REPORT OF THE SECRETARY.

To the Right Rev. E. R. Atwill, Bishop of West Missouri, and Members of the Woman's Auxiliary:

The first year of our existence as an organized Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary has passed, and from the reports of the work done, we hope to find inspiration and encouragement for future efforts. If the results seem small we beg you to remember that the Society is not yet in full working order, and that we have labored under many disadvantages and difficulties incident to our youth and inexperience.

However, some good and efficient work has been accomplished. At the first meeting, held last June, seven parishes and one mission were enrolled as working branches of the Auxiliary; since then ten more have been added. Each branch has done work, we trust, according to the full measure of its ability, for it is only our best efforts that are worthy to be offered for the Master's service.

Since last June two meetings have been held, which were well attended and much interest was manifested, but this attendance was principally from the city parishes. It was a matter of regret that other branches were not represented, and it would seem that if one meeting at least, in the year, could be held at some point accessible to the more distant parish branches of the Diocese, a greater interest in the missionary work, and a more general attendance could be secured. At these meetings we were honored by the presence of our Bishop, who gave us most helpful and encouraging addresses. As a Society we are indebted to the ladies of the parishes where our meetings have been held, for a very generous hospitality.

In some way, the work of distributing and filling the mite boxes has not received the attention that it merited, not through any fault of the custodian, but rather that they seem to have been overlooked. It is to be hoped that another year they will take a more important place in our work, for, though each box should contain but little, the aggregate would be large if they were generally distributed in each branch. This year the contents have amounted to $76.19.

In a letter from one of our parish secretaries something was written in regard to the packing of their box which contains a valuable suggestion, so I quote it: "We held our monthly meeting yesterday at Mrs. Blank's; counted our things and found there were 105 articles. As they lay upon the table our rector said a short office dedicating our work to God; we then proceeded to value and pack the articles." Would we not all feel that our gifts were more really an offering to God if so dedicated.

The result of our efforts for the year is as follows:

26 missionary boxes, valued at	$747.84
Cash as per treasurer's report.....	197.97
Cash reported but not passed through treasurer's accounts	248.44
	$1,194.25

There is a fact that very many have failed to understand and appreciate; it is, that work for missions is a real duty, and matter of obedience, a living service that we cannot withhold, and that not till the light of this truth has illumined all hearts, can we accomplish that which the Master must be looking for at our hands. Till then we must pray most fervently: "Stir up, we beseech Thee, O, Lord, the wills of Thy faithful people, that they pleanteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may by Thee be pleanteously rewarded."

Respectfully submitted,

MARY U. MILLER.
