REPORT OF THE JUNIOR AUXILIARY 1914-1915

The Juniors are submitting their last report as an undivided branch. For twenty five years we have worked together, each year seeing a steady advance, and it is with more than pleasure, that I report, in these days of war and diminished incomes, our highest attainment of $3,040.30.

With the sending of the report in May, each branch, where it was deemed advisable, separated the older girls and sent them into the woman's Auxiliary, in Section B. under Mrs. Woodward. The Juniors remain with me, and though our ranks are thinned and our financial report will be very different, we feel a distinct advance will have been made.

The Woman's Auxiliary will be enthused and strengthened by these well trained young women, who have been my right hand, and a very joy to work with. My younger Juniors can develop on their own lines, with leaders from section B and make themselves strong and reliable, meeting appeals and shouldering responsibilities, and year by year they will send other contingents into the older branch.

The Little Helpers will augnient our ranks, and my desire now isto establish ourselves in every parish, not letting the Women's Auxiliary stand for the only body of mission workers in a church, but beginning with our babies, so train them, that when at seven years, they become Juniors, their missionary spirit and education will already be a determined factor in their lives, and so through the Juniors and Section B. they will not only be an enlightened body of workers in their own parishes by their enlarged vision of every mission field and sympathetic interest, but by God's help will be, some of them, doing work in those fields.

Our pledges have all been met, our united offering is increasing and bearing interest in the savings bank, while we have helped our Bishops through the Emergency Fund, and the appeal for funds for Woman Workers in the Diocese, and so with mixed feelings, indeed, of joy and sorrow, I submit our last report.

REPORT OF THE LITTLE HELPERS TO THE VIRGINIA WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The work of the Little Helpers varies little with the years. Some of the branches, always faithful and prompt, others seeming to forget that those at the front need food, clothes and shelter, too. Those men and women went out trusting that we would not forget them. How is it in Virginia? Have we done our work all along the line if we have failed to gather the little children together, and teach them to do their part? They must have leaders, and when the story is told, dear women of the Virginia Auxiliary, the work of the children depends on you in your various parishes. I come before you again to plead for the little children. No one could make me believe that the women in the nearly one hundred branches in Virginia, have wilfully neglected the precious privilege of teaching the children of the Church to have a share in this work of Christ. You dear members of the Auxiliary, who have never looked into this part of parish work, will you not when you go home gather the children together whether they be many or few and see that they understand the meaning of Christ's call, "Let the little ones come unto me." I have it from the pen of Bishop Tucker, of Japan, that "Kindergartens are one of the very most important factors of the work in the interior, where the people are shy about coming to church. Many a door is opened through the little child, and what follows? Friendships formed, confidence won—then the heart is opened to receive Christ's message of love, 'Bring ye the tithes into the storehouse, and prove Me, saith the Lord of Hosts, if I will not open the windows of Heaven and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room to receive it.'"

REPORT OF THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB IN VIRGINIA.

The work has grown considerably the past year, through the efforts of the librarians.

There are now twenty-nine parish librarians—twenty-seven included in this report as follows:

Periodicals and papers mailed regularly, 480; books, theological and secular, 79; old magazines and papers distributed, 5,240; pictures, cards and calendars, 633; barrels miscellaneous literature, 37.

Money expended by correspondents and librarians.....	$91.69
Money sent to New York office from annual meeting Woman's Auxiliary .....	15.60
From librarians and correspondents .....	27.50

Total .....	$134.79

We cannot overestimate the importance of distributing papers, magazines and books to those who would otherwise be without. Each person sending or giving away literature does have a share in this great missionary work. We are most grateful to the Woman's Auxiliary for their assistance. It would be impossible to accomplish what we do without their aid.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY G. WALLACE,
Correspondent Virginia C. P. C.

REPORTS OF CONVOCAATION SECRETARIES.

Piedmont Convocation.

Not having had a reply as yet, to my letter, from all the branches of the Auxiliary in the Piedmont Convocation, I cannot give a report of the contributions made to the different Auxiliary objects. However, those who have written, show such a keen interest in the work of the Auxiliary and report so much life and progress, that mention should be made of them.

I feel proud of the country branches, for in the face of many obstacles, they report generous contributions, increased membership and great hope for the future.

The smaller branches should not underrate their responsibility.

Even if the membership be small and the contributions less than those of the larger branches. Their earnest endeavors, their keen interest and their prayers will have a great and lasting influence, not only on their own individual parishes, but on all with whom they come in contact.

Respectfully submitted,

S. B. CRAWFORD,
Secretary Piedmont Convocation.

Report of Valley Convocation.

Each year the Woman's Auxiliary in the Valley Convocation tries to make their "Auxiliary Day" better than the one the year before. This year we met with the convocation at Woodstock in the parish of the Rev. Giles B. Palmer. We had the very great privilege of having Miss Louisa Davis, our vice-president, as our principal speaker for the day. She aroused to enthusiasm all who heard her. Her talks and discussions were so instructive, and spiritually uplifting, that we all felt that it was good to have been there.

A branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was immediately formed in Immanuel Church, Woodstock, as the result of Miss Davis' help. Several other slumbering branches were awakened and are doing better work, so we feel that we have gone forward even though with feeble steps. We also had a discussion of mission study work, conducted by Miss Kate Powers, Mrs. Osgood's assistant in the Valley Convocation, which was most enjoyable. Reports were read from all the branches represented, and were most encouraging, showing that they have not been idle during the past year and gave promise of even better things in the future.

The delegates were most hospitably entertained by the people of Woodstock.

Respectfully submitted,

LILY A. W. ELLIS.

Report of Richmond Convocation.

The branches of the Richmond Convocation of the Woman's Auxiliary have been very busy during the past year. We number 13 in the city limits; 7 outside country branches. Nearly all met their pledges and many of us have our favorite "specials" that we keep up from year to year.

We had only two missionaries with us this year—Mr. Betticher, from Alaska, with an address to all the branches, and a night lecture with beautiful slides, for the junior branches and Brotherhood of St. Paul. All gave generously to Alaska.

Just at the end of the working year came Dr. McWillie, from Wuchang, China, asking for help about an ice plant for the hospital there. We did what we could and helped a little. However, he got his ice plant and returned to Wuchang, writing us a very nice letter of thanks.

We also had a visit from our vice president, Miss Davis, and our junior president, Mrs. Barton. They came to make arrangements with us for the meeting of the Synod of the Province of Washington, which will be held in Richmond on the 16th, 17th and 18th of November. I am always wishing that some of our country branches could be with us on these occasions, but all I can do is to notify them of what we are doing. They always contribute to any general appeal.

And now we begin another year of blessed work for the Master.

Respectfully submitted,

H. N. MORDECAI,

Convocation Secretary.

REPORT OF EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY ON MISSION STUDY FROM MAY, 1914, TO MAY, 1915.

The mission study work for the year has been most encouraging. The four new leaders appointed last fall to advance the work in their respective convocations have created a great deal of new interest and enthusiasm and organized many new classes.

The leader for the Valley Convocation reports four classes. This is only the result in numbers. The interest she has created in the work far exceeds the number of classes.

Rappahannock reports five classes and fifty-three members enrolled. The educational secretary helped to organize four classes in this convocation, which have sent in no reports to either the secretary or convocation leader. This would make a total of nine classes for Rappahannock.

Albemarle had five classes. Twenty-four members were enrolled in three classes.

Piedmont, seventeen classes. Seventy-two members were enrolled in five classes.

Richmond had ten classes. Only two classes reported the number of members enrolled. These had forty.

The total number of classes in the diocese, 41; leaders, 29; eleven classes reported 189 members. This is fourteen classes more than we had last year and six new leaders.

Respectfully submitted,

MAUDE E. OSGOOD,

Educational Secretary.

Warrenton.

St. James'—The Child in the Midst. Six members. Leader, Mrs. G. W. Wilson.

Seminary study class—Social Aspects of Foreign Missions. Twelve members. Leader, Mrs. Rollins.

I do not know of the Alexandria classes which were newly organized this year, but of my personal knowledge four new ones have been organized and were enthusiastically attended during the year. Unfortunately, owing to illness, I was not able to go to several places that would have organized classes, but I hope that during this coming year many more classes can be formed.

Respectfully submitted,

ETHEL W. CHICHESTER.

Rappahannock Convocation.

When the Woman's Auxiliary met in Leesburg in its annual meeting in November, 1914, I was appointed educational secretary of the Rappahannock Convocation. I at once applied to the dean of the convocation for a list of churches and their rectors that I might get in communication with them. But it was January before I could get this list, making our working year very short. I wrote or talked with them all, but only succeeded in persuading three women to undertake the work, many answering that the roads were so bad it was impossible to get a class together, others that they had no rector and could not do more at that time, and some not feeling prepared to undertake teaching a class. This year I propose to have a normal class in Fredericksburg lasting three days, that the women in the surrounding country may be trained for the work.

The following classes were formed: St. George's, Fredericksburg, led by Mrs. W. D. Carter. St. John's, Tappahannock, led by Mrs. Knight, Tappahannock. St. George's Chapel, Spotsylvania, led by Miss Etches, R. F. D. No. 1, Fredericksburg. Christ Church, Spotsylvania Court House, led by Mrs. C. L. Rutter, Sunlight, Va. An interdenominational class, led by me in my own home. In these classes there were about fifty people taking part. I talked at three meetings on the subject of study classes. The textbook used in all these classes was "The Child in the Midst." This year we will use "The Conquest of the Continent" as a textbook. If we could arouse in the women of this convocation an interest in this mission study, it would prove of endless aid to the Woman's Auxiliary, for where you find lack of interest in missions, you will always find lack of information. Many of the finest women in the auxiliary are the product of mission study classes. Once more I appeal to the women of this convocation, and beg you not to draw back from this work for the Master

ELIZABETH A. RUTTER,
Educational Secretary.
