We hope you will have your deputies there, but if not represented, please without fail, report to Mr. D. G. Robinson, Treasurer, Hastings, not less than a week before the Convention.

In explanation of the plan suggested the Board would respectfully add that it has several features which commend it as eminently practicable.

First. It is simple. It holds up to view before every Parish and Mission the actual amount necessary to be raised.

Second. The opinion of the Board confirmed by the counsel of the Bishop is expressed as to the individual responsibility of each Parish or Mission in the support of the Diocesan work.

Third. It leaves untouched the methods by which the apportionments are to be raised in the respective Parishes and Missions.

Fourth. By its early apportionment previous to the meeting of the Convention, it gives timely warning to every Parish and Mission and accords a reasonable opportunity for the Rector and Vestry to hold consultation on the matter and report understandingly.

Fifth. It assures the Bishop and Board of Missions of the amount pledged to be relied upon, whether at the Convention the Parish or Missions are represented or unrepresented by Clerical or lay delegates.

Sixth. At the meeting of the Convention an opportunity is afforded any Parish or Mission, through its Clerical and lay delegates to furnish cause why it should not be apportioned so much. It will be seen that it is the intent of the Board to make the plan a purely voluntary system, not at all of the nature of an assessment, but yet a system which shall tend to organize all our efforts into a simple, intelligent, practicable method.

F. C. COÖLBAUGH,
F. A. GORHAM,
Committee.

Hoping that this Convention will do more than in former years to promote the welfare of our Missionary work, we submit this report to you.

COLIN C. TATE,
Sec'y Board of Missions.

The Report was accepted.

THE REV. A. W. MANN.

Minister in charge of Deaf-Mute Congregations.

To the Right Reverend George D. Gillespie, D. D.:

During the Conventional year just closed I held services on Sundays and week days at S. Mark's Church, Grand Rapids; and on week days only, at Emmanuel Church, Hastings; S. Luke's Church, Kalamazoo; Trinity Church, Marshall; and Trinity Church, Niles. Several of the services were combined, the rectors reading and I interpreting for the deaf-mutes in the congregation.

Most of the deaf-mutes attending were from a distance. Those at the service in Niles were from Dowagiac, Three Oaks, Buchanan, and St. Joseph. One from Muskegon attended the service at Hastings. Deaf-mutes live widely apart, and are more difficult to reach than other people with the Church's ministrations. No class of people in Christian countries are more isolated in this respect. The blind, worse afflicted, as almost every one believes, are not isolated at all, for they can worship in common with their seeing brethren. They need no special ministry, like the deaf.

The services which are held at Flint reach the pupils of the state school whose homes are in Western Michigan. Two or three from the Diocese were baptized by me, and confirmed by Bishop Harris.

I baptized one of the graduates of this school at the last service at S. Mark's, Grand Rapids.

During the coming year I hope to visit other points in the Diocese where deaf-mutes can assemble for worship.

Besides the work above reported, I have officiated in the principal cities of twelve other Dioceses, besides in New York, Baltimore, and Washington.

The kind liberality of the Railway companies has made possible the pursuit of this work without hindrance, or embarrassment. Besides their numerical smallness deaf-mutes, are of limited means, as they are shut out of business pursuits which produce wealth. As a matter of course, they are unable to meet the expenses of their missionary. The Church appreciates this generosity.

Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The annual meeting of the Western Michigan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, met at Grand Haven, Nov. 17th. At 9 o'clock A. M. the Holy Communion was celebrated at St. John's Church, by the Bishop, assisted by Clergymen present, after which the ladies retired to the S. School rooms of the Congregational Church for business and conference. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. D. G. Robinson, who opened the session by saying the collects for the daily use of the members of the Auxiliary. After the singing of a hymn, the roll of parishes was called and eight responded by their delegates: viz., Good Shepherd, Allegan, Mrs. D. D. Chapin; St. Thomas', Battle Creek, Mrs. Anna Townsend; St. John's, Ionia, Mrs. Mary Wolverton; St. Paul's Mission, Greenville, Mrs. C. J. Church and Miss Church; Trinity Parish, Marshall, Mrs. A. D. Mrs. Dr. Knapp responded for St. John's, Grand Haven. After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting the President's address was listened to with deep interest, as she spoke of the general need for Christian effort, the extent of the Auxiliary, enlarging of the work until it reach the whole world, home work, systematic giving, mite chests, our duty towards the colored people of the South, recommending the support of a teacher among them from Western Michigan the coming year, also the endowing of a bed at St. Mary's Orphanage, Shanghai, and boarding schools in the Domestic and Foreign field. The Secretary's report followed showing the work accomplished for the year from Nov. 1st, 1885 to Nov. 1st, 1886, as follows:

The reports of Parish Branches were next in order. Battle Creek, St. Thomas', has, besides the Woman's Auxiliary, a Parish Aid Society, largely Missionary—"the sewing done is principally for large families, where the mother has to work out to assist in supporting the family, and for women who are alone in the world, and have to support themselves, also clothing children for the S. School. The garments finished last year numbered 75. There is also an Industrial School of 30 scholars who meet every Saturday afternoon. The material for work is furnished, and some garments expected to be finished at every session. When the box is complete it will be sent to the South or among Indian schools."

Ionia, St. John's, has three Missionary organizations—"Woman's Auxiliary", "Daughters of the Covenant", and "Little Gleaners", all in good working order.

Grand Rapids, St. Mark's, Bible Class under the earnest, faithful care of Mrs. Graham, its teacher, has since the Lenten season, prepared two boxes of valuable gifts, which shows what a few young girls can do by systematic effort.

Greenville, St. Paul's, without a Rector still keeps up Missionary work, while the Diocesan Missionary, Indian Schools at Pine Ridge Agency, Da., and the Bishop Gillespie Scholarship, Tokio, Japan, send grateful acknowledgements to the Auxiliary of the Good Shepherd, Allegan.

The Auxiliary of Coldwater has resumed work again, home claims having been met. The "Helping Hand" of St. Luke's, Kalamazoo, has two packages a year for the Diocesan Missionary, of just the right articles at just the right time. Manistee, Kalamazoo, St. Mary's, Grand Rapids, Big Rapids, Muskegon, Marshall and Hastings each urge a great deal of home work to do, yet cheerfully respond to Missionary calls. The singing of a hymn closed the first session.

