THE MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The semi-annual meeting of the Executive Council of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in Barre, June 18th. at the time of the Diocesan Convention.

The meeting was held at the home of Dr. Reid and convened at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, immediately following luncheon. Miss Wheeler presided. The meeting was opened with prayer by the President, after which the reports of the various District Vice Presidents were read. Miss Annie T. Smith reported for the Burlington District; Mrs. W. F. Weeks for the Rutland District; Mrs. Denny for the Montpelier District; Mrs. A. P. Grint for the St. Johnsbury District; Mrs. Lucius C. Kendall for the St. Albans District, and Miss Wheeler read the report of Miss Sheldon of Windsor District, Miss Sheldon being the only Vice President absent.

There were seventeen members of the Woman's Auxiliary present, besides several visitors.

Mrs. William Jones gave the report for the Junior Branches.

Miss Wheeler read a letter from the Treasurer Mrs. Parker, in which Mrs. Parker emphasized the fact that there will be, in all probability, a large deficit this year and urged the members to do something about it.

At this point the Rev. Mr. Davenport came in to give a talk to the members, which was most interesting. He spoke of different ways of interesting and of keeping up the interest of people in Mission work. He urged individual interest and suggested Diocesan Normal classes; Every Woman's Canvas; Spreading Ideas etc.

After Mr. Davenport had returned to the Convention hall, Miss Wheeler again resumed the business of the meeting. It was voted to accept the invitation of the Burlington Branch to hold the Annual Meeting in that City this autumn, but the time could not be definitely arranged because of the fact that it would have to conform with the convenience of the speakers.

Then followed the election of delegates to the Tri-ennial meeting in New York, which takes place in October.

The elections were as follows: Miss Wheeler of Burlington; Mrs. W. F. Weeks of Rutland; Mrs. William Jones of Woodstock; Miss Annie T. Smith of Burlington; Mrs. A. P. Grint of St. Johnsbury;

Alternates: Mrs. Charles Parker, Vergennes; Mrs. G. B. B. Denny of Montpelier; Mrs. Lucius Kendall, Enosburg Falls; Mrs. Fred N. Whitney, Northfield; Mrs. Joseph Reynolds, Rutland.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Signed,

ERVAL M. WHITNEY,

Sec. Pro tem.

ADDRESS OF THE PRESIDENT

MY DEAR FRIENDS:

The thought that we have come to the end of another year of service, and that we are about to enter into a new term of responsibility for the gifts which God has given us, is a serious one.

We need to think over what we have done and what we have to do and we need to remember that the priceless gifts of truth and grace which we have inherited from past ages are not ours to keep hidden away or selfishly used, but to be handed on to others.

May our thoughts of the last year's work induce us to work better this coming year for the extension of the Church of Christ our Lord throughout the world.

I think as a Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions we have no reason this year to be proud of our achievements. I speak of the branch as a whole. There have been exceptions among the Parishes and Districts. One Parish has been doing excellent work in a real bona-fide Study Class. One Parish has raised a larger sum of money without sales or entertainments than others where these somewhat objectionable methods have been used. One District has come forward to take the lead in decreasing the deficit as much as possible although its own record was good. All this is encouraging. Nevertheless we cannot say that we have, during our working year, met the appropriations to which we pledged ourselves so glibly last October.

Neither have we availed ourselves of the opportunities for prayer and study that have been offered us.

We have not learned what we might have learned from the example and experience of other and wiser Diocesan Branches.

Does it not seem that as a whole we have exerted ourselves but little in these matters? Many of us have surely been sleeping at our posts. Others seem to have been acting the part of Miss Muchafraid in the Pilgrim's Progress. I believe she did reach the Heavenly City at last but she made the way very long and very hard for others as well as herself.

We do care for the work in a way. We do believe that our Lord has called us to help Him in it, and we do want to share, with those who know it not, the Faith which is such a mighty help to us.

But do we realize that there never was a time when a great united struggle on the part of those who hold the Faith once delivered to the Saints, against the powers of darkness, was more sorely needed than just at the present time?

