A Prayer for the Golden Anniversary of the Woman's Auxiliary in the Diocese of Western
New York

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. We lift up our hearts to Thee in thanksgiving and gratitude for the fifty years of life, growth and ministries of the Woman's Auxiliary in this Diocese. Help us to live in such fellowship with Thee that Thou canst work through us; grant us grace to share with others our blessings, and to pass on undimmed the torch of love and service which Thou hast kindled and committed to us. May this Golden Jubilee inspire in some young lives among us the offering of themselves to Thee for service in the Mission Field; and grant to us to have an increasing share in the establishment of Thy Kingdom among all men, for the sake of Thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

MRS. HARPER SIBLEY, Presiding

HYMN—No 422

“MEMORIES” — Presented by Mrs. S. Park Harmon and Mrs. Leonard M. Gard, representing (in costume) the years 1827 and 1881, respectively. Mrs. Harmon read a report of the first annual meeting of the first Missionary Society of St. Luke's Church, Rochester and Mrs. Gard read a report of an early meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church, Rochester when that organization was called upon to give up its President, Mrs. Isaac F. Quinby to become the President of the newly formed Diocesan Auxiliary. Mrs. Gard concluded with the list of names of fifty-year members present, and Mrs. Harmon presented each with a bouquet of flowers in the appropriate golden color.

MRS. SIBLEY:

I was reminded while these representatives of former days were speaking that so often, when in our enthusiasm in the past few years for all the things that have opened up - all the opportunities that have opened up to women during the last ten or fifteen years, or at the most, twenty years - I was reminded of what frequently I would say to Bishop Brent:

“Don't you think that women really accomplish more than they used to?”

And with that wise smile of his, which we all remember and love, he would look up and say:

“I know they are busier, but whether they accomplish more is a great question in my mind.”

Now I wish we might think that the new era on which we are entering today, having finished our first fifty years and beginning our second fifty years, would mean that the Woman's Auxiliary stands primarily, not for quantity of activity, not for number of meetings attended or number of committees organized, but for that unique contribution which we of the Church have to make -- a quality of life.

Secular organizations have taken over many things in which the church pioneered - hospitals, different types of education, universities (it seems strange to us to think that Columbia University still has to have compulsory chapel in order to keep its charter). So many things now taken over by secular organizations still need, perhaps more than ever before, the thing which we stand for as church members - so called followers of Christ, and members of the Woman's Auxiliary -- that quality of living which should be emphasized as never before.

More than one person left the service this morning with eyes full of tears, and as one came to that great part of our service -- “And we offer and present unto Thee, Oh Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies” - one had a vision of what it might mean if this group gathered here today could really mean that thing which we say or hear said and say “Amen” to, again and again. And when we say “our bodies and souls” we should really mean a whole life, all that goes into the making of our lives, all that we have been or hope to be.

In choosing the person who is to lead us this afternoon in our service of rededication, we have been conscious, of course, of the memory of our great Bishop, Bishop Brent, which is always with us. It is with us as more than a memory, because his glorious life is one of the great heritages of this diocese.

When Miss Brent was chosen, although she represents to us more than anyone else that memory and spirit, she was chosen primarily on her own account, because of the quality of the dedication of her own life. Therefore, Miss Brent will now lead us in our service of rededication.

REDEDICATION

Miss Hellen C. C. Brent

From the moment I was asked to lead in this service of rededication, these words which Mrs. Sibley has repeated to you twice already have been in my ears. We use them, or we follow them, most of us, every week, and yet it does take occasions like this to make us stop a moment and ask ourselves, "Are we living life for all it is worth?"

And so, today, in this service of rededication, we are going to have a vision of that quality of life to which Mrs. Sibley referred.

To enter upon this act which will commit us to a more definite and a more intense witnessing for Christ, we must first turn towards the past. Someone nearing the close of his earthly life, speaks of the "Togetherness" of time. And so before pledging ourselves for the future let us take count of the past, realizing that the present is but a transition point between the two.

But in remembering there are two things to avoid, -- remorse which does not grow into purposeful repentance, and idealizing the past to such an extent that it paralyses growth in the future.

Our past gives us a real heritage in the courage and leadership and achievement of those, who, though unseen with mortal eye, still company with us and beckon us on to the possession of the reality, the truth, the beauty, the goodness of God.