At 2 o'clock the meeting was again called to order. The first work was the election of officers, which resulted in no change being made, except to appoint Mrs. C. H. Van Arman, of Hastings, recording secretary. Mrs. D. D. Chapin, the Western Michigan Delegate to the triennial meeting in Chicago, read a paper upon the "Meeting of the Auxiliary in Chicago" very able and full, giving an account of what the Auxiliary has done, is doing, and hopes to do in the future. Mrs. A. D. Schuyler followed with "developed and undeveloped energies in Missionary work"; Mrs. Wolverton, "Faith versus Work"; Mrs. C. J. Church, "Enthusiastic consciousness of purpose in Missionary work". After a hymn was sung, a letter from Miss Emery was read, asking the Western Michigan Branch to remember the coming year, the Colored people of the South. The following resolution was then offered:

Resolved, That the Western Michigan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary pledge to assume for the year, from Advent 1886, to Advent 1887 the support of a teacher for a Colored school at the South, and $30.00 to endow a bed in St. Mary's Orphanage, Shanghai. The Bishop Gillespie Scholarship had been fully sustained through the year, and Mrs. Schuyler thought the S. School of Trinity, Marshall, would give the same for a boy Scholarship at home that it did towards the one abroad—$6.00, and two other parishes gave the same encouragement. The report of the General Auxiliary was read by the Secretary, and the report of the Honorary Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, on the training and systematized service of women in the work of the Church, was read by Mrs. Wolverton, in which Mrs. Twing is endeavoring to carry forward the "beautiful orderly work for the Master."

A vote of thanks was taken for the cordial welcome and generous hospitality to the homes, not only of the members of St. John's Parish, but of the other Christian bodies of Grand Haven; also, for the use of the rooms so kindly opened in the Congregational Church. The session was brightened by an organist and good singing. It is to be regretted that there was not more practical discussion of the topics under consideration, but the short, dark afternoon hastened the work and there was not time.

At 7 P. M. the ladies assembled at St. John's Church again, where, after a short Missionary service and the reading of the Secretary's report, the Rev. Campbell Fair, the new Rector of St. Mark's, Grand Rapids, preached the annual sermon. His kind, encouraging words will long be remembered and stimulate to greater effort and zeal in the future.

Thus closed the Fifth Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary of Western Michigan.

Invasion of the Rectory of Mt. Pleasant.

Last Tuesday was the fifth anniversary of the marriage of Rev. and Mrs. J. A. McGlone, and their many warm friends in Mt. Pleasant decided to give them a pleasing reminder of the event, as a slight indication of the esteem in which the worthy couple are held in this community. About 75 of Rev. Mr. McGlone's parishioners and others assembled at the residence of Dr. Tyler, which had been appointed as the rendezvous. Shortly after 8 o'clock the assembled company made a stealthy descent on the Rectory and filed in. Mr. McGlone was up town at the time, but after recovering from the first astonishment on seeing such a large crowd so unceremoniously invading her home, his estimable wife proved equal to the occasion.

Mr. Wm. N. Brown was detailed as a committee of one to seek the absent Rector of St. John's Church, and invite him home to attend to urgent business. We suppose it will never be known this side of the day of doom whether Mr. Brown informed Mr. McGlone that the rectory was on fire or that a few of our incorrigible bachelors were there anxious to get married, but, be that as it may, in a short time the gentleman put in an appearance and a more surprised Rector was never seen in Michigan.

The Ladies' Guild had provided a most delicious repast, embracing the delicacies as well as the substantials of life, and it was prepared and served in that superior manner for which the ladies of the Guild are noted. After refreshments Rev. and Mrs. McGlone were invited into the parlor, where, on behalf of the company, Mr. W. N. Brown presented them with two very easy chairs and a handsome centre table. In presenting the offerings of esteem Mr. Brown alluded in warm terms to the high regard in which Rev. and Mrs. McGlone are held in this parish—a regard that is not by any means confined to members of their own Church.

In a few appropriate words Rev. Mr. McGlone feelingly expressed the gratitude of Mrs. McGlone and himself for the visit and the beautiful tokens of friendship presented. While the gifts were very beautiful, he said they would appreciate them more for the valued esteem which they represented than for their intrinsic worth, as they were souvenirs of a friendship which they would dearly cherish.—Local Paper.

Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The 7th annual meeting of the Western Mich. Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, was held in St. John's church, Ionia, Tuesday, Nov. 15th. At 9 A. M. morning prayer was said and Holy Communion celebrated by the Bishop, assisted by Clergy present.

The first business session was called to order at 10 A. M. by the President, Mrs. D. G. Robinson. The roll call was responded to by eight parishes only, viz: Battle Creek, St. Thomas', Mrs. Anna Townsend; Greenville, St. Pauls', Mrs. C. J. Church; Grand Rapids, St. Marks', Mrs. Keith Follette; Hastings, Emmanuel, Mrs. D. G. Robinson; Ionia, St. John's, Mrs. Ellen Mitchell; Marshall, Trinity, Mrs. A. D. Schuyler; Muskegon, St. Pauls', Mrs. T. N. Rippey; Stanton, Grace, Mrs. F. Tallman.

After the reading of the minutes of last meeting, followed the President's address full of earnest counsel to greater faithfulness in the round of planning, saving and serving for the year to come. The reports of parish branches were listened to with great interest; some, showing with better organization, correspondingly good results.

The Secretary reported for the year from Nov. 1st, 1886 to Nov. 1st, 1887, from fourteen parishes and two missions.

The Semi-Annual.

The thirty-first Semi-Annual Missionary meeting and Diocesan Church Conference was held in S. Andrew's Church, Big Rapids, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, November 19th, 20th and 21st, 1889. Fifteen Clergy of the Diocese were present and participated in the services and discussions. On Tuesday evening the delegates to the General Convention, led by the Rev. Campbell Fair, gave a brief account of the work of the Convention and the impressions of Church work and progress which they received. To give in a short time a résumé of the routine work of the Convention is not very difficult, but to give anything like an adequate description of all the meetings of all the Societies for Church work takes more time than can be used at any meeting. The Church has so many departments of work in active operation that few even of the best informed Churchmen know of them all. It would be well if we all would take time to find out about them. The Bishop suggested that the Clergy would do well to devote some time at the week day services to telling the people what is going on in the Church. After Morning Prayer on Wednesday the meeting of the Alumni of Seminaries and Church Colleges was held. Reports were made of the General Theological Seminary, Nashotah, Gambier, De Lancey Hall, Racine and Faribault. These meetings are helpful when the graduates of the various schools are prepared with reports of work done. Rev. A. E. Wells read a paper on the Institutions at Faribault. At 10:30 the Ante-Communion Service was read and the sermon ad Clerum preached by Rev. W. H. Van Antwerp, D. D. The Communion Service usually held at this time was postponed till Thursday morning. After luncheon served in the Rectory by the ladies of the parish, the Conference re-assembled and listened to an able paper by Rev. S. C. Thrall, D. D., on "The responsibility of the Ministry of the Church to-day in view of prevailing unbelief." Dr. Thrall took the position that if the Ministry of the Church understood the power of Mission and if the Episcopate were unhampered in the proper exercise of that power, a greater force of clergy could be put in the field. Unbelief has three causes—the present state of Science, which seems to be hostile to Christianity; worldliness; and the divisions of Christendom. Needed warning and instruction was given on each of the heads. The paper called forth an earnest discussion on the various positions taken by the reader. Rev. J. N. Rippey gave a lesson in Book-keeping for the Clergy and Church officers. There was in the instruction a sort of undertone which led the audience to believe that it is as hard for a Diocesan Secretary to solve the mystery of some parochial reports as it was for the Philistines to answer Samson's conundrums. Accuracy is not only the soul of scholarship, it is also the body of financial and statistical reports. In the evening Rev. A. P.

