PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

For twenty-one years we have been working together, and twenty-one times have we met, to hear reports and compare methods of work.

Knowing the zeal and activity of all the Branches, and believing you will rise to the occasion, I see no reason why this should not be our "Banner Year;" all through the Bible, the period of seven indicates completeness, something perfect; as this is our twenty-first year of existence, we should certainly do all we can to make it a memorable one, so far as our work throughout the Diocese is concerned.

I come to you to-day with rather a poor record for the past year. Since we last met, I have only organized one Branch, held two joint meetings of the Auxiliary, sent out fifty-four circulars and letters and conducted twelve meetings of the "Emmanuel" Auxiliary, colored,—which, I consider, is rather a poor year's work; nevertheless, I thank you all for your cordial and loving sympathy and coöperation. There can be no higher privilege than to be workers together in the service of our Lord; to you belongs the prerogative of holding us to our highest duties, thereby insuring the sending of faithful representatives to our annual meetings, who can carry back to their several Branches, an intelligent report of the proceedings, and who are willing, in all humility and gentleness, freely to express their opinions, as opportunity offers, and thereby become ready to enter upon active service, whenever called upon; then you will see the work grow as never before. The bravest hearts fail and the strongest hands grow weak, yet God's work must and will go on; in our weakness, let us rise on the wings of faith and say, "Here am I, a glad and willing sacrifice; fill me with Thy love and grant me Grace, to carry on Thy work." Then shall we be disciples and followers of the Truth so faithfully taught by our Clergy.

Our reports for the past year show steady growth and are most helpful in aiding us to press toward the mark of our high calling with renewed vigor.

We feel very much indebted to our Parochial officers—that branch of devoted women to whom the Auxiliary in every Diocese owes so much—for their efficient work. Let us begin our new year at once, doing what we can this summer and not waiting until winter; let each one of us try to interest some woman who does not know of our absorbing work.

We rely upon our dear Juniors to aid us, by sending "Boxes," holding "Study-Classes," and in every way lifting some of our burdens.

May I use this opportunity to call your attention to the "United Offering?" Let us keep the "Blue Mite Chest" ever present with us, in our homes or travels abroad. We carried from this Diocese to the last "Triennial Meeting" $1,595.08—see if we cannot take a larger sum in the year 1910.

During the last year, the "Angel of Death" has thinned our ranks. This Diocese sustained an irreparable loss when, on June 13th last, Mrs. Telfair Hodgson fell asleep. To her ability and devotion, during her service as Diocesan Secretary, is due much of the growth of the Woman's Auxiliary. Full of wisdom, love and gentleness, forgetful of self and always serving others, she worked and watched as a "Ministering Angel," and now she has entered into rest that remainth for the children of God.

Another name dear to many of us is Mrs. Lee Conner, late Treasurer of the Epiphany Branch, who also fought the good fight and finished her earthly course.

May they rest in peace, and may perpetual light shine upon them.

HESTER L. SHORTRIDGE.

MINUTES

The Twenty-first Annual Meeting of the Tennessee Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in Christ Church, Chattanooga, on Tuesday, May 5th, 1908. The sermon was preached by the Rev. T. A. Tidball, D.D., from the text: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my father."—St. John xiv. 12. It was an encouraging message for all missionary workers, reminding us that if we work in faith, we have the strength of our Risen Lord to win for us the great object of our labors.

The Bishop of the Diocese was the celebrant at the corporate Communion which followed, assisted by the Rev. W. C. Robertson, Rector of the Parish.

After the service, the delegates assembled for organization, when the following responded to roll call:

Chattanooga, Christ Church—Mrs. C. H. Dunning, Mrs. S. E. Howell, Mrs. W. T. Gaston.

Chattanooga, St. Paul's—Mrs. Francis Lynde, Mrs. B. T. Howard, Mrs. E. G. Richmond, Mrs. Jessie Dugger, Mrs. A. M. Thompson.

Cleveland, St. Luke's,—Mrs. J. D. Patton.

South Pittsburg—Mrs. Joseph Lodge.

Columbia, St. Peter's—Mrs. Frederick Hardy.

Franklin, St. Paul's—Mrs. H. P. Cochrane, Mrs. R. K. Smith, Mrs. Otey Walker, Mrs. J. B. Briggs, Mrs. J. E. Rhodes.

Jackson, St. Luke's—Mrs. Will Luckman.

Knoxville, Epiphany—Mrs. A. G. Mann, Mrs. Minnie Little.

Knoxville, St. John's—Mrs. Geo. Marr.

Memphis, Calvary—Mrs. Kate Paoli.

Memphis, Cathedral—Mrs. W. E. Barnes, Mrs. T. F. Gailor.

Memphis, St. Luke's—Mrs. H. W. Wells.

Memphis, Holy Trinity—Mrs. C. W. Richmond.

Nashville, Advent—Mrs. Hafford Jones, Mrs. E. A. Bazett-Jones, Mrs. Mary Sharp, Mrs. Thos. Longworth.

Nashville, Christ Church—Mrs. C. W. Starr, Mrs. W. E. Norvell, Mrs. John Lightbourne, Mrs. E. M. Wells.