With these thoughts may we kneel and

First—Send up to our Father a petition asking forgiveness for past weaknesses, fear of failure, lack of faith. Let us place these things in God's hands, fearlessly, completely.

"Eternal Father, who alone canst control the days that are gone and the deeds that are done, remove from our burdened memory the weight of past years, that, being set free both from the glamour of complacency, and the palsy of remorse, we may reach forward unto those things which are before and press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.
Amen"

And so with full assurance that pardon is ours we sing a song of thanksgiving for the richness of our past which is to be a reconstructing power for our future.

"O Lord and Father of mankind, who makest life lovely with friendship, we thank Thee for the affection, the loyalty and the goodness of all those our comrades who have striven to bring Thy kingdom to them who are far off and to them who are near. Help us to make this heritage an added power in our own lives. Keep us single-minded, fearless as becomes the children of God. And make us all more ready to follow blithely where-soever Christ may lead, to Thy honor, and the benefit of our fellow men, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord." Amen.

And now facing the future with honest courage let us realize that it means untold opportunity for each one of us as individuals and in our corporate work:—

Opportunity for more generous giving of our time and our money

Opportunity for more sympathetic understanding of the needs and problems of others

Opportunity for a greater spirit of adventure

Opportunity for more perserving prayer

Opportunity for a more complete surrender of ourselves to God's vision for His world.

Let us say together a prayer which is composed of two prayers which I found in notebooks belonging to my brother, prayers which he had never printed but which he had written as he felt the need himself; and I have combined them today that we may use them in rededicating our lives to those high values for the next fifty years in the work to which we are pledged.

O Lord Jesus Christ, we offer Thee ourselves and all that we are and all that we have. We beseech Thee to turn our ignorance into knowledge, our weakness into strength. Give us patience and love. Come Thou and rule in our hearts by Thy sacred presence. Make us to depart from sin and to desire to be wholly Thine. In all our undertakings grant that Thy Holy Spirit may not be withheld from us. Give us the will to do and the power to serve. Reveal to us day by day the path of eternal life, that with settled purpose and single mind we may pursue an unfaltering course, and so promote Thy glory and the coming of Thy kingdom among men.

All of which we ask in Thy Name. Amen

MRS. SIBLEY:

As we face together what rededication means, we are very thankful that she who is to lead us in this diocese during the beginning of our new fifty years is the one who has been our Diocesan President during the past year. It is not necessary that I should introduce to you Mrs. Dyett, because she is your Diocesan President, but one can only express the thankfulness we all feel, particularly after hearing that challenging report that she read us yesterday, in the knowledge of the inspiration that her leadership will mean during the coming year. Mrs. Dyett is now to give us the honor roll.

HONOR ROLL OF FIFTY YEAR MEMBERS

Mrs. Dyett

A little boy once said to his mother, "Mother, I think God's favorite color is yellow, because he made so many flowers yellow, and most every flower a little yellow, and his sunshine is all yellow!"

I think we could take that to remember for our golden anniversary, - God's favorite color. I am sure that little boy was right.

What a joy it has been that we have had with us these golden anniversary members! There are thirteen here. And I still have to read you the roll of all the golden anniversary members. Some of them could not come, and I hope we are all going to have their names in our prayers and thankfulness in our hearts for their continued service. What an inspiration it is to us to not grow tired in well doing!

There are fifty-four fifty year members of faithful and continued service.

Mrs. Boynton, who is our Provincial Representative, has sent us greetings, Mrs. Phelps, from Newark, New Jersey did likewise.

From the Diocese of Long Island, Bishop Stires sends us his greetings.

From the Diocese of Albany, Miss Sara Tibbets sends us her congratulations and is sorry she cannot be with us.

Miss Lindley, who we had hoped could be with us today, sends greetings.

Mrs. Sibley brings us greetings from the National Executive Board.

MRS. SIBLEY:

The Executive Board, meeting in New York last week, wanted to say so much to this golden anniversary that they couldn't put it all into a resolution. Each one had something to add. So I am bringing to you their very best wishes, their congratulations on the past, and their deep hope and prayers for the future. Even the Presiding Bishop at the meeting of the National Council asked if I would take from him the greetings from the Presiding Bishop and the National Council to this meeting. It was also his deep regret that he could not be with us. He kept the invitation open nearly three weeks, hoping he could come. His best wishes and prayers are with us.