Greenleaf read a paper on "The responsibility of the Ministry in view of National degeneracy." He held that it was not the duty of the Clergy to preach politics from a partisan standpoint though it might be their duty to rebuke glaring abuses in the political methods. After the discussion Rev. J. W. Bancroft gave a sketch of the life and work of Rev. J. Shippard, who in an early day founded Oberlin and Olivet Colleges. On Thursday morning the Church of S. Andrew was consecrated. In the sermon the Bishop referred to the fact that the Church had been built seventeen years and gave the reasons for the delay. The Rector and parish are to be congratulated that every obstacle has at length been removed and the Church set apart for the worship of Almighty God. In the afternoon Rev. W. Ball Wright addressed the children on Mission work in Japan.

The Meeting was very interesting and helpful to all. A vote of thanks was given the parish for the kind hospitality extended to the Clergy. A. P. G.

Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The eighth annual meeting of the Western Michigan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, was held in S. Mark's Church, Grand Rapids, Nov. 13th, 1889.

Bishop Gillespie, Rev.'s Dr. Campbell Fair, Rector of the parish, W. Ball Wright, Assistant, Dr. Knapp, of Grace Church, and Sherwood Roosevelt, of Big Rapids, were in the chancel.

Holy Communion was celebrated at 9:30 A. M., followed by a short address by the Bishop, in which he made a forcible appeal for Akeley Institute and also urged the great necessity of increasing our intelligence in regard to missionary work.

At 10:30 the ladies retired to the chapel for the business meeting.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Hancock, of Grand Haven, Mrs. E. F. Uhl was called to the chair.

The roll call showed delegates as follows: Allegan, 2; Battle Creek, 2; Grand Rapids, 2; Hastings, 2; Ionia, 1; Muskegon, 1; Niles, 1; Charlotte, 1.

After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, the report of work for the year was read and accepted, showing that from fifteen parishes and missions, 24 boxes valued at $518.26, and cash to the amount of $882.82, had been disbursed.

Mrs. Sweet and Mrs. O'Brien presented the subject of the Ministering Children's League, which has for its motto, "No day without a deed to crown it," and for its rule, "Each member must try to do one kind deed every day;" telling of its success in S. Mark's parish, and making a strong appeal for organization in other parishes.

After singing the Missionary Hymn, Miss Emery's report was read, followed by the reading of letters; after which it was moved to adjourn, to meet at half-past one.

The afternoon session was opened by Dr. Fair. After reading the collects for the auxiliary, he made a few remarks enforcing what the Bishop had said at the morning session.

Mrs. Townsend, of Battle Creek, and Mrs. Barnhart, of Grand Rapids, read reports of their respective parishes, after which work was assigned to different parishes.

New work undertaken: $50 to be paid to the Bishop for Church Building Fund for the Diocese; a foreign scholarship to be assumed by the young ladies of Akeley, to be known as the Joseph W. Bancroft Scholarship. Mrs. Josslyn, of Niles, made an appeal for books to be sent to destitute localities.

A motion was made and carried that money be raised to pay the secretary's expenses in visiting each parish, for the purpose of arousing interest.

A most interesting paper upon missionary work was read by Miss Wilkes, of Allegan.

The officers for the ensuing year remain the same.

The meeting adjourned, to meet at Battle Creek in one year.

At the evening session Rev. Sherwood Roosevelt preached an excellent sermon from the text, "O Lord, truly I am Thy servant."

Prison Reform

There is a report from Bay City that will rejoice the hearts of all who think over or labor at prison reform. The greatest evils in our system of county jails have been connected with the crowding together of all classes of offenders, young and old, habitual criminals with first offenders, and even those who are only under the allegation of evil. Persons detained on civil process are often in the same ward with thugs and house-breakers, and thus our jails have become schools of crime, and destructive of all self-respect in those who are unfortunate enough to be confined there.

They have changed all that in Bay City, or at least much of the worst has been changed. All inmates under sixteen years of age are kept by themselves, and those incarcerated on civil process are separated from the real criminal class. Judge Campbell some time ago pointed out upon a Detroit platform the tendency of our petty courts to render all kinds of offenses equally infamous by sending every convicted person to jail, instead of merely imposing fines for misdemeanors. The news from Bay City looks like a return to reason which will doubtless lead to even better results. The clergy everywhere would do well to acquaint themselves with the interior of jails, and all good citizens should aim at keeping jail control out of the list of things obtainable by the professional politician.

A certain knowledge of the criminal classes is absolutely necessary to the clergyman. He constantly comes in contact with the cousins of the criminal, the tramps, too often criminals themselves.

We are bound to do the best with our little ability, and can hardly do it, unless we have some skill at detecting impostors. Jail visits will speedily teach the student the distinction between sins and sin, and exalt the divine wisdom which aims by regeneration to restore character, as well as to forgive sins.

We met with an illustration of criminal character recently that interested us. Finding a woman in destitute circumstances, an inquiry into her affairs showed her husband in jail for a petty theft. A visit to him found a glib penitent, profoundly sorry for this his "first offense." An inquiry at police head-quarters showed that he had been "in trouble" three times, and always for the same cause, petty thieving. He had become a thief in character, a habitual criminal. The clemency we expected to obtain for him became out of the question.

The best treatment for the habitual thief or the habitual drunkard is not sixty or ninety days at the county workhouse, but indefinite sentence until those skilled in the ways of criminals have evidence of a change in heart. But the drunkard and thief should not be mixed in the same institution.

Many victims of drink would be glad to remain forever in the House of Correction, for they are far more comfortable in prison than out of it and are conscious that the work they do pays for their keep. To be discharged, with them means a return to wallowing in the mire.

The uncertainty with Houses of Refuge unconnected with the state is that they have no right to detain their inmates against their will. The inmates will demand liberty when the "fit comes on." A real House of Refuge must be able to retain its "guests" for their own good.

Report of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Right Reverend Father and friends of the Woman's Auxiliary: The ninth year as a Diocesan Branch has closed, and again we are permitted to meet and lay the work accomplished before you from fifteen parishes and missions. The record is one of encouragement and discouragement, encouragement in view of the results of faithful effort on the part of the few who, moved by the constraining love of Christ, are quick to listen to His call, "Go ye also into the vineyard," and discouragement in the seeming apathy or want of interest outside of parish needs and activities on the part of the many. There has been no meeting of officers except a conference between the president and secretary in July, at Grand Haven, when a few hours were spent in pleasant talk over Auxiliary work and methods. The hope was cherished that some of our Churchwomen, if they could not go on purpose, would in their travels for rest and pleasure, take in the Triennial General meeting in New York; that coming face to face with the vast army of ministering workers gathered there, from the east and the west, the north and the south, the missionary, the Bible-reader and the teacher, with their faith, hope and courage, they might catch the spirit and return to us with new love and zeal to warm and kindle ours. But our Vice President, of Marshall, was the only one to represent Western Michigan, from whom we have a letter which will be read in your hearing.