Nashville, St. Ann's—Mrs. M. P. Logan.

Nashville, St. Peter's—Miss Lucy Chamberlin, Miss Louise Bolles.

Nashville, St. Stephen's—Miss Lazinka Hill, Miss Margaret McKoin.

Sewanee Branch—Miss Louise Finley, Mrs. W. S. Bishop.

Tracy City, Christ Church—Mrs. E. C. Norvell, Mrs. Annie Marugg.

The minutes of the last meeting were read, after which adjournment was taken until the time appointed for the business session.

At one o'clock, lunch was served in the guild room by the ladies of the Parish, assisted by St. Paul's Branch, and while the refreshments were enjoyed, an opportunity was afforded for a social reunion.

The business meeting was called to order at half past two, Mrs. Shortridge in the Chair. The number present exceeded a hundred. After the opening hymn and prayer, the President made her address of welcome and the roll was called.

The itemized reports were postponed for the adjourned meeting, and the Secretary and Treasurer and the Secretary of the Junior Branch made simple statements of totals. Miss Emery's letter was read, but the full discussion of it was left for the following meeting. Next in order were the reports from delegates. Nineteen branches were represented, and the delegates reported on the whole an increase in attendance and a growing interest in the members.

Two-thirds of the branches mentioned study-classes, showing that the realization is coming that zeal must work with knowledge. Pledges were then taken for the new year of work.

An encouraging feature of the meeting was the response to the call for new branches. Two representatives announced that their parishes were ready to begin work with us at once, and two more mentioned their hopes of starting Junior Branches, and one delegate expressed a determination to start a Babies' Branch.

The business being over, the Rev. P. A. Pugh was asked to speak a few words. He spoke of the stimulus which the Auxiliary had given to other work in the diocese, and with the thought of our opportunities before us, the closing hymn was sung and the meeting adjourned.

The adjourned meeting was called to order by the President at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and after the usual service, the roll was called and the minutes of the regular meeting read and approved. In the absence of the Custodian, the United Offering report was read by Mrs. John Lightbourne of Christ Church, Nashville. This report showed that the amount presented by the Tennessee Branch in Richmond exceeded the fifteen hundred dollars aimed at, and the President proposed as our effort for 1910 twenty-five hundred.

Mrs. Jonnard read her report of the money received by each Custodian. The full amount of the apportionment for General Missions was not reached, and Mrs. Gailor made a motion, seconded by Mrs. Walker, that an offering should be taken up at the meeting to augment the sum. Twenty-two dollars was in this way added to the fund.

Mrs. Gailor read the report of the Secretary of the Church Periodical Club, and her appeal for more coöperation.

The Secretary next read the report of boxes sent during the year, showing an encouraging increase in valuation over those sent last year.

Mrs. M. P. Logan read the report of Mrs. Roche on the Babies' Branch. Next in order came the discussion of Miss Emery's letter, which brought out suggestions from different delegates for increasing the United Offering, and other answers to her questions, which showed us how much more we could do than we have done in the past.

Mrs. Gailor made a motion, seconded by Mrs. Barnes, that in view of the aggressive work needed to enlist all parishes and missions in Auxiliary work, the Contingent Fund should be increased to thirty cents a member, so that the President could travel to the smaller places in the Diocese to increase the interest in mission work. After some discussion, the motion was carried.

Mrs. M. I. Reid spoke to the meeting about the women of Athens, Tennessee, who are struggling to revive their little church, and wish to recognize their obligation to the Church at large by starting a branch of the Auxiliary.

There being no further business, Mrs. R. K. Smith proposed a rising vote of thanks to the ladies of Christ Church and their assistants of St. Paul's for their generous hospitality, and to the choir for its valuable aid.

Mrs. Dunning, of Christ Church, thanked the delegates for their presence and the stimulus given by it, and with prayer the meeting of 1908 was adjourned.

DEANE S. DUBOSE, Secretary.

BABIES' BRANCH

The Secretary of the Babies' Branch sends greetings to our beloved President and to every member of the Woman's Auxiliary assembled in Convention. While sincerely regretting that she is unable to be with you, she begs to assure you of her heart-felt interest in yourselves individually and in the blessed work of Missions.

The beauty and appropriateness of a Babies' Branch impresses one more and more, as there comes the thought of the Woman's Auxiliary of the future, when we who now hold its work so dear shall have passed out of this life. We had no such systematic training in giving to Missions, yet the Church sees cause to value our service; how much more then will the vision of these Babies take in of responsibility and privilege in the Church's service when they shall have grown into the full measure of their strength. I ask the prayers of every woman present, and her influence in the family, in the Church Societies, and among her friends for the upbuilding of the Babies' Branch. Three new Branches have been added to our circle which will, I am sure, be heard from to advantage next year. The Secretary has knocked at the doors of many other Parishes without result, but feeling no discouragement will continue to knock until for her importunity the door will open. A few Branches hitherto fruitful, failed to report, thus cutting down to some extent the income, but those Branches heard from show a hearty and encouraging growth, and the Secretary has every reason to believe in its continuance.