MRS. SIBLEY:

One feels very presumptuous to introduce the next speaker, because you belong to her and she belongs to you over so much longer a period of time than any of us young persons. Mrs. Nicholas has belonged to you for fifty years. She was your President for twenty-one years. If we needed any challenge in duration of service, Mrs. Nicholas, who is now going to speak to us on the past fifty years of reminiscences, would give us that challenge.

One might also say that service in the Woman's Auxiliary seems to be a recipe for keeping young.

REMINISCENCES

Mrs. P. N. Nicholas

I have been thinking much about the privileges of taking part in two celebrations, that twenty-fifth anniversary we had together and now we have the fiftieth. It seems to me a very rare privilege to be connected with the Auxiliary for so long. I have been thinking that all these fifty-year members have the same golden memories and the same privilege of attending both anniversaries. Certainly this is a wonderful fiftieth anniversary.

I should like to take you back with me just for a single year among those fifty years. It is the year of the Triennial meeting in San Francisco in 1901. That was the end of my first year as President of the Auxiliary. To me, going out there to California under those circumstances was a very wonderful experience.

There were two things that happened that I would like to call your attention to. One of them is historical, and from the other we may draw a lesson.

The historical fact is that in the spring or early summer of that year, 1901, Miss Emory wrote all the presidents, asking them if they would secure some kind of a picture of all the earliest churches in their own diocese. I should say from memory that I took twenty-four or twenty-five pictures. Some of them were very simple pictures, snapshots perhaps, of the early parishes.

The plan for the use of those pictures was that a set of them was to be given to California. They were talking about forming a church museum or something of that kind, where historical facts could be amassed and taught. Another set was taken to the Church Mission House.

The set, which was taken to the Church Mission House, was kept there, and some of the pictures, on recent inquiry I have been told were framed and hung on the walls. What has become of the others I do not know.

That is the historical fact that I wanted to speak about.

The other subject, from which we may draw a lesson, was the formation of a committee at that meeting to decide what should be done with the next Thank Offering. There was a very strong committee, made up of people of deep convictions. Some of them would have liked to give the money to the Board of Missions. We held many consultations. One of the ladies hoped we might take care of our stricken missionaries. That was the beginning of that use of part of our money.

I should like to say to you that in looking back thirty years on the work of that committee, I am not quite satisfied in my own mind that our decision was wise. I have thought sometimes that it might have shown a more noble generosity. That is the way it seems to me.

You are going to be shown in what way we have risen to a noble height. I would like to say to you that the things which are noble and good are always to be worked for. Although I have been proud of what has been done, I feel that everything might be better. All these things are good, but might be better. I think that you will find that we have developed in just that way, from what is good to what is better. We have been going toward nobler things, greater heights in the way in which we have followed our Leader. Things may always be better, but they will never come to the best.

MRS. SIBLEY:

It is very difficult to preside at a meeting when each speaker seems to be the climax and when one should sing the Doxology or a hymn and go home. I think we felt that way when Miss Brent was speaking. We certainly feel it now.

Unlike others, Mrs. Nicholas is not leaving us with any satisfaction for the past. She gives us two words to remember. The reason she was chosen to head that committee was because she was without prejudice. The other is that the good can always be better.

The only time when Bishop Anderson spoke to the Executive Board when he was Presiding Bishop, he said that whereas the Auxiliary always stood for progress, he hoped we would make progress even more progressive. Mrs. Nicholas has said the same thing, and stands as a living example before us at this time.

We have another great cause for thankfulness. I suppose every great movement has two reasons for growth - the challenge of the idea and the personalities that have gone into it.

The next speaker is herself a great cause for thankfulness, and no one who has been interested in or has even touched the fringes of the United Thank-Offering in this diocese needs any introduction to Miss Elizabeth Lawrence, who is going to speak on the United Thank Offering.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

Elizabeth A. Lawrence.

There are only two reasons which might justify my being honoured with a place on this program - one that my memory goes back clearly for fifty years, the other that I honestly believe no one loves the United Thank Offering better than I do. Still I feel it is a pity that everyone taking part in this Golden Anniversary should not be chosen from those whose grandchildren might be proud to see their names on the program when they are celebrating the hundredth anniversary!