It was with some hesitation that a Scholarship to be known as the "Dr. Cuming Scholarship," was assumed at the annual meeting one year ago, at $60. Up to the present date $76.50 have been collected, paying for the year and three months in advance. This has been gathered mostly from Sunday Schools.

The Bishop Gillespie Scholarship, of whom the report on S. Margaret's School, Tokio, says, "has always been satisfactory," has again been paid. As also, the little Cot in S. Mary's Orphanage, Shanghai.

The salary of Mrs. Miles, paid her quarterly by the Board of Missions in New York, of which the Diocesan Branch has relieved the Board by returning that amount the last two years, this year is in arrears $58.98. Piteous appeals have come from her from time to time, for special aid in times of sickness among her people when her small stipend was used up, and her purse empty, and kind hearts have sent to her necessities, besides three missionary boxes valued at $63. A lady who suffered grievous loss by fire in the terrible conflagration at Grand Haven, brought her Rector a dollar which had been laid aside for colored work. It was all she had, but she would not take back her gift, it must go for missionary work. A little of this spirit of self sacrifice in every Churchwoman would speedily raise Mrs. Miles' salary to $300, and leave a margin of $50 towards new work in the Diocese. This fall there have been some changes made in the Virginia appropriations and after consulting Bishop Randolph, Miss Emery asks us to pay our money for colored work the coming year simply into the salary fund.

In answer to the appeal of the Principal for Akeley Institute, the Auxiliary has sent from time to time boxes and packages of fruit, bedding, silver, table linen, towels and cash to the value of $203.66. This is one of the objects to which I call your special attention the coming year. Many things for convenience and comfort are needed there yet, before the equipment is complete, which the Auxiliary may help to furnish. A missionary society has been organized among the pupils by the Rector, the funds for the coming year to be used for a scholarship.

Twenty-four missionary boxes, valued at $518.26, have been prepared, six for Domestic Missions and eighteen for the Diocese. If these boxes have not always been as valuable as we desired and strove to make them, they have been acknowledged with warmest thanks and we can record another year that all boxes for Diocesan Missionaries have been filled in the Diocese.

To the question so often asked, "How can the number of Parish Branches be increased, and love and zeal for Missionary work be awakened in our Churchwomen," the answer is obvious—by the faithfulness of the Clergy. The Parish Branches that accomplish the most, work under the stimulus and encouragement of the Rectors. "When He putteth forth his own sheep, He goeth before them."

plete exodus; in the fall, Alma, Battle Creek, Mt. Clements and other resorts draw many away; the winter, in Florida, North Carolina and California, allures the wealthy from their homes, and spring keeps up the record by constant trips of the people to Detroit, Chicago and New York.

At Schoolcraft there is some promise of a Chapel before long. A liberal citizen who is in the habit of helping forward all worthy local objects, offers to be a fifth subscriber of one hundred dollars after four of our people there shall have subscribed $400. At present there are three subscriptions of $100 and one of $50. Good people! you must not lose that chance of getting a house of our own.

Report of the Committee on Christian Education.

The committee on Christian education to which were referred the part of the Episcopal address relating to Diocesan Schools, and also the part referring to the care of the newly confirmed, and the report of the trustees of Akeley Institute, submits the following:

Merely secular education is but a partial preparation for life's duties and good citizenship, and is no sure guaranty of the stability of our free institutions. These rest most securely on the loyalty of Christian character. Popular education is one support of the arch of civil liberty, and Christianity is the other. Knowledge is a power for good only when rightly used. The true aim of education is to develop and cultivate the moral instincts, while storing the mind and training its faculties. The formation of character is the main end of education. There is a growing evidence that the continuance of our public school system, so justly our pride, will eventually depend on the completely secular character of its instruction. If science is to remain "the handmaid of religion," the relationship must, more and more, be formed at home, in the Christian school, and in the Church. Our higher institutions of learning have recognized the bond of union and have generally been under Christian direction. In this State, besides the University, there are six well-equipped and fairly supported denominational colleges. Public high schools and private preparatory schools have largely supplanted the old time academies. Of private preparatory schools, both for boys and girls, our Church has more in the aggregate than any of the religious bodies, and they are well supported because of their distinctively Christian character. The greatly increasing membership of the Church during the last two decades, is due, in no small degree, to the religious impressions received in these schools. As an agency in church extension we do not deem the well-conducted Church school any less valuable than the Sunday school. Akeley Institute is the only school of this character in our own great State. Its inception and history need not again be told. A recent visit of some of our number to this institution with ample time to confer with the teachers and see their every-day work, enables your committee to speak advisedly of it. As to its necessity and benefit to the diocese, you are referred to the report of the committee on Christian education printed in the last Convention Journal. Thorough instruction in the elementary branches, and in literature, science, languages and art, is given by specially qualified teachers. The gymnasium and art rooms are well supplied with suitable apparatus. In every line of work the aim is to secure the best methods of instruction. In our opinion, based on a wide observation and personal experience in educational work, Akeley Institute will most favorably compare with any similar school of the same grade. A kind, firm and parental discipline aims to cultivate a mutual confidence between teacher and pupil. Religious instruction is given every Sunday afternoon, daily morning and evening devotions are held in the family, and the school work is begun with a churchly service. The wholesome character training of such surroundings is evident.

The story of Akeley's needs has been often told. Patronage has reached the full capacity of the original mansion and an "hired house". There is a lack of room for domestic work, and the inconveniences of widely separated lodgings for teachers and pupils are serious. Double the present number of pupils could be instructed with no increase of expense save for service, board and furnishing. The erection of a new building requires money. Where to find and how to get it, is the problem. The continued prosperity of Akeley demands an immediate enlargement of its facilities. Resolutions and plans have done their work. The pressing needs of the institution must be carried out from this Convention to the ears of those who are able to relieve them. Almost every successful institution, except it be heavily endowed, has its special financial agent whose business is to seek benefactors for it, to suggest the leaving of legacies to it and to devise plans for increasing its resources. A personal appeal, accompanied with a clear statement of purposes and wants, made by one who is personally interested, and to those who have the ability to help is quite likely to be heeded. And to secure this end some suitable person, we think, should be employed by the Board of Trustees to act as its agent. The work of endowment already begun, should also be pushed vigorously. The proceeds of such endowment would place, as needed, suitable reference books in the library, add new apparatus and other aids to instruction, and supply much of value which could not otherwise be obtained.

The following list of names of persons to fill vacancies in the Board of Trustees is respectfully suggested:—The Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Davies, D. D.; Rev. R. E. MacDuff; Edwin L. Uhl; Thomas A.

