PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

In the name of our Heavenly Father, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift, and who has made it possible for us to again meet in annual session, I welcome you to this our twenty-sixth anniversary. May our coming together be a season of joy and Christian experience that will cause each one of us to thank God for having been present.

If we would make our meeting one of profit to the Master, we should take up the duties of this hour with greater earnestness, and endeavor to make this the very best meeting we have ever had; to even send forth from it influences that will make our next annual meeting better than this one. It is not my purpose in this greeting to occupy your time in listening to a general review of the year's work,—our Secretary will do that.

If we have been earnest in every service and faithful in every duty, our lives have been enriched by working in obedience to our Master's commands, and the good has been one with God and for humanity, the sum total of all work will be made up of little duties well performed, when all great principles will find their proper issue. It is not a special work, but one in which each interested church member should help. Perhaps some can do more than others, but in order that real success may be attained, each member must lay hold upon God and resolve to do her whole duty.

To know that we have aided, even in little deeds, our revered Bishop in furthering the cause of Christ, in giving to this people "the faith which was once delivered unto the Saints", we accept it as a blessed privilege, and because of it, let us renew our obligations in the Master's service and pray for strength to do better work in the future.

I regret very much not having been able to arrange for a visit to each branch of the Auxiliary during the past year, as personal contact affords better opportunity for interchange of thought, and lessons learned by older Auxiliaries could have been made easier for those of less experience.

The hours of pleasure and mutual interest spent with each other in weekly meetings will linger with us while memory lasts; the sweet communion with God in prayer, the sisterly recognition, the warmth of hand-clasps on coming together at the meetings in each other's homes, and the tender words of sympathy to the sick and encouragement to the unfortunate, are numbered among the good results of work "in His name".

Spiritual and temporal aid has been given, of which no published report will be made; missions not under our supervision, but meriting our endorsement, have been given monthly aid; comfort has been given to the destitute poor in gifts of clothing; the sick have been visited and ministered unto, and darkened homes made brighter by prayer and spiritual advice. The results of such work tend to strengthen the mystical tie that binds our hearts in Christian love and sympathy in that touch of true charity that knows no creed in relief work for humanity. To love God is to love our neighbor as well, and if each Auxiliary member will yield to the prompting of the Holy Spirit in doing good, golden grain will enrich the harvest-fields of our work.

To our honored and beloved Bishop the women of Memphis are bound by ties of inexpressible gratitude for the meditations of a "Quiet Day", on March 30th last. It was a day of sweet communion with God, and on His altar saddened hearts laid burdens grievously borne. It was also a day of "coming to ourselves" and, realizing our sins, we were led to seek forgiveness, and in joy were brought back to our "Father's house". "Thus saith the Lord thy God,"—"in quietness and confidence shall be our strength." So, dear co-workers, let us seek for greater strength, in quietness and prayer to God. To every earnest worker, sooner or later, comes the knowledge of her own limitations, which brings with it the temptation to become disengaged and lose interest, but we must remember that God calls for no greater standard than "she hath done what she could"; and that all He expects of us is to be faithful in the use of the little power we have.

In looking to the future, let us never drag and complain; instead, let us grasp our possibilities. We must not be satisfied until we have tilled the field we now occupy to our own satisfaction and the approbation of our honored Bishop. If we succeed, every victory must be the result of fervent prayer, friendly counsel and harmonious work; therefore let our armour be burnished with the faith that hopeth all things, forgiveth all things, endureth all things, and is purified in the crucible of Christ's all-embracing love.

HESTER L. SHORTRIDGE.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

BRANCHES

During the past year thirty-four branches have undertaken and reported active work. St. Luke's, Cleveland; Holy Trinity, Memphis; and Winchester, have been reorganized and a Second Circle of Auxiliary women has been formed at St. John's, Knoxville. Several branches report an increase in gifts through the use of a special Auxiliary envelope, and a large majority report more active interest, which they attribute mainly to increased prayer and an acquirement of fuller information through systematic study.

DAY OF PRAYER

Twenty-one branches signified their intention of observing the Feast of the Annunciation as a day of special prayer and intercession for the work of the Auxiliary, and five other branches set apart a special day for this purpose.

BOXES

In response to letters from New York, personal Missionary Boxes have been sent by the Cathedral, St. Luke's, and Grace Church, Memphis; Christ Church, Nashville; Otey Memorial, Sewanee; and St. Paul's, Chattanooga; the value of these boxes being $684.59. Boxes for the Mountain Missions, Diocese of Lexington, also sent in response to letters from New York, number five, and are valued at $171.20; making a total box credit with New York of $855.79. Seventeen boxes have been sent in the Diocese, value $345.74, and fourteen boxes sent outside the Diocese, value $239.95, making the total number of boxes thirty-seven and their value $1,441.38. This is an increase of $365.98 over the value of last year's boxes.

REPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY

At the Twenty-fifth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary in the Diocese of Tennessee the office of Educational Secretary was created and the undersigned appointed to fill that office.

During the year the Secretary sent notices of literature, prepared by the Board in New York, to every Auxiliary Branch President and Junior leader. The response was most encouraging; nine branches holding Study Classes and six conducting Programme Meetings amongst the Seniors. Many Junior branches did good work. Nine branches used "Japan Advancing: Wither?" as their textbook; others report using "The Uplift of China"; "China's New Day"; "Conquest of the Continent"; "Early Missions of Ireland, Scotland and England"; and the "Spirit of Missions".

