Original Poem

(Original poem given by one of the members of St. James Church, Milwaukee, at their 65th anniversary.)

Once more we meet, as we have met before,
With thankful hearts aglow with friendly cheer,
Telling our blessings and achievements o'er,
And drawing closer with each passing year.

And some there are who are not here to-day,
Whom we have gladly welcomed heretofore;
Yet we believe they are not far away,
And, missing them, we do but love them more.

What though the labor and the stress be hard?
This work will last when many things are gone;
This is our heritage to keep and guard,
Nor must we lose the ground that has been won.

Then let us rise and gird ourselves anew,
With souls united and with hearts at peace;
What has been done before, we still can do;
May love, devotion, effort, never cease.

The President's Annual Report

Another year with its opportunities, and blessings has passed. How have we used these opportunities, and in what spirit have we accepted these blessings?

Have we measured up to the opportunities that have been ours? Never before perhaps, in the lives of any of us here today, has there been such chances, and such need, for service, and self sacrifice for others.

Bishop Rowe once said, that he had found it difficult to find men for his work, but that he had been blessed with some of the best women the church had ever produced.

It is the fashion nowadays, to take the position, that if only we women were allowed to run things, the long delayed millenium of the race, would soon be ushered in.

Some of the ablest and most eloquent of our sex are devoting their best energies, to the great task of securing for us certain privileges.

But are we women striving to be prepared for that day, and are we in this vital crisis, of our National history, endeavoring to live up to the highest ideals of our womanhood?

Are we truly doing our very best for humanity, and for ourselves?

Twice blessed are we to be living under the protection of a flag that has ever stood for peace. A flag, on which it has been said, the sun never sets, for when the last rays of the setting sun are touching its drooping folds, in the Philippines, the morning sun is gilding its stars, in Porto Rico.

We women have a duty to our country, and a duty to our church as well, but not alone to our own Parish or Diocese, but to the whole church.

This wonderful gospel of ours was not given to us alone, but to all the world, and that is why we women of the Woman's Auxiliary have a sacred trust to perform, in helping to carry it into all lands, and to all peoples.

Go preach the gospel to all nations, is as binding on us today, as it was in the days when our Lord gave this command to His disciples, and so it is a privilege for me to be your President, because you, as members of the Woman's Auxiliary, are striving to carry out this command of our Saviour, and to give to others, the same blessed privileges, that you yourselves have received and enjoyed.

I had said that I could not serve as your President, not through any lack of interest in missionary work, but because I felt there were many other women in our Diocese, of broader experience in missions, who were far better fitted than I to assume the duties of President. But during the past year I have endeavored to give to your service, enthusiasm and energy to the limit of my ability.

And to you this morning I come, bringing a record of some of the visits I have made and some of the work that I have tried to accomplish.

In the very hot days of June and July I commenced my official duties by writing over sixty letters in long hand, many of which were to church women who are not members of the Woman's Auxiliary. I hoped in this way, that it might be possible to interest them in our missionary aims.

I have distributed leaflets bearing on missionary subjects and also many copies of the Spirit of Missions. I regret to say that I have received comparatively few replies to these letters, but I still have faith that the seed sown, may yet bring forth fruit.

August 15th, in company with Archdeacon Huntington, I went to Bowens Mills, where an Auxiliary Branch was organized. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Garbett, officers were elected—Mrs. F. B. Raymond, being chosen President. This branch at their first meeting voted a small sum to the United Offering. Mr. Huntington's mother accompanied us and added much to the interest of the meeting with her talk on missions. We made the trip in Mr. Huntington's Ford car, and though I have heard it intimated since that the Archdeacon did not always arrive on schedule time, when he journeyed in that car, the fates were propitious to us, and we met with none of the mishaps that had been Mr. Huntington's lot on other occasions.

I called a meeting of the Diocesan officers at St. Mark's Parish House, September 18th, as it seemed desirable that if possible, some misconceptions regarding the Bishop's League, should be corrected.

Bishop McCormick attended the meeting, and was of great assistance to us. All the members of the Board, with the exception of our faithful Treasurer were present at the meeting. To our regret she was ill and unable to come. Mrs. McBride, always so thoughtful for others, served tea at the close of the meeting.

September 27th, I wrote letters to the Auxiliary Presidents reminding them of the semi-annual United Offering meeting.