They are calling us more urgently than ever before to come over and help them, those eastern races where so very few as yet have had even a glimpse of the Sun of Righteousness. The most fearful dangers face them as they rush on so swiftly into what may prove, through our neglect, a Christless civilization. In our own land as well, hundreds of thousands need what we can do and yet what we are not doing for them.

Our own spiritual welfare is bound up in the evangelizing of these who need us both in the East and in the West. We cannot get away from that fact.

Now we are about to be trusted once more with a new opportunity. Let us thankfully accept it and begin again determined to make the coming year a better one than any before it. Let us show ourselves practical and business like and honest, studying out and standing by our financial obligations. Let us try to gain the same enthusiasm in the work that so many Missionaries themselves show, and let us follow the lead of those best able to guide us.

And to-day—at once—let us begin by listening and learning all we can, trying our best to vote intelligently, remaining in our seats through both morning and afternoon sessions—and remembering that we are here as delegates not to amuse ourselves but to do our duty along the special line to which it has pleased God to call us to-day.

CONSTANCE R. WHEELER.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE JUNIOR AUXILIARY

The importance of interesting the children and young girls in the Missions of the Church has been brought home to each member of the Woman's Auxiliary in a forceful manner in the last few years. Every one will acknowledge the future depends upon the way the children of to-day are educated and this applies most surely to missions and this is the reason why the Junior Department of the Woman's Auxiliary should have our prayerful consideration. The Junior Department was started simply to train the children and young girls to their place in the missions of the Church, and since 1889 this work has steadily gone forward.

The children as a rule are much more desirous of taking up the work than some one of the Woman's Auxiliary is to direct them. The Senior Branches should feel that the work of Junior Auxiliary is really more important than anything else. There are three general divisions in the plan of the Junior Auxiliary, a three fold aim and relationship, prayer, study and giving consecration, unity and sympathy, consecration in the relation to God, unity in relation to leaders and board, and sympathy in relation to Juniors. Will the leaders use this aim in the work the coming year and make it a vital part of their instruction.

The work done by the Juniors in our Diocese the year past has been most commendable. Two large boxes have been sent, one at Christmas to the Rev. G. E. Howell of Columbia, S. C., for the colored children and the other at Easter to Miss Pauline Colby of the Diocese of Duluth, for the Indians. Every gift in the Christmas box was new and wisely selected and the dolls, fifty of them were most attractively dressed and must have given so much happiness.

I fully appreciate how extremely difficult it is to have the articles for the Christmas box finished by the first of December as the time is short from the first meeting in the fall to the time the boxes should be sent to the Secretary to be repacked and forwarded to its destination. One energetic Branch devoted several meetings in the Spring to dressing dolls for the Christmas box at Easter, was sent to Miss Colby, beside the usual amount of new and second hand clothing, fifteen gifts especially made for her from as many Branches. It was a most thoughtful act and Miss Colby was so touched by the interest the Juniors of Vermont had in herself aside from the interest in her work among the Indians.

It is most encouraging to report the Branches at East Berkshire, Middlebury and Brandon, have taken up work again, they might almost be called new Branches so long have they been dormant.

It is with sadness we record the death of the Directress of the North-field Juniors, Mrs. T. J. McCutcheon. I shall miss the assistance she always gave me and I know she will be a great loss to the Branch at St. Mary's.

During the year I have visited two Branches, Bellows Falls and Windsor, and have met the Directresses of several other Branches.

Less money has been raised the last year but reason of it is, the older girls going away to school only leaves the smaller ones whose allowance is less and who haven't had the training in giving.

At the last annual meeting the appropriation committee recommended the Juniors raise $50 for Deaconess Stewart's work in China and that obligation has been fully met.

BURLINGTON DISTRICT REPORT 1912—1913.

Our annual meeting coming so early this year, it has been difficult to make an accurate report in all cases: Annual meetings of Parochial Branches have not been held, and the Convention Journal, upon which I depend for some statistics, has not appeared.

This year I report once more five Branches of the Woman's Auxiliary in the Burlington District; two Young Woman's, and four Junior Branches. In the two Missions of Winooski and East Middlebury there is no Branch of the Auxiliary.

