SECRETARY'S REPORT

During the past year thirty-three branches have reported active work. A new branch has been organized at Buntny and the branches at Holy Trinity, Memphis, and at Morristown have been reorganized.

Twenty-one branches report having held forty-seven services of Corporate Communion, on the opening of the fall work; the Feast of the Annunciation; on other special days and in connection with the Pilgrimage of Prayer.

Plans carried out in the Diocese during the week appointed for the Pilgrimage of Prayer embraced noon-day prayers, quiet hours, meditations, daily prayer services, special Sunday services, roll-call answered by prayer at daily meetings, systematic individual prayer covering twelve hours each day throughout the week.

Features reported as having been most helpful to branches are lectures, meditations, quiet hours and quiet days, inspiration from individual members, letters from missionaries, systematic giving through duplex and other envelopes, the assigning of each member to a mission station, of which special study was made and reports given from time to time.

The apportionment; work amongst negroes; St. Luke's, Tokyo; St. Agnes's, Kyoto; Church General Hospital, Wuchang; and the United Offering have been brought specially to the attention of the branches.

EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY

In a recent letter from Dr. Gray, our retiring Educational Secretary, he says: "Though I am going to take up a new type of work, I do so with the firm conviction that the future expansion of the Church depends more than anything else on the activities of the educational department. Let me assure you that in Dr. William Sturgis, the new Educational Secretary, you have a leader in whom you will all rejoice, and under whom you can expect the work to go forward. It has been a personal grief to me that our last fight together has been so badly blurred by the oversale of The New World. I am sure you all know what the facts are: we calculated to a nicety that we had plenty of books to carry us through, and then, all of a sudden, at the last moment, orders began coming in from this and that place, by tens, and twenties, and thirties, with a result that we were not only unable to supply the books, but were not even able to answer the letters. We had something like two thousand letters in twenty days. A slight mathematical calculation will enable you to see that the force we have at the Mission House could not hope to handle such a tidal wave as that."

I am happy to report that the Diocese of Tennessee had her share in causing this "tidal wave." We had twelve Study Classes, thirteen Programme Meetings and six Reading Circles. For next year the Board is providing a series of texts, all based on the Bible as a missionary study book. The following report shows how our work was distributed:—

COMMITTEE REPORTS

The committee to whom was referred Miss Lindley's first annual letter, full of a desire to serve, and an earnest pledge of devotion, beg leave to make the following report:

They approve of the proposed plan of nominating to the Board of Missions the General Secretary, whose term of office shall coincide with that of the President of the Board.

In their opinion it would be of mutual benefit for the General Secretary to attend our Provincial Meetings.

They believe that the chief work of our Diocesan Branch lies in developing the educational force so as to reach all who are at present uninterested and to inlist them in our ranks.

In order to aid in accomplishing this the General Secretaries will be heartily welcomed in the Diocese whenever opportunity affords. An additional help in this direction would be not only for our diocesan officers but parish representatives to attend the summer conferences.

We are glad to report that the Pilgrimage of Prayer was carried out in this Diocese according to the plan set forth, to the Spiritual help of all who followed. Therefore, be it Resolved (1), That the Diocesan Branch of the Auxiliary send their greetings to Miss Lindley and express the hope that she will attend our Provincial Meeting.

(2) That we approve of the nomination of the General Secretary and her term of office as reported above.

(3) That we pledge our support to our Diocesan Educational Secretary in her efforts to develop the educational side of the work.

(4) That we, as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Tennessee, do our part in the work of the Church Women of America in emulating the fine example of the Church Women of England in making our gifts not less, but greater, in this time of war.

DELIA RIGHTOR,
FLORA MCBRYDE,
ETHEL PURVIS RAMMAGE,
Committee.