October 3rd, I visited the Hastings Branch. The meeting was at the home of Mrs. Goodyear. Mr. Bates talked to the women in a most interesting manner about missions. It was a pleasure on this occasion to meet a former Diocesan President, Mrs. Robinson.

October 9th to October 23rd was spent in St. Louis at the wonderful Convention. I hope every woman present will strive to go to Detroit in 1919.

October 27th, I attended a meeting of Grace Church Auxiliary, and while listening to Mrs. Johnston's talk, lived over in pleasant memories, the scenes she described of that inspiring Triennial.

November 3rd, at my own Auxiliary, St. Mark's, I gave a report of the St. Louis meeting.

November 4th, I was a guest of the Kalamazoo Branch, and was gratified to learn that the members were making a special effort to increase their membership. I recommend this, to all our branches, for the power of accomplishing more and better work, will be vastly increased by this means.

November 10th, I visited and talked of the Triennial, to the women of St. Philip's Mission. The women of both the Guild and Auxiliary were present at the meeting and I was delighted with the business manner in which they conducted their affairs.

November 16th, I met with the Women's Guild of St. Paul's Church, and talked to them of St. Louis and missions.

For six weeks after this, I was ill and unable to carry on any church work.

January 3rd, I was present at a meeting of the Muskegon Branch. With your former splendid Diocesan President, Mrs. Hume, at its head, you can easily imagine what a power for good this Auxiliary must be in Muskegon.

January 5th, it was my pleasure to accept an invitation from the Woman's Auxiliary of Battle Creek. All the Auxiliary women there belong to the Woman's Guild, and will it not be a happy day for us, if some time, all the church women will also be members of the Auxiliary.

January 6th, I was a guest at the Epiphany luncheon of our Grace Church. It was such an inspiration to hear of the faithful work of Mrs. Ewing, one of their oldest members, in earning money for the Epiphany fund. It was touching to see the unselfish spirit of Mrs. Ewing and her friend, in striving to give, each to the other, the credit of raising this money.

January 10th, was spent at St. Joseph and it was delightful to meet the members of this branch, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Worger-Slade, and some of the Auxiliary women who came over from Benton Harbor. The meeting which was an interesting one, was held in their pleasant parish home.

January 23rd, at Grace Church, with other Auxiliary women, I enjoyed the inspirational talk by Mrs. Biller of South Dakota, and I feel that after hearing Mrs. Biller tell of conditions there, we shall all take a greater interest in South Dakota than ever before.

February 7th, I went to Marshall, and on this occasion the women of the Church Guild and the Auxiliary held their meeting together. The spirit of co-operation between the two societies is beautiful to see. The Guild was planning to help out the Auxiliary in any line of work they took up during Lent.

February 15th, I met with the Ionia Auxiliary Branch, and for 29 successive years has this branch been in existence. Imagine the devotion and faithfulness of the women who have belonged to it. The President, Mrs. Vosper, entertained the meeting at her home.

February 27th, I addressed and mailed ninety annual reports, to church women and clergymen.

March 7th, I had the pleasure of attending an afternoon meeting of the Belding Branch. The women there are doing such good work, and their earnestness and devotion to the church under difficulties were a lesson to me.

April 13th, I went to Niles and it was very gratifying to see pleasantly situated here, as Rector of this old Parish, Rev. Harold Holt, who was a former St. Mark's boy. We had a most helpful meeting, missionary and other topics were discussed.

May 1st, I was present at a breakfast given in honor of Bishop McCormick.

May 3rd, we organized an Auxiliary Branch at Grand Haven. As nothing seems too hard for the faithful women there to do for their church, I am expecting splendid results from this new Auxiliary. My father and mother were among the faithful few who worked hard to establish St. Johns Church at Grand Haven, so it made me very happy to find the church there in a prosperous condition.

In closing, there is one work I wish to recommend for your special consideration for the coming year, and that is the Bishop's League. This fund, as we all know, is for the furtherance of the church work in our Diocese, and therefore it is a matter for which all church people are in a measure personally responsible, for no one, even if he is as able and willing as our Bishop, can build up our Diocese without co-operation and money.

I earnestly hope that all our Auxiliary Branches when making their pledges today will each make a definite pledge to the Bishop's League. This will assist our Bishop in keeping open the silent churches, and in strengthening the weaker places in the Diocese.

And now, dear friends, the volume containing the records of our last year's work is almost completed. With the close of this annual meeting we open the first chapter of a new volume, and as we turn the leaves, wherein is to be recorded, each day's work, let us write a record of increasing love and devotion to our Master's cause, and thus aid in extending His influence, wider, and deeper throughout the entire Diocese of Western Michigan.