Parish; William N. Brown; George Wilder; Rev. James E. Wilkinson.

As facilitating the interests of Akeley Institute and bringing to speedier issue the present plans for its enlargement, the following resolution is submitted:

Resolved, That we recommend to the Board of Trustees of Akeley Institute the employment of some suitable person to act as a financial agent, to visit parties likely to be interested in Christian education, to solicit aid towards the endowment of the institution, and in the enlargement of its buildings and the increase of its educational facilities.

The Committee has also considered the part of the Bishop's address referred to us on the pastoral care of young persons after confirmation, and we would emphasize the clear, strong words of the Bishop on this subject, believing as we do that it is impossible to exaggerate the importance of such continued pastoral teaching of confirmation classes. Without attempting to enlarge upon what is so well said in the Episcopal address, the committee think it is especially fitting in this connection, to call attention to the fact, that the reason why such continued pastoral instruction is necessary, is also the reason which makes Church schools for boys and girls, a necessity. It is the birthright of a Christian child, not only to avail of the highest possible mental discipline, but also to be trained up "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." Christian nurture needs to be continuous and habitual throughout the period of youth. To the original trend given out of the home environment, must be added the momentum the School can give, and the inspiration that the Church of God supplies. The home, the school and the church are co-ordinate factors of Christian character. Happy the child who can receive mental culture and religious training, and yet lodge under the parental roof. But in many instances this can not be. And if a child must go from home to complete the education, the Church School offers itself not only "in loco parentis," but "in loco pastoris" also; supplying a healthful moral environment, an approved scholastic discipline, a proper religious atmosphere, and many of the essentials of a happy home. This is what "Akeley" undertakes to do and does do, affording at once the agreeable, stimulating social contact of mind upon mind and heart upon heart, which is the condition of intellectual growth, and that degree of isolation from adverse influences, whether frivolous or mischievous, which powerfully contributes to moral growth and religious character. Therefore "Akeley" makes its confident appeal for practical sympathy to the earnest church people of the Diocese.

The Women's Auxiliary.

The annual meeting of the Diocesan branch of the Women's Auxiliary was held on the second Wednesday in June in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Allegan, Rev. W. P. Law, Rector. A preliminary service was held on Tuesday evening by the rector, assisted by the Rev. Messrs. W. W. Wilson and Irvine, and the sermon being preached by the Rev. Dr. Van Antwerp. He took the subject of the well-remembered incident of Mary and Martha; and showed how one of the sisters was representative of active effort, the other of a more contemplative spirit, and that both were needed in the church.

On Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock the first session of the Woman's Auxiliary was held, when the President read her address and the Secretary her report. From these it appeared that the Diocesan branch was organized just ten years before, at a meeting held in this same parish, that the aggregate contributions for the ten years had been between seven and eight thousand dollars, while those for the past year have been some $1,500, the largest in any year.

At half-past ten the Bishop assisted by the Rev. Messrs. Hubbs and Irvine celebrated the Holy Communion, the annual sermon being preached by the Rev. William White Wilson, Rector of St. Mark's Church, Chicago. His text was the words—"Among whom ye shine as lights in the world," Phil. 2:15.

He showed that the Philippian Christians shined as lights in the corrupt world of heathenism, did so despite the hindrances which beset them, and he made the application that the members of the Auxiliary were to do the same, to shine where they were in whatever circumstances they may be placed. The sermon was well written, well delivered and could not be otherwise than helpful to all who heard its stirring words. The ladies are certainly much indebted to Mr. Wilson for his kindness in leaving his large parish to come and preach to them so eloquent a discourse.

In the afternoon reports were made from the various parishes, the work for the coming year decided upon, pledges made, a paper read written by Mrs. Gatrell, the delegate from Marshall, and especial mention must be made of a letter from Mrs. Hadley, the former secretary, which was read at this meeting.

It bore her greetings from the far-off city of Hankow, China. It gave a very interesting account of the work in that place, and an earnest plea for its advancement.

This letter from one so well known to many who heard it read brought the work in the far-away East very near to them. It seemed like work at our own doors. In the evening a brief missionary service was held, a paper from Grand Rapids read by Miss Richmond, and by request Mrs. Gatrell again read her paper, its excellence may be judged from this fact. Then came a most earnest and interesting address by the Rev. Mr. Hubbs. After a few words of congratulations, the Bishop said the closing prayers, and gave the benediction of peace.

The careful arrangement of the Rector, the warm hospitality of the congregation, and their evident interest, the excellent sermons, addresses, and papers, and the hearty singing of the chorus choir made this meeting thoroughly enjoyable and helpful. The officers elected for the ensuing year are President, Mrs. E. D. Irvine, Secretary, Mrs. Keith Follett, 211 Fountain street, Grand Rapids.

Will Make Cottas.

To the Editor of the Church Helper.

DEAR SIR: I am taking orders for making cottas for either clergymen or choir boys. The proceeds from the work are to go towards a fund for building a chapel here in Grass Lake. We have our lot and a third of the sum needed for the chapel building, but it is a missionary field and we have to depend upon contributions from outside to carry on the work. Will you kindly bear this in mind and send me orders when possible.

Yours truly,

Miss A. M. DOVLELL,
Grass Lake, Michigan.

Albion College and Year Book.

The year book of Albion College for 1890-91, has just come to hand. It is a neat volume of 184 pages. The last 56 pages are given to discussions on several very important educational questions. These discussions will be found to be of value to teachers and an aid to all who are interested in the educational problems of the day. The college is in a very flourishing condition. It catalogues for the college year, 529 students.

than any other class of defectives. With the blind the fears of parents and friends as to proper protection keep many from the school. The mutes number about 300; the blind about 80. A kind service is rendered to both these classes in directing the attention of their friends to the state institutions. No charge is made but for clothing and traveling expenses, and these the county will pay in cases of necessity.

The secretary of the board has lately visited the northeast section of the state, and reports several new jails in erection, all on improved plans. Muskegon has lately erected a jail that, with proper management, will meet some of the greatest evils of the system. G. D. G.

Important.

To the friends of Akeley Institute.

There is a very reasonable prospect now that the new building for Akeley Institute will be ready for use at the beginning of the next term in September.

We now need pupils. The applications are hopeful, but we can accommodate 75, and the increased expenditure demands a much larger patronage. The impression has gone abroad that the school is full, as last year twenty applicants were rejected.

The service we ask of our friends, is to make the school known, its advantages and terms. Such assistance will be gratefully acknowledged.

Catalogues will be sent on application to Mrs. J. E. Wilkinson, Principal, Grand Haven, Michigan.

Commencement at Akeley.

The Commencement at Akeley, opened with the art reception, Friday afternoon and evening. The studio was decorated beautifully, and many pretty pieces of work were displayed. Saturday night, Miss Richmond gave a banquet to the literary society, the Tau Eta Kappa at the Norris Hotel. The toasts were as follows:

"Miss Richmond"—Louise Brayton.
"Alma Mater"—Grace E. Messer.
"Our Principal"—Nettie White.
"Miss Anketell"—Fredrika Allen.
The "Alumnae"—Nan Rippey.
"Class of '92"—Mary Rippey.
"Class of '93"—Marion Stickney.