I was out of school all of the year 1881 because of illness and often was allowed to go with my mother to an Auxiliary meeting. Do you suppose any fourteen year old girl of today would consider that a treat? Well, being queer I did! When I came into the American Church there was nothing the women did which appealed to me as strongly as the United Thank Offering, and I have never changed my mind. And so when you made me its custodian you had no conception of the joy it gave me to handle those 'Holy offerings, rich and rare' which you entrusted to me. Presenting one triennial offering in Portland in 1922 marked a great day of privilege in my life, for which I shall always thank God and you women. The list of diocesan custodians includes these seven:

|----------------------------|--------------|-------------|
| Mrs. Theodore White | Rochester | 1901 - 1908 |
| Mrs. William L. Davis | Rochester | 1909 - 1912 |
| Mrs. Herbert P. Woodward | Batavia | 1912 - 1917 |
| Miss Elizabeth A. Lawrence | Buffalo | 1918 - 1924 |
| Mrs. C. A. Champlin | Hammondsport | 1924 - 1925 |
| Mrs. Martin Schang | East Aurora | 1925 - 1927 |
| Mrs. E. C. Way | Rochester | 1927 - |

As the early years of any undertaking are the hardest we think of the first two treasurers with peculiar gratitude. Mrs. Potter mentioned the other day, how graciously Mrs. White befriended her at the first triennial meeting she ever attended, and what a world of difference it made to the one new to everything and among strangers. "So shines a good deed in a naughty world." The reports of Mrs. Davis are permeated with devotion and a sense of the beauty and significance of the Offering. If the saints know what we poor struggling sinners are doing we may be sure that these two are to-day rejoicing over this particular milestone in our journey toward our Paradise.

While the increase in amount of money, as the years roll by, is by no means the whole story, the growth as shown by the triennial offerings is a heartening indication of its place in our women's hearts. The gifts from Western New York are as follows:

|------|-----------|
| 1895 | $1664.96 |
| 1898 | 2172.15 |
| 1901 | 2682.25 |
| 1904 | 4378.60 |
| 1907 | 6353.14 |
| 1910 | 6103.36 |
| 1913 | 7026.85 |
| 1916 | 8161.73 |
| 1919 | 10478.61 |
| 1922 | 17000.00 |
| 1925 | 27207.00 |

May the next fifty years show greater growth and purer devotion. Meantime we may well make a special thank offering for God's blessing on what we have done, mainly for the work of the founders, and for giving us our present consecrated custodian to carry on the tradition and inspire us to do greater things. By this we do not mean alone or mainly that we hope the offering which Mrs. Way will carry to Denver may be larger in amount, but we do mean that it may be more worthy in its impulse and its essence. How surprised the giver of the widow's mite would be to know she would go down the centuries as the one who 'cast in more than they all!' Many a loving follower of the Master in our diocese has made what the 'prudent' would call a reckless gift in her blue box because her heart was overflowing. Year by year may we come closer to the ideal by always consecrating our gift with a prayer, and by every woman being an intercessor for more workers. And may our offerings be always JOYOUS!

One muses over the range of blessings for which our offerings have been made during all these years--even those of one woman. Many must have made a joyful gift when her engagement or marriage consummated 'love's young dream'; and then when her babies came, and to some dear grandchildren. Here and there is one with the sublime trust that has enabled her to make a thank offering when a great gift has been withdrawn, believing that the Heavenly Father does not willingly afflict or grieve the children of men. How this spirit transcends that of dreary resignation! For some of us the end of the Great War called forth our deepest thankfulness. Nightly during those four hideous years I prayed for five boys in action, two my Scotch cousins and the other three each the only son of an intimate friend in Canada. How could any one make any sort of proper thank offering when in 1918 all five came home? All had been wounded, one imprisoned for 22 months, several decorated, but all that was as nothing. THEY WERE ALIVE and returned to their parents! Now I am afraid I sometimes forget to pray as I ought that they may fulfil the purpose in this life for which they seem to me to have been miraculously spared through all that carnage.

Two things we like to record as enhancing the United Thank Offering since it was begun. Instead of being made only by members of the Woman's Auxiliary it is now the privilege of every woman and girl in the Church to have her share. And in our diocese we have set apart a certain day in each year when the Offering is brought and blessed upon the Altar before it is sent to the Treasurer.

Many outstanding priests of the Church of England have sprung from the ancient house of Courtenay--the Earls of Devon. In the 14th century William Courtenay was the Archbishop of Canterbury, and he had the courage and piety to rebuke a worldly king and court. The present Earl is a priest of the Church and his heir is the vicar of a tiny parish in Devonshire. I am closing with the self-indited epitaph of Peter Courtenay, a distinguished Bishop of Exeter. Let us ponder it and decide if we can subscribe to its truth.