Blest be the tie, that binds
Our hearts in Christian love
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

Recording Secretary's Report, of the Thirty-seventh Annual Meeting

The Thirty-seventh Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Western Michigan, was held in Grace Church, Grand Rapids, May 11, 1917.

The Bishop and four clergymen were in attendance. Eighteen Parish Branches were represented by thirty-one delegates and thirty-seven guests, making a total of seventy-three.

Miss Emery, from the Church Missions House, N. Y., was our honored guest, and attended all our meetings and stayed the following day for the Junior Meetings.

The Rt. J. N. McCormick was the celebrant at the Holy Communion assisted by the Rev. G. P. T. Sargent of Grace Church, Grand Rapids, and the Rev. J. H. Feringa of Grand Haven.

The Business meeting was called to order in the Parish House by the President, Mrs. James P. Brayton; after roll-call of the Branches and a word of welcome by Mrs. Collins Johnston of Grace Church, the President gave the report of what had been accomplished during the past year and made suggestions for the present year.

Miss Wilkes, the Corresponding Secretary, reported not so many boxes sent as usual, but since the Annual Meeting reports have come showing that there were twenty-eight boxes sent with a valuation of $889.02.

The Treasurer's report was very satisfactory. More money has been sent in since the report was made up, making a total now of $1,749.93 as having passed through her hands during the year.

Mrs. E. H. Hunting, Treasurer of the United Offering, gave a very interesting report of "The United Offering Service" held in St. Louis. Western Michigan's part in that offering being $1,350. There is on hand $75.07 towards the next United Offering to be made in Detroit in 1919.

Mrs. Johnston, the Educational Secretary, told of the Study Class and Summer Conferences.

Mrs. Lockton gave a report of the Junior and urged that more interest be taken in this branch, and Mrs. Sullivan explained the work of "The Little Helpers" and wished that a branch might be started in each Parish or Mission.

Mrs. Boltwood, chairman of the "Bishop's League," stated it was hoped that the object of the "Bishop's League" would be better understood this coming year. Its object is to provide funds for the Bishop to use in the Diocese. The resolutions in regard to the "Bishop's League" as made at the Officers' Conference held in St. Mark's Parish House, Sept. 18th, were read.

Mrs. Hillyer gave an interesting account of the Church Periodical Club, and told of the need of books, magazines, and papers to be sent to the Army camps.

Bishop McCormick made an address at noon; in which he said that he hoped that the Woman's Auxiliary would see fit to continue the "Bishop's League" and through this league to assure the Convention that hereafter Western Michigan would not need to ask for money from the board of Missions for work in the Diocese.

During the afternoon meeting the following resolutions were presented by Mrs. Johnston and adopted:

That it is the judgment of the Woman's Auxiliary of Western Michigan, that the Diocese should relieve the Board of Missions of the yearly apportionment made to Western Michigan, and the women of the Diocese should do all in their power to raise an equivalent fund for "The Bishop's League." These resolutions to be presented to the Convention.

Five minute talks relating to the Triennial, held in St. Louis, were given by Mrs. Hume, Mrs. Hunting, Mrs. Sargent, and Mrs. Lockton.

Miss Emery in her quiet way, spoke of the educational side of missions, which includes study classes, conferences and the Junior plan. Then of the privilege of giving of our money and prayers.

The Officers elected for the present year are:

President—Mrs. James P. Brayton, Grand Rapids.

First Vice-President—Mrs. Thomas Hume, Muskegon.

Second Vice-President—Miss Mary Torrance, Grand Haven.

Third Vice-President—Mrs. Edgar Hunting, Grand Rapids.

Fourth Vice-President—Mrs. Collins Johnston, Grand Rapids.

Fifth Vice-President—Mrs. F. B. Sullivan, Battle Creek.

Secretary of the Church Periodical Club—Mrs. Frances Hillyer, Grand Rapids.

Treasurer—Mrs. F. B. Eaglesfield, Niles.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss Cora Wilkes, Allegan.

Recording Secretary—Miss Bessie Newell, Kalamazoo.

A vote of thanks was extended to the ladies of Grace Church for their kind hospitality.

The President announced that Group Meetings would be held in the following places:

First Group—St. Mark's, Grand Rapids.

Second Group—St. Paul's, St. Joseph.

Third Group—St. Thomas', Battle Creek.