An elegant table was spread, songs sung and extra speeches made. This was the most enjoyable evening the society ever passed, and surpassed the banquet of last year. On Sunday, was preached the Baccalaureate sermon by Bishop Gillespie.

Monday, class day. The exercises took place at ten o'clock in the room of the new building and were as follows:

Salutatory—Anna McKay Rippey.
Music—Lynette White, Edna Ford.
History—Sadie E. Bower.
Class Song—Class of '92.
Oration—Rev. J. E. Wilkinson.
Music—Sadie E. Bower.
Prophecy—Louise Brayton.
Poem—Christine Kreuter,
Valedictory—Lynette White.

This program was well carried out, and in the afternoon there was an excursion to Spring lake. In the evening one of the best musicales ever listened to at Grand Haven, was given by Mr. Henry C. Post and Mr. Campbell, assisted by Miss Grace Messer, Mr. Frank Harbeck and Mr. Wilbur Force.

Tuesday morning, the day for graduation, was the gala day for all. At half past ten the pupils assembled in the school-room and in procession marched to the church where they joined in singing the 176th hymn. After a brief service and a short address by the Bishop, Rev. R. E. McDuff of Flint, delivered a most able and suggestive address. Then were presented diplomas to the five graduates and the crosses, marks of honor, were pinned on by the Principal. Then the distribution of prizes, always interesting to all, took place. The Grace church scholarship represented by Rev. J. Brewster Hubbs, was given to Sarah E. Bower of Lawrence, Mass. The medal for the most improvement in instrumental music was awarded to Adah L. Blair of Grand Haven. Miss Anna Nial of St. Louis received both the neatness and deportment prizes, while Miss Florence Whaley carried away a beautiful medal for studio work. The prize offered by the Bishop for scripture learning was given to Miss Fredrika Allen of Grosse Ile, Mich, after the service the people assembled in the new building where an elegant lunch was served. There speeches were made, songs sung, and the class banner given to the school.

The following additional particulars are condensed from the Detroit Tribune.

Grand Haven, Mich., June 21.—The graduation exercises at Akeley Institute took place at 11 o'clock today. Though very rainy a large number of people assembled in St. John's Church whither marching in procession from the school-room came the students, alumnae and those who were to be graduated. The class banner, a beautiful one, was carried by a member of the class. After prayer and singing of several hymns, Bishop Gillespie made an address. He introduced the class speaker, Rev. R. E. McDuff of Flint, who delivered a very able and interesting address. Then followed the presentation of diplomas by the Bishop. After brief remarks by the principal, the giving the gold crosses to those who had kept their silver crosses during the time they had been there. These Grecian-shaped crosses have the class colors, heliotrope and white on them. To receive them is a mark of the highest honor, as it means good conduct in all things. Following this was the distribution of prizes, by the chaplain.

The people were then invited over to the new building, in which a magnificent lunch was served. Then the Bishop called upon Rev. Wm. H. Osborne of Lansing, who was a state visitor. He spoke of his ideal of womanhood; of his reverence for women; his admiration of their merits. His remarks brought great applause. Rev. A. Kreuter, Rev. J. Brewster Hubbs, Superintendent Gilman Fisher, Superintendent Briggs, Rev. J. N. Rippey all spoke of the success of the school; congratulated the friends on its development and gave them their best wishes for its future. The Chaplain and Principal spoke affectionately of the pupils, and of their aims for the school. The graduates, now alumnae, sang two songs, (which by the way were written by two young men on The Detroit Tribune) which were enjoyed by all. Then, after many congratulations, the exercises closed by a reception in the evening given by Dr. and Mrs. Wilkinson.

Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The Western Michigan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions held its 12th Annual Meeting in St. John's Church, Grand Haven, June 15, 1892.

Communion service was celebrated at 10 a. m., Bishop Gillespie and the Rev's Claiborne, Mosher, Irvine, Rippey and Wilkinson being present, with a congregation of about thirty.

A most thoughtfully suggestive sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Claiborne of St. Luke's, Kalamazoo, from the text Mark 13:34, the burden of which was "faithfulness and watchfulness."

The business-meeting occupied the afternoon, with an attendance of about forty. Twelve delegates represented the Missionary Societies of Hastings, Ionia, Kalamazoo, Allegan, G'd Rapids and G'd Haven, and five other parishes sent full reports of work; viz., Niles, Marshall, Petoskey, Manistee, and the Junior Aux. of Grand Rapids.

The summary of the year's work embodied in the annual addresses of the President, Mrs. Irvine, and the Sec'y Mrs. Follett, was very satisfactory as to the past and hopeful for the future. For the first time in the history of Western Michigan, the pledges made to the Board of Missions have been paid promptly and fully. Not as many boxes sent out this year as sometimes, but the work done in this line has been of far better quality.

The President's announcement of her probable removal from the Diocese made her parting words of sympathy and counsel doubly impressive.

Among the desirable activities for the coming year, mentioned by the Secretary, were: The organization of a Junior Auxiliary in every parish; the distribution of missionary publications, the establishment of parochial reading-circles, and the patronage of the Lending Library of the N. York Bible House; also, the requesting of an occasional sermon or familiar talk upon Missions from the Rector.

The announcement was made of the death of Mrs. M. M. Greenwood, of Coldwater, who was a delegate at the last annual meeting. The following resolution was adopted, and ordered spread upon the books of the Association.

MINUTE.

WHEREAS—It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst, our faithful friend and co-worker, Mrs. Margaret M. Greenwood, one who was ever ready with her assistance to further the cause of Christ. Therefore Resolved—That we as "Women of the Auxiliary of Western Michigan," sincerely regret the loss of one, who by her genial manner, and earnest Christian character endeared herself to all her associates and was so influential in the cause which we all have so much at heart. She has commenced that glorious life which lies just beyond the veil.

"She is not dead, but gone before," Faithful in her Christian duties; she has left us the legacy of her noble example, and though we shall miss her words of counsel and Christian sympathy, we will emulate her virtues, and press forward.

MISS KNOWLTON, Hastings,
 MRS. FOX, Grand Rapids, Com.
 MRS. AUSTIN, Kalamazoo.

An important action of this session was the transferring of the annual meeting from June to the last Wednesday in May, it being considered desirable to precede the Diocesan Convention, so that the completed Yearly Report of the Auxiliary may be sent to that body.

A stirring paper upon the importance and value of banding the children of the Church together in the attractive little association known as the Junior Auxiliary, was read by Miss Knowlton of Hastings. This was followed by a report of the beautiful work accomplished in the last year by that organization in the eastern diocese of our State.

