Woman's Auxiliary

President's Report

Port Lavaca, Texas, May 9, 1917.

It is a privilege and pleasure to meet once again in annual council and review the progress of the past year and make plans for an aggressive forward movement in the year that lies before us.

When I became president of the Auxiliary two years ago there were twenty-three branches, now we have, counting new and re-organized branches, thirty-one.

I have travelled in 1916-17 over twenty-one hundred miles, visiting Alice, Aransas Pass, Beeville, Brownsville, Brackettsville, Boerne, Corpus Christi, Cuero, Del Rio, Eagle Pass, Kenedy, Kerrville, Kingsville, Luling, Lockhart, Rockport, Seguin, San Marcos, San Benito, Goliad, Victoria, Yoakum, St. Mark's, San Antonio (two branches); St. Luke's, St. John's, St. Philip's, Christ Church, St. Mary's Hall, San Antonio and Uvalde.

In September I visited Goliad, attending the Convocation of the Gonzales Deanery in the interest of the Auxiliary, and was very gratified with the results. A branch co-operating with the Parish Aid was organized and United Offering boxes distributed to all.

In October I attended the General Convention at St. Louis, feeling it necessary for my work and efficiency to come in touch with new thought and new methods. It was a great source of inspiration and strength. I attended Miss Corey's study class on "The New World," so that I could give the instruction to some of our local branches if desired, but so far I have not had any invitations.

At an early meeting of the Board I suggested having some church papers placed in the Carnegie Library, that tourists and transients might read the church news. Mrs. Carter and I subscribed for the Churchman and the Spirit of Missions. Are there not some generous church people who will add the Witness, Living Church, and Southern Churchman?

Last fall I got permission of the vestry of St. Mark's Church, San Antonio, to have the cause of the United Offering presented on the third Sunday in Advent. Rev. Harris Masterson, late of the Chinese Mission staff, preached a stirring sermon on the work of the United Offering in the mission field. Cards were then distributed to all women present to be signed by those willing to take a blue box. More than a hundred were signed and turned in. Members of local branches then called and delivered the blue box and other literature, and gave an invitation to join the Auxiliary. I trust that next year the third Sunday in Advent, United Offering Sunday will become a fixed institution in every parish in the diocese, and that in this way, year after year, many women will be reached who have never heard of the little blue box, or learned of the blessed privilege of giving to the United Offering.

In January I visited Uvalde, Brackettsville, Del Rio, and Eagle Pass, distributing blue boxes and organizing branches of the Woman's Auxiliary. From Eagle Pass I have had a report that they have already sent off their first missionary box valued at over $100, a splendid showing for a baby branch less than six months old. The Eagle Pass Juniors have also done well this year.

In April I visited Boerne and Kerrville, where Auxiliary work has been always a strong factor in the development of the Church's life.

Mrs. Massey has been most generous of her time and self in visiting parishes by invitation and conducting study classes. I have received gratifying letters of thanks from the Auxiliaries she has visited, and only wish more had desired her leadership and enjoyed the privilege of studying under her. I hope next year every branch in West Texas will arrange for a week's study under Mrs. Massey. Write her now and make arrangements for the autumn.

At the General Convention we pledged $100 to St. Agnes' School, Kyoto, and $25 to Anvik. I trust these obligations have been met.

When Mr. Ludlow was here recently in behalf of the Wuchang general Hospital, West Texas pledged $100, to be paid in the fall. Let me suggest a co-operative way of raising this special:

Late in November, when Christmas is in the air, let us give a diocesan bazaar in San Antonio. Instead of a cash contribution let each Auxiliary Branch send a box of choice needlework (crochet and embroidery), say a piece from each member. Each branch may have its own table or booth and if possible send a member to take charge. It will promote a feeling of friendliness and unity among us as well as being a distinct financial help.

Let me here speak of prayer as the great agency of missionary endeavor. Our work in the Auxiliary will be of little avail unless as individual members we pray daily for the spread of Christ's Kingdom. The Lord's prayer is hypocrisy on the lips of those who do not believe in missions, and who are unwilling to make an effort to bring others into the Kingdom. Study is essential, gifts, especially the gift of self, are important but prayer is the great dynamic force which makes all other efforts worth while.

Respectfully submitted,
MAUDE W. GARDEN,
President.