Mrs. Thomas Hume extended an invitation from Muskegon that the next Annual Meeting be held there. It was moved and seconded that the invitation be accepted.

A reception was given in the Parish House of Grace Church in the evening for the Bishop and Mrs. McCormick and Miss Emery.

Respectfully submitted,

BESSIE S. NEWELL,

Recording Secretary.

CORA H. WILKES, Corresponding Secretary.

Dear Auxiliary Women,

Your ed. secretary was fortunate in being a member of Miss Eva D. Corey's class at the Triennial, on Latin America. Miss Corey gave us new visions and a broader meaning, of Mission Study. One idea emphasized was that Mission Study is not only for the Women's Auxiliary, but for the whole church.

In connection with Mission Study I wish to speak of the value of the Summer conferences for all departments of the churches work and am hoping that many of our parishes will send representatives to Lake Geneva, our nearest place. This is perhaps the greatest means the church has of arousing interest and getting first hand information of our missionary fields and is a marvelous source of inspiration.

I asked through the Church Helper that all branches holding Study and Reading Classes report to me. Only one has answered—faithful, Petoskey. They have studied "The King's Highway," Mrs. Peterson—leader with an average attendance of eleven.

Grace Church held a class of Latin America with an average attendance of seven. St. Mark's, St. Philips, and St. Paul's of Grand Rapids have also studied Latin America.

All the messages and notices from Church Mission House have been duly forwarded to branches. I have received and sent out information concerning study classes and program material.

Our new church paper, the Witness, has had most valuable suggestions for my work. It would be helpful for every president to take this paper as well as our indispensable and interesting Spirit of Missions. Please use your influence to have a copy of Spirit of Missions in your City Library and also placed in the hospitals for the nurses.

The question of interesting the younger people has been solved in some of our branches by giving Missionary plays. "The Vision of St. Agnes" was given at Grace Church. Please use your influence to have one Sunday each month devoted to missions if there is not now such a plan in practice.

Our need in the Auxiliaries and outside is a deepening of prayer life. Perhaps these troublous times will bring this home to us.

Let us pray for more co-workers that they may desire to study the work of extending Christ's kingdom on earth and know that it is the highest privilege of Christian women to learn how to know God's work and then do it willingly and cheerfully.

Fourth Annual Report of the Junior Auxiliary

The fourth annual meeting of the Junior Auxiliary of Western Michigan was held at St. Mark's Pro-Cathedral, Grand Rapids, May 12th, 1917.

In the absence of Mrs. Bates from the Diocese, Mrs. W. J. Lockton presided. Twelve delegates and twenty-five guests responded to roll call.

Mrs. Lockton read a letter from Miss Lindley, expressing her appreciation of the work of the Juniors and urging them to greater Missionary zeal.

Minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved. The Treasurer reported having received $165.00; expended, $150.00; balance, $15.00, report accepted as read.

The Christmas gifts, prepared by the Juniors, (boys as well as girls) for St. John's School, Corbin, Ky., were received from several branches. Mrs. Brayton of Grand Rapids spoke to the Juniors about the Pilgrimage of Prayer, to be observed in Western Michigan, the week of May 20.

Mrs. Sullivan of Battle Creek spoke on the interest of the Little Helpers, as did also Mrs. Eaglesfield of Niles.

Bishop McCormick told of the work recently undertaken in Alaska, by the Rev. Edwin W. Hughes of Grand Rapids as a link connecting Western Michigan with the Missionary field.

Our new President, Miss Mary Torrence of Ackley Hall, Grand Haven spoke to the Juniors and ask for their cooperation with her in the coming year.

Rev. Vercoe conducted Noon-day Prayers.

A very appetizing luncheon was served in the Parish House, after which Miss Emery gave an interesting talk on the great need of spreading the light of the gospel.

The nominating committee presented the names of Miss Florence Platt, Grace Church, Grand Rapids, for Secretary and Mrs. McQuen of Petoskey for Treasurer.

It was moved and seconded that the rules be suspended and the Secretary be instructed to cast a unanimous vote for Secretary and Treasurer. The vote was so cast.

A little Chinese play entitled "A Choice of Evils" was very ably presented by the Juniors of St. Mark's Pro-Cathedral, and greatly enjoyed by all.

A vote of thanks was extended to the Juniors of St. Mark's for their cordial hospitality. Meeting adjourned.

JULIA F. BROWN, Secretary Pro-Tem.