29 Churches in Detroit and 20 outside have each their Junior Aux. devoted to the interests of the Freedmen's and Indian schools, the City Hospitals, and some other objects. The aggregate of money and boxes distributed by the children last year was $76.50.

Mrs. Follett recommended that the various young people's societies throughout the Diocese of West Michigan re-organize at once under the name of Junior Auxiliary.

A letter was read from the Gen'l Secretary, Miss Emery, urging the attendance of a goodly delegation from Western Michigan upon the Triennial Convention of the Episcopal Church at Baltimore in October next. She made an earnest appeal, also, for a large contribution to the million-dollar Enrolment Fund. This called out some lively discussion as to ways and means for arousing an interest and enlisting the co-operation of every communicant of the Episcopal Church. Each person present was instructed by the Sec'y to consider herself a special missionary in this cause. Mrs. Keith Follett was elected delegate at large, and twenty-five dollars voted towards defraying her expenses to Baltimore.

With a view to simplifying the work of the Diocesan Secretary, the following Resolution was offered, and finally referred to the delegates for consideration in these various societies:

Resolved, That the parish branches be requested to authorize the Secretary when the pledges to which they desire to contribute have been filled to apply their contributions towards the payment of any pledges of the diocesan branch for which sufficient contributions have not been made.

The concluding business of the meeting was the election of officers resulting in a unanimous call of Mrs. W. G. Austin of Kalamazoo to the presidency and Miss Eliza Knowlton of Hastings to the Vice presidency, while Mrs. Follett was by acclamation invited to continue her valuable and successful service as Diocesan Secretary.

A rising vote of thanks was taken to the Rector and women of St. John's parish and to Mrs. Wilkinson, the Principal of Akeley Institute, for entertainment and various attentions, and adjournment was made to the last Wednesday in May 1893.

The place of the next meeting was left to the decision of the President and Secretary.

REBECCA L. RICHMOND,
 Sec. pro tem.

The Enrolment Fund.

October of 1892 will be interesting not only to Americans generally in connection with the inauguration of the great Columbian Jubilee; but it will be of special interest to Churchmen on account of two celebrations to take place in Baltimore at the time of the triennial convention; namely, the one hundredth anniversary of the first consecration of an Episcopal bishop, Thos. J. Claggett, on American soil, and, the twentieth anniversary of the organization of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions.

It is proposed to commemorate these tions of respect were passed in regard to the two members deceased during the year, Mr. E. A. Turnbull of Grand Ledge, and Mr. William Savidge of Spring Lake, who had been for so many years a helpful friend of the school and the clerk of the Board of Trustees. Many friends of the school were present at the various exercises, and it is gratifying to know that a successful year's work has been completed. Now let us all get busy to help Miss Yerkes in building up a good big school for next year.

Engagements During the Summer. The Bishop expects to give an address at the opening of the new buildings of the Children's Home Society in St. Joseph on June 21st; to officiate at a patriotic service on July 2nd; to make a Visitation of Pentwater, Hart and Whitehall, July 9th; to preach in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York, on July 16, 23 and 30; to attend the proposed gathering of the Clergy in August; and during the summer to visit Wequetonsing, Harbor Springs, Northport Point, Leland, Luther, Petoskey, Charlevoix, East Jordan, Onekema, Saugatuck, and other points in the resort country. It is likely that he will also take the Confirmation Visitation at Loomis Sanatorium, Liberty, N. Y., as in previous years. He will not be away for any considerable period on any of these trips except that to New York and may always be reached through his office, St. Mark's Parish House, Grand Rapids, and while in New York, care of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Morningside Heights.

The Death of Archdeacon Sayres. The Rev. William S. Sayres, D. D., General Missionary of the Diocese of Michigan, died on May 5th, in Detroit, after a long and painful illness and was buried on May 8th from St. John's Church. He had spent seven years as a missionary in China, and his work in Michigan after his return was remarkably successful; in fact, his record in establishing missionary stations and developing them into self-supporting parishes was almost unequalled. He was a good friend and neighbor to the Diocese of Western Michigan, and we join with our sister diocese in regretting his departure and in expressing our appreciation of his life and work.

The Bishop and the Dean propose to ask such of the Clergy of the diocese as may be able to accept their invitation to meet for Proposed a few days during the Gathering of latter part of August the Clergy at Camp Roger for an in August. informal conference and a good visit together. The gathering will not be exactly a picnic, a summer school, or a retreat, but it will combine many delightful and desirable features that will make it decidedly worth while, and we shall hope for a large attendance.

The Rev. Robert S. Nash of the Diocese of Kentucky, until recently assistant at the Church of the Advent, Louisville, has taken charge, under license, of St. Paul's, Greenville, and Holy Trinity, Belding, and commenced his duties on May 14th. For the present he will reside in Greenville and will divide his time between the two places.

Military Service At St. Mark's. On Sunday, June 11th, a Church Parade Service was held in the Pro-Cathedral at which I officiated as Chaplain of the Businessmen's Battalion, assisted by the Dean and other Clergy. The service was attended not only by the Battalion, but by the National Guard (a part of the 32nd Michigan Infantry) and there were about 400 men in line. The military bands joined with the organ and choir and the music was very inspiring. The sermon was on the subject of "Patriotism and Preparedness." The occasion was quite a remarkable one and will take its place as a noteworthy event in the history of the city.

The Rev. John K. Coolidge of the Diocese of Southern Ohio is now living near Torch Lake and has been holding services at Grace Church, Traverse City. It is probable that the Rev. Charles T. Stout, a former rector of Traverse City, may be asked to officiate there during the summer.

The Rev. W. F. Bachman of the Diocese of New Jersey, held services on Easter and on two Sundays thereafter at St. James', Albion, and received a cordial and appreciative welcome.

Mr. Martin B. Kilpack, a Candidate for Holy Orders and a student at Nashotah House, will work under the Rev. Henry Harris during the summer months and will have special duty at Christ Church, Charlevoix. He came into residence on June 1st.

Continuous progress is being made with the fund for the new parish house at the Pro-Cathedral. Over $30,000 has been subscribed.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The 36th annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Western Michigan was held on Friday, May 12th, in St. Luke's Church, Kalamazoo. The Bishop and the Rev. Messrs. Ivins, Lockton, Bates, Hughes, Colvin, D. C. Huntington and White were in attendance, and there was a large representation of the Auxiliary, both in delegates and visitors. The Bishop celebrated the Holy Communion at 9:00 a. m. assisted by the Rev. Messrs. Ivins and Huntington, and made an address in the nature of a charge to the women present. At 10:00 a. m. the business sessions were opened in the parish house and there was an address of welcome by Mrs. Pomeroy, President of the Kalamazoo branch, followed by the address of Mrs. Collins Johnston, the President, and the reports of the various officers.