In all the Branches good work is done, and the study of Missions is pursued in some form, in two Branches there is a regular Study Class, where papers are read.

Of course all meetings are opened or closed with prayer. It is too early to state definitely the plan of study for this coming year. Japan excited great interest last winter.

All Branches contributed to the General Fund (mostly by envelopes) about $257.00 from Burlington District this year.

One Branch only has failed to contribute to the United Offering which this year is about $60.00, making the U. O. from our District something over $200.00 up to this time. I am sorry that any Branch should fail to take a small part in this United Offering and principally on account of the loss to those individuals who do nothing to hold up the hands of the brave women who go forth in His Name and in our place. This year both the Boxes prepared in the District were sent to the Rev. John Robinson at Sisseton, S. D.; value of the two about $93.00. To one of these all of the Branches contributed, to the other all but one, St. Paul's Parish Branch sent a Box to Jackson, Calif., valued at $110.00. All the younger Branches have sent one or two Boxes each to different Missions.

Four of my Branches of the Woman's Auxiliary have been visited, the younger members usually being present at the same time. One Junior Branch received me very cordially at one of its own meetings. One very good District meeting was held at Middlebury in May.

It is too early to receive reports from the various annual meetings of Parish Branches doubtless I shall have later the names of officers elected this autumn. There are in the Burlington District about 800 female communicants, probably a few more. Should not our contribution to the General Fund be more than $257.00 an average of $.31 a year from each communicant? Perhaps not. But I feel sure that there would be no deficit confronting us if each individual gave even less than this. I think the difficulty is often that one in the family, the mother usually, takes the little envelope or makes an annual contribution to this Fund to which we are pledged, while the younger communicants feel no responsibility and do nothing. If there are three communicants in a family, the cause of Missions would be helped far more by each giving five cents than by the mother giving fifteen and the two daughters giving nothing. Let us continually urge individual giving, if need be, of small sums.

Thirty Fourth Annual Report

Respectfully Submitted,

ANNIE T. SMITH,

Vice President of Burlington District.

REPORT OF THE ST. ALBANS DISTRICT

There are twelve Branches of the Auxiliary in the District, ten organized and two contributing by individual members to the District box.

There are five living Junior Branches. From convention Reports there are 635 female communicants only 140 of whom are reported as contributing to the General Fund and 30 to United Offering.

Seven Branches read on Missionary subjects at their meetings.

About 38 copies of Spirit of Missions are taken.

There are no study meetings where papers are read and none under are an instructor, properly speaking. All open or close their meetings with prayer.

Eight Branches report offerings to Gen. Fund and five to United Offering.

All have Auxiliary Envelopes but some individuals pay by the year.

One District Box was sent to Lawrenceville, Va., Nine Branches contributed and four Parochial boxes have been sent from three Branches.

No Branch has definitely asked me to visit and I have visited none.

No Junior Branch has asked me to speak and I have spoken to none.

One District meeting was held on May 8th at East Fairfield.

Seven Branches have reported annual meetings and names of officers.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. L.C.KENDALL,

Vice President St. Albans District.

REPORT OF THE RUTLAND DISTRICT

The report from the Rutland District for the past year, is necessarily very meager. Mrs. J. G. Newsom of West Rutland, who has been such an efficient Vice-President for several years, left the Diocese in the autumn, when the work of the Auxiliary was hardly begun. Although Miss Wheeler made repeated attempts to get a successor, no one was found to take the office until April when it seemed my duty to do so. In April the branches are finishing their work for the year, and it is almost impossible to get the members together for any work after that time.

It did not seem practical to hold a District meeting in the Spring, but it is expected that one will be held in the early autumn.

I have heard from only eight branches, while thirteen were reported as active last year, in addition to five Junior Branches.

These eight branches have sent boxes of greater value than those sent by the District last year. They were valued at $240.42. this year, $193.00 last year.

The offerings reported to me do not equal those of last year. so I fear that this District is in part responsible for the deficit in our General Fund.