Respectfully,

M. L. ROCHE,

Secretary and Treasurer, Babies' Branch.

REPORT OF THE DIOCESAN CORRESPONDENT OF THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

The Diocesan Correspondent of the Church Periodical Club in the State of Tennessee makes the following report to the Woman's Auxiliary of Tennessee.

I am often asked, "What is the Church Periodical Club? What does it do? What can we do in Tennessee?"

First, What is the Church Periodical Club? I can best answer this question by giving you a short history of the beginning of the work in the mind of one lovely Christian woman, who had spent years in different parts of our western country.

Being herself a woman of deep culture, she had seen the difficulties under which the clergy of the West accomplished their work. They were ill paid and, being widely separated, they led lonely lives deprived of those joys which every man of education finds in good literature.

We who live among our books can hardly realize what it must be for Priests and people to do without them; and for children to grow up without one of the greatest delights of the childish heart—a picture book—seems hard indeed.

Mrs. Helen Fargo saw this need in the homes of the clergy in the West and began by sending her own papers and magazines. These were so much appreciated, being passed from hand to hand until literally worn out, that she was asked to send more, and then she asked others to send their papers and magazines, so the Church Periodical Club began, and it is entirely due to Mrs. Fargo's untiring zeal and energy that it is really the great work it is to-day.

The growth of the work has been phenomenal; it was started in a room in Mrs. Fargo's house, where she was soon obliged to employ an assistant. More space soon became necessary and two Parish rooms of St. Bartholomew's Church were offered. Now its headquarters are in the Church Missions House, and there are three clerks regularly employed and also a man who packs books, etc. The sorting of the literature requires time and the sending of it to its destination involves money; the rent of the office and salaries of the clerks must also be provided, so that money is absolutely necessary to carry on the work.

Now, Second, What does the Church Periodical Club do? Each Bishop is asked to name those of his clergy who need literature, and the clergy are written to individually to find out their several wants. In each parish a Librarian is appointed by the Rector to take charge of the work and in each diocese the Bishop is asked to appoint a Correspondent. She appeals in the name of the Church Periodical Club to those who have periodicals to send them, when read, regularly every week or month to the persons, who ask for them.

Third, What can we do for the Church Periodical Club in Tennessee? Evidently the first step is to organize a branch of the Church Periodical Club in each Parish. The clergy can be of great help in accomplishing this result, and we are glad to have an opportunity of appealing to them and to beg their kindly interest and support.

The Church Periodical Club is a blessing to those who give, and to those who receive, and does its work in such a quiet unostentatious way that it does not receive the support it should. Let us have this subject brought up in the Order of Business, whenever the Branches of the Auxiliary meet, and have papers read on the work of the Church Periodical Club at Convocation Meetings. If your rector appoints you as Librarian of the Church Periodical Club in your Parish, do not refuse the task but do your best to gain contributors.

It is wonderful how much people will do if they are asked. We must have enthusiasm, interest and hard work, but above all, system and regularity.

The following Parish Librarians have been appointed and are more or less busily engaged in the Church Periodical Club work :

Brownsville, Christ Church—Miss Anabel Moore.

Chattanooga, Christ Church—Mrs. W. T. Gaston, 14 Oak St.

Jackson, St. Luke's—Mrs. Charles H. Lee, St. Luke's Rectory

Knoxville, Epiphany—Mrs. Leonard Denton, 239 Second Street.

Knoxville, St. John's — Miss H. H. Turner, University Campus.

Memphis, Calvary — Mrs. James R. Winchester, 213 Driver Street.

Memphis, Cathedral — Mrs. John W. Sykes, Jr., 340 Waldron Avenue.

Memphis, Good Shepherd — Mrs. L. W. Kendall, Randolph Road.

Memphis, Grace Church — Mrs. Walter Wills, 743 Polk Street.

Memphis, St. Luke's — Mrs. Duntze, 1989 Madison Avenue.

Nashville, Advent — Miss Lilian M. Essig, Waverly Place.

Nashville, Christ Church — Mrs. F. F. Reese.

Nashville, St. Ann's — Mrs. Mercer P. Logan, 421 Woodland Street.

Nashville, St. Peter's — Miss Ada Lucas, 1438 Florence St.

Sewanee, St. Augustine's — Mrs. W. S. Bishop.

By these Librarians sixty-five different magazines and periodicals are regularly sent out. This means that sixty-five women besides the Librarians are working for the Church Periodical Club in Tennessee.

I have received no money this year either for the general work of the Church Periodical Club or for contingent expenses.

I have written twenty-one letters and fifteen postal cards and have sent out many packages of leaflets.

Ladies of the Auxiliary, let me beg your continued interest and support in this most important and helpful branch of our Auxiliary work. Let us all try each in her own way to make others feel it is a privilege, not a duty only, to give to the Church Periodical Club and in a spirit of gentle rivalry let each Librarian try to do more in her parish this year than has ever been done before, then when the year ends we can all proudly say, "This has been the greatest year we have ever known," and the good done and the help given each other will be beyond words to tell.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. W. RHAMES,

Diocesan Correspondent.