The Bishop discussed diocesan matters and suggested that if the members of the Auxiliary thought best to make a change in connection with the methods of raising the money for Diocesan Missions, heretofore known as the Bishop Gillespie Memorial Fund, it might be advisable to consider the formation of a Bishop's League, working in connection with the Auxiliary, for the purpose of interesting all the women of the diocese in Diocesan Missions. A committee appointed on this subject made a favorable report and plans will be made during the coming year for establishing and carrying out this method in all the parishes of the diocese. No doubt within a year we can work out the best system for putting the whole matter on a permanent and helpful basis.

Mrs. F. B. Eaglesfield, the Treasurer of the Auxiliary, reported that about $1,400 had been contributed in money during the year, and Miss Wilkes, the Corresponding Secretary, reported that boxes had been sent out to the value of nearly $900.

Several new branches have been organized during the year and it is hoped in the next year to make a special effort to revive those branches which at the present time seem to be languishing.

A very delightful luncheon was served by the ladies of St. Luke's Church and after luncheon the business sessions were resumed, followed by a most instructive and interesting address by Miss S. E. Hopwood, principal of St. Agnes School, Anking, China. She illustrated the subject with Chinese costumes and objects of interest in connection with Chinese life and answered many questions in regard to woman's work in China.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. James P. Brayton, St. Mark's, Grand Rapids; Vice Presidents, Mrs. W. G. McCune, Emmanuel, Petoskey; Mrs. C. L. Bates, Emmanuel, Hastings; Mrs. Edgar Hunting, Grace, Grand Rapids; Mrs. Collins Johnston, Grace, Grand Rapids; and Mrs. F. W. Sullivan, St. Thomas, Battle Creek; Treasurer, Mrs. F. B. Eaglesfield, Trinity, Niles; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Cora Wilkes, Good Shepherd, Allegan; Recording Secretary, Miss Besie S. Newell, St. Luke's, Kalamazoo; and Secretary for the Church Periodical Club, Mrs. Frances Hillyer, St. Mark's, Grand Rapids.

Delegates to the triennial meeting in St. Louis were elected, as follows: Mrs. James P. Brayton, Mrs. Edgar Hunting, Mrs. Thomas Hume, Mrs. W. J. Lockton, and Mrs. Lucius Boltwood.

In the evening there was a service in the Church with a sermon by the Rev. Victor von Kubinyi of South Bend, Indiana.

On Saturday the Junior Auxiliary met and after a Celebration of the Holy Communion by the Rector of the parish, and an address by Dean White, the business sessions were held, followed by luncheon and an address on work in the Philippine Islands by Mrs. G. E. Gorbutt.

It was reported that six new branches of the Juniors had been organized in the diocese during the year, and the work is evidently in a very flourishing condition. Mrs. C. L. Bates has been in charge of this department.

On the whole, both meetings were very satisfactory and encouraging and, of course, the hospitality of Kalamazoo was as gracious and thoughtful as ever.

It should also be reported that there was a meeting of the Girls' Friendly Society on Saturday afternoon to discuss their diocesan work, and it is gratifying to know that this most helpful and useful society is growing rapidly within the diocese. We hope soon to have a branch in almost every parish.

The detailed report of the Treasurer of the Auxiliary shows that $907.44 was sent in for General Missions, $496.52 for Diocesan work, and $44.55 for specials, making a total of $1,448.51.

The United Offering.

Mrs. Edgar Hunting, 254 S. College Avenue, Grand Rapids, the Woman's Auxiliary Treasurer for the United Offering, has prepared a tabulated statement of the United Offering since 1910, which shows that at the General Convention of 1910 $1,040.59 was contributed from the Auxiliary of this diocese, and in 1913 the amount raised was $1,021.12. So far for this triennial the report shows $1,069.83 on hand. The offering, of course, will be taken to the General Convention in St. Louis in October and will there be presented, to be used for woman's work in the Church. The United Offering treasurers of the several parishes are asked to make their reports and to send in all offerings to Mrs. Hunting by October 1st, and it is hoped that there may be an increase in each case so that the present $1,069 may amount up towards the $1,500, which we would like to have.

THE JUNIOR AUXILIARY.

A copy of the Junior Book has been ordered for all clergymen of the diocese who have not already branches of the Junior Auxiliary. After reading it he is requested to put the book in the hands of a competent leader.

It is hoped that all young people between the ages of 8 and 21 years will meet in groups; and that each group will make a scrap book on some mission field, read or study a missionary story or other book, that the group or united groups of each parish will give a mystery or missionary play, and that all will work on Christmas gifts for a mission field assigned to our diocese.

The gifts for next Christmas go to the Indians of the Pine Ridge Agency, South Dakota. Both useful and joyful gifts are asked for. Dolls make the most attractive joyful gifts for girls. Work bags, marble bags, infant's clothes, ribbons, handkerchiefs, ties, hosiery, caps, pencils, pens, knives, games, etc., are most acceptable.

A part of the gifts for next Christmas were offered at the annual meeting in Kalamazoo. Both useful and joyful gifts for boys and girls are still needed.

The gifts which have been given this year are much better than those given a year ago and much interest and enthusiasm was shown by the delegates who were present. When all of our parishes help a Christmas box can be sent to a foreign field in the spring and a home field in the fall.

The following subscriptions and renewals have been received since May 1st:

Miss Inez Wood, Grand Rapids; Mrs. M. Falkingham, Benton Harbor; Mrs. Lucius Boltwood, Grand Rapids; Rev. F. van Vliet, Sewanee, Tenn.; Mrs. R. W. Butterfield, Grand Rapids; Mrs. C. E. Wilson, White Cloud; Mrs. Frank Hams, Hastings; Rev. Otway Colvin, Allegan; Mrs. E. A. Balyeat, Kalamazoo; Mrs. Ida Waterbury, Kalamazoo; Mrs. B. Eastman, Benton Harbor; Mrs. E. A. Hanlon, Muskegon; Mrs. D. A. Donaldson, Grand Rapids; Mrs. Scott, Benton Harbor; Mrs. V. Shultz, Holland.

Nonessentials.

A table of annual expenditures on luxuries in this country has been put forth by Dr. Charles W. Eliot. Like everything coming from him, it is worth thought. Here are some of the items:

Tobacco	$1,200,000,000
Jewelry and plate ...	800,000,000
Confectionery	200,000,000
Tea and coffee	100,000,000
Chewing gum	13,000,000
Intoxicating liquors ..	2,200,000,000

We might be giving more, but the typewriter on which we were recording these figures developed paralysis while writing the sum spent on booze.

Recompense.

God gave a day of healing
To the patient budding flowers
After the rough wind's bruising,
And the stinging showers.

He bade the sun caress them;
"Blow softly" He charged the breeze;
And the flowers gave fragrant incense
In silent ecstasies.

In a riot of bloom and color,
Painted by God's own hand,
They danced to the breeze's piping
A faerie saraband.

God gave a day of healing
To the patient trustful flowers.
After the grim grief bruising
These broken hearts of ours,

Shall He not grant us also
A time to grow glad again,
His peace and His benediction,
After the stinging rain?