It is to be hoped that every branch in the District will make a fresh start this autumn, with a fine determination to make up for past deficiencies.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY DeFOREST WEEKS.

Vice President Rutland District.

REPORT OF MONTPELIER DISTRICT

We have four Parish Branches in this District.

Barre, Montpelier, Northfield and Websterville.

We have two Juniors, one in Barre and one in Northfield.

We have three hundred and thirty-nine Women communicants.

Each Parish has an Auxiliary organization. Missionary articles are read at the meetings.

All meetings are opened or closed with short service of prayer, and the Creed.

Each Branch has contributed to the general fund.

Auxiliary Envelopes are used but not by all members.

United Offering contributed by each Branch. Fifteen copies of "The Spirit of Missions" are taken.

All contributed to The District Boxes, sent in two barrels to St. Agnes Hospital, N. C., valued at sixty-five dollars.

Vice President invited, and visited two Branches.

Each Branch reported annual meeting and gave names of officers.

District meeting held in Barre, May 12. Three Diocesan officers present.

Miss Wheeler and Mrs. Whitney gave helpful addresses. Bishop Weeks kindly gave the principal address, giving some interesting phases of the work in different Parish Branches.

Offerings $5.81 which paid for programs and postage also other small expenses, leaving a balance of $1.60 which was sent to Mrs. Parker for the General Fund.

Barre Auxiliary conducts the most efficient Mission Study Class.

Montpelier pays the most money, Northfield and Websterville membership is smaller, but both show a good spirit in meeting many seeming obstacles.

Each Branch is composed of dear earnest workers, who love The Church, which one has "Done the best, I cannot say."

Total contributions:

Barre Branch.....	$12.80
Montpelier Branch.....	65.00
Northfield Branch.....	21.70
Websterville Branch.....	9.00
District meeting.....	1.60
Missionary Boxes.....	65.00

Total amount..... $175.10

EUSEBIA MEAD DENNY,

Montpelier District District Vice President.

(Mrs. G. B. B. Denny).

REPORT OF THE ST. JOHNSBURY DISTRICT 1913

We have six active Branches of the Auxiliary in the St. Johnsbury District, Lyndonville, Island Pond, Morrisville, Hardwick, St. Johnsbury and Concord. All doing a splendid work. We are pleased to report that Newport will fall into line this fall, and start a Branch.

The Spirit of Missions is taken in all the Branches.

All contribute to the General Fund and United Offering.

Two report lectures and special readings on Missions, under the guidance of their Rectors.

All have done more or less reading on Missions.

A District box was sent to St. Agnes Hospital this year and a most appreciative letter received. Also telling us of three ladies from Vermont, the Misses Dunton, Gates and Elmendorf, who are doing a most valued and appreciated work as teachers and helpers in the school.

Thus far I have been unsuccessful in arranging for a District Meeting, but hope that I will yet hear favorably from those I have addressed.

Respectfully Submitted.

MARTHA J. S. GRINT,

Vice President St. Johnsbury District.

REPORT OF THE WINDSOR DISTRICT

Windsor District has eight active branches of the Woman's Auxiliary and four Junior Branches with 519 female communicants in the eight parishes and missions.

In five other parishes and missions there are 92 female communicants and individual members of the Auxiliary send offerings for the General Fund and the United Offering.

Three Branches had Study classes, six Branches sent boxes to St. Agnes Hospital, Raleigh, N. C., and one box was sent to the Indian Missions in Minnesota.

One District meeting was held in Brattleboro, January 14, Miss Julia C. Emery was present. The President of the Vermont Branch visited three branches and helped start two Study Classes.

The Bellows Falls Branch gave the largest offering for the General Fund.

The Woodstock Branch is the largest contributor to the United Offering.

The Brattleboro Branch has increased its offerings, had an excellent Study Class and entertained the District Meeting.

The Windsor District has this year exceeded its usual good record. Over $300 for the General Fund since the last Annual meeting and in the three years over $300 for the United Offering.

Respectfully Submitted,

ALICE G. SHELDON.

Vice President Windsor District.
