to become one of our strongest branches.

This now gives us ~~sixteen~~<sup>seventeen</sup> active branches—just double our number in 1901; a good showing, but not yet what it should be, nor what it will be when the names of Bolivar, Brownsville, Clarksville, Cleveland, Franklin, Gallatin, Idlewild, Mason, La Grange, Newbern, Winchester and others are added to the list.

May the coming year see a decided growth of the Tennessee Juniors, and the end find us richer in the evidences of a true missionary spirit, which is the spirit of Christianity.
