ANNUAL REPORT

of the Recording Secretary of the Diocese of West Missouri Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions.

To the Rt. Rev. Sidney C. Partridge, Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri, and Women of the Auxiliary:

I hereby present my annual report of the work done by the officers and parish branches of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of West Missouri, during the year 1913-1914.

There have been but two regular meetings, one in January and one in May. On account of our Bishop and President attending the Triennial in October, the fall meeting was omitted. The January meeting brought to us many inspiring words from those who attended the Triennial, the delegates bringing home splendid reports from the sessions which most interested them.

My report this year shows a small volume of receipts. We can account for this change in but one way, the separating of the Diocesan work from the Board of Missions.

Our pledges have been all that we could hope for, Dr. Stover, the Medical Missionary to China, being our additional pledge to our year's work.

We have a new president, Mrs. J. D. Ritchey, who has long shown great interest in all Auxiliary work, and we feel most fortunate in having Mrs. Ritchey as our leader. It was with deepest feeling of regret that I gave up my Auxiliary relations with our retiring president, Mrs. S. E. Woodstock, whose faithfulness to and untiring patience with the Woman's Auxiliary will long be remembered by those who worked closely with her.

The Junior reports show increased interest; three new branches have been formed.

May our efforts be earnest, our prayers sincere and may our Heavenly Father guide us daily in our Mission work.

Respectfully submitted,

FANNIE H. S. MALONEY.

ANNUAL REPORT OF VICE-PRESIDENT

In Charge of Junior Department,

From May 14, 1913, to May 14, 1914.

I have been in receipt of a continuous flow of information, both in form of leaflets and letters from the Church Missions House on the subject of the plan adopted last October.

These leaflets and information I have endeavored to place in the hands of the Junior leaders of the Diocese and put forth every effort to reach as nearly as possible the high standard suggested by them. In this the leaders have given me their faithful support.

I have made special effort to increase the number of subscribers to the Spirit of Missions and urged Junior leaders to aid in the formation of branches of Little Helpers. Mrs. Pugsley reports the addition of three new branches.

Have appointed special officers as suggested by plan, to look after Section III, the United Offering and the educational work, each of whom are reporting work done and interest awakened.

At close of year we find we have one branch strictly Section III, and one branch composed of both II and III; another branch of older girls doing Junior work this year and calling themselves Chapter B of the Woman's Auxiliary, expecting to do Woman's Auxiliary work next year.

Have suggested to the two societies of the Brotherhood of St. Paul that they make a concerted effort to become an organization recognized by the Diocesan Council in November, 1914, and proffered the aid of the Juniors to help the Brotherhood increase its numbers.

Have held short conference with Bishop Partridge on the subject. Also held short conferences with our Bishop and Archdeacon Johnson, asking their aid in the organization of new Junior and Brotherhood branches in other parishes and smaller towns in Diocese.

Have urged the increase of the Edward Atwill Nearing Memorial Fund and reminded the directresses of the slogan for last year—"General Missions," our first and largest gift. Asked for pledge to the new subject—that of the Departmental Missionary Plan.

Have corresponded with leaders regarding the Pine Ridge, S. D., Christmas appeal for 1913, the Alaska appeal for the May, 1914, box. One of the branches sent a Christmas, 1913, box to Africa. Have received pledges for Christmas, 1914, from most of the branches. This box goes to Mr. Deloria, Standing Rock Mission, S. D., and Miss Davis, Callaway, Va. The "Easter Gift" of a prayer desk went to Liberal, Kansas, Bishop Griswold, the Salina Missionary District.

Our "Circulating Library" Fund has received the gift of two books, one from Mrs. Burris of Grace Church, Kansas City, and one from Miss Bryan, Springfield, Mo., for which we are very grateful.

Respectfully submitted,

AMY-LU REID,
President of Junior Department.

REPORT OF CHAIRMAN

Educational Committee Junior Department of the Woman's Auxiliary.

May 14th, 1914.

The work of this committee did not begin until some time in November, so it has been somewhat limited.

At that time a meeting of the Junior directresses was called by Mrs. Reid, vice-president in charge of Junior Department. Ten directresses responded. The chairman of this committee gave them some short talks about the Normal work that had been given us in New York City at the time of the general convention. Subjects discussed were:

1. Purposes of Missionary Study.
2. Methods of Missionary Study.
3. Preparation.
4. Leaders' Qualifications, etc.

A list of ten books on China, twelve books on Methods for Teachers, and an itemized list of suggested helps for material, type-written by Mrs. Stoll, the other member of this committee, was sent to all Junior directresses.

This was all that was accomplished this year. I would suggest that for the coming year it would legitimately be within the jurisdiction of this committee to work with a like committee from the Woman's Auxiliary in planning for institutes, not necessarily on such a large scale as was our pleasure to have here two years ago, but one which might include subjects for discussion, such as has been previously mentioned under the head of Normal work; then methods of raising our U. O., how best to use missionary study in our Sunday Schools.

These committees working together could consider ways and means of introducing missionary study in all our Sunday Schools; this to include missions not only abroad but in our own diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSIE W. RITCHEY, Chairman.

REPORT OF RECORDING SECRETARY of the Junior Department of the Woman's Auxiliary.

To Mrs. S. E. Woodssock, President of the Woman's Auxiliary, Members of the Auxiliary and the Junior Department:

I herewith present my annual report of the work done by the officers and parish branches in the Junior Department during the year 1913-14.

A conference of Junior directresses was held January 22, 1914, to discuss the business of the year.

There are ten branches of Juniors working in our diocese.

The Recording Secretary, with the aid of her assistant, has sent out typewritten reports of meetings held the past year, thus furnishing each branch with a copy of business proceedings to be kept on record by the leader for reference.

Having reorganized the branches in accordance with the new plan, we hope to make our work even more successful next year.

Respectfully submitted,

SARA C. WYETH, Recording Secretary.