On May 1st and 2nd, the Rev. Arthur R. Gray, Educational Secretary of the Board, held a two-day's Institute for the Nashville branches, from which much good will result.

At the Twenty-sixth Annual Meeting held in Sewanee the Secretary reported that China would be the book for study next year, and urged each branch to consider that subject.

Respectfully submitted,

IDA R. CALHOUN.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDENT OF CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

The work of the Church Periodical Club during the past year has shown healthy growth, although the yearly report, in some respects, has fallen below that of last year.

It has been impossible to secure replies from several librarians, consequently those parishes in a state of inactivity have been dropped from the list. We sincerely hope it is not a permanent loss.

Three new branches have been enrolled and many individuals interested. Two excellent travelling libraries are in circulation, and libraries are now established at Goodlettsville, Clark Station, White Bluff Penitentiary, Goodrich, Sylvia Reform School. This branch of the work is very important and accomplishes permanent results. Mrs. Joseph W. Rogers, of Goodlettsville, is in charge of this part of the work, and her report is most encouraging. She has issued and had returned to her during the past year 687 books and 309 magazines and papers. In connection with the library she purposed to establish an information bureau.

Mrs. Woodsworth, of White Bluff, is meeting with success in her efforts at the Nashville prison.

Mrs. Ellen C. Dugdale, who is a self-appointed missionary with the Bishop's approval, is doing a most interesting work at Savannah on the Tennessee river. Stimulus to increased effort is found in the letters of cordial thanks that are constantly being received, the efficiency of some of our parish librarians, and the generous coöperation of individual contributors.

Books and magazines have been sent to the following places in the Diocese: Epiphany Mission, Sherwood; Tennessee Reformatory for Boys; Tuberculosis Hospital; Savannah; and to several Alaskan stations. Librarian No. 18, of St. Paul's, Chattanooga, still holds the banner; while Librarian No. 11, of Grace Church, Memphis, is a close second.

There is almost no financial assistance from the parish branches for carrying on the Diocesan work. I have received $1.00 from Librarian No. 19, Columbia; $1.00 from Librarian No. 18, Chattanooga; and $2.00 from Sewanee Auxiliary. The latter I sent to the General Office so that our Diocese should not be lacking in this respect. Each parish librarian apparently bears the expense incurred. Is this Missionary Spirit?

Through your Correspondent and the fourteen librarians, there have been distributed 116 periodicals; 36 Bibles, Testaments and Psalms; 32 Prayer Books and Hymnals; 135 theological and secular books; 1,236 tracts and Catechisms; 5,313 odd magazines; 382 Easter, Christmas, picture cards and calendars; 12 pieces of music, in book or sheet form; 97 games, scrap books, etc.; 22 boxes and packages. Fifty donors are sending magazines regularly. I have written sixty-three letters and ninety postals. Respectfully submitted, tunities for increased work in and around Sewanee in particular. The Rev. George L. Neide, of Memphis, followed and spoke on the work in Memphis down-town districts. He stressed the efforts being put forward to increase the efficiency and enlarge the scope of the work of the Church amongst the working people resident in the South Side of our Cathedral city.

MRS. HARRY C. GERHART.

The Bishop then emphasized the needs in several centres, particularly mentioning Etowah. He asked the women not to let their "specials" in the Diocese interfere with their gifts to the general diocesan missionary funds, and closed his remarks with an appeal to the spiritual side of the individual life and its practical application to the great cause of missions.

The Twenty-sixth Annual Meeting of the Tennessee Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions desires to express to the more than hospitable people of Sewanee its deep appreciation of the cordial welcome extended and continued to it during the three-days' meeting.

To their beloved Bishop and to Mrs. Gailor they say "thank you" with a heartiness born of genuine love and gratitude for their many favors to them.

To Mrs. Benedict, her able assistants, and the respective hostesses, must praise be given for their splendid management of everything pertaining to comfort and well-being.

JUNIOR AUXILIARY

The Junior Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, Diocese of Tennessee, met on Tuesday, May 6th, at Sewanee.

The Secretary, Mrs. B. T. Howard, opened the session with prayer. After the roll-call she addressed a few words of welcome and of appreciation for the good work accomplished during the past year.

Eleven branches were represented by delegates who read reports. The reports of those branches not represented were read by the chairman or someone appointed to do so.

Several new branches and others reorganized were reported. Amongst the number were those of St. Luke's, Cleveland; Christ Church, Chattanooga; Little Helper's, St. Paul's, Chattanooga; Calvary, Memphis.

Miss Bassett reported meetings held regularly at the Mission of Our Saviour, Sewanee, Cowan and Roark's Cove with a membership of twenty-one, also a new branch at Otey Memorial, Sewanee, with fourteen members. These societies have not yet been formally organized.

Miss Rowe, our United Offering missionary at Sherwood, gave an account of her work. This was a most interesting talk and dealt with the children both in their home life and in the Sunday School.

The Secretary called attention to the fact that all moneys from Junior Branches must be sent to the Junior Secretary-Treasurer, who will receive and disburse the same as well as report on all Junior work. She also reminded those present of a resolution adopted at the Convention at Knoxville whereby the Juniors pledged themselves to provide funds each year for one day's expenses at Christ School, Arden, N. C.

Pledges were made for 1913-1914, many branches increasing their amounts over those of the past year.

The meeting then adjourned and Mrs. S. S. Roche took the chair and reported the work of the Babies' Branches.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY A. GILES HOWARD, Secretary.