"What I spent, that I had.
What I kept, that I lost.
What I gave, that I have."

MRS. SIBLEY:

When I thought about what one could say about our next speaker, I thought, if one really believes enthusiasm is youthful, how can one say anything appropriate about fifty years? But I found from Mrs. Cooper that she really was eligible; she was taken to her first Auxiliary meeting at the age of four. So I think she is eligible to speak to us on our fifty years.

Mrs. Cooper from Geneseo, whom we all know and love.

OUR FIFTY YEARS

Sophia S. Denness Cooper

June 1, 1881, fifty years ago, in St. Luke's Church, Rochester, our Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was founded, ten years after the National Organization.

At this meeting in St. Luke's, eighteen Parishes were represented, namely: St. Paul's, Buffalo; St. Luke's, St. Paul's, Trinity, Christ, St. Andrew's, Good Shepherd, Epiphany, St. James, Rochester; St. Michael's, Geneseo; St. Mark's, Penn Yan; Christ Church, Corning; Trinity, Geneva; St. John's, Sodus; St. Luke's, Sodus Center; St. James, Batavia; St. Luke's, Brockport and Christ Church, Pittsford.

As we look over the years and consider our growth it will be clearer and more interesting to classify our data under several heads: General History, Box Work, Finance, Devotional Life, and Education.

GENERAL HISTORY

Since our organization we have had six presidents, Mrs. T. F. Quinby, Rochester, Mrs. Lloyd Windsor, Hornell, Mrs. W. L. Halsey, Rochester, Mrs. P. N. Nicholas, Geneva, who assumed office in 1900 and is still our beloved honorary president; Mrs. Kingman N. Robins, and our present president, Mrs. James Dyett of Buffalo.

From two officers, president and secretary-treasurer, we have grown to twelve.

In 1884, the Diocese was divided into four districts in order to facilitate work.

In 1887, our Junior work was started in Batavia by Miss Mary E. Hart, under the name of "Children's Work" and one person was appointed in each district to encourage work among Juniors.

In 1891, the "Babies' Branch" was launched by Miss Hart in Rochester. In this year the Auxiliary arranged to have at least a column in the existing Diocesan paper, "Our Church Work".

In 1894, the printing of the names of Parish delegates in the Manual or Year Book was discontinued, and the names of Parish officers given instead.

The Church Periodical Club began to be mentioned at this time.

1902 saw the first official joint meeting of Women, Juniors, and Babies divisions, at the home of Miss Hart in Rochester.

The office of Third Vice President was created in 1905, and filled by Mrs. William D. Walker, the wife of our Bishop.

In this year a Spirit of Missions Secretary was appointed. Western New York originating this system which has since spread all over the country. The first Diocesan Officers' Conference was held in this year also.

This brings us to the end of our first twenty-five years. It was celebrated in St. Luke's Church, Rochester. At that time, Miss Susan B. Mather, our first secretary-treasurer compiled and read our History which will be found in the Manual of that date, and in much fuller form than it is possible to give here. One cannot stop to mention any more names or events of this interesting period, everything is in the records. We find steady growth and a constant procession of consecrated women, with a growing earnestness and increasing vision. They truly sowed that we might reap.

In 1906, the present division of the Diocese into six districts was made, with a Secretary and Box Directress for each.

In 1911, at the annual meeting, the first afternoon was called "Junior Day" and devoted to the discussion of Junior work. In those days we were much interested in, and very proud of our Juniors. We felt we were building for the future and many of our finest workers now, were Juniors at that time.

In 1912, the words "Juniors", and "The Babies' Branch" were added to the cover of the Manual.

Now we notice the beginning of a larger outlook. A member of the Woman's Auxiliary was appointed to represent the Woman's Auxiliary at the meeting of the Second Missionary Department, without a vote. Under the new policy of the church our work was recognized and given place in its plans.

During this year in Batavia was celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of our Junior Work.

To this Diocese goes the honor of being the first with organized Junior Work.

By this time the need of new blood began to be felt. The gap between Juniors and Women was too great, so steps were taken to interest young women in the Woman's Auxiliary and Mrs. Allen I. Holloway of Buffalo was put in charge of this work.

This Young Woman's group was called Section 3 or Intermediate. A report of Junior Work was at this time briefly incorporated in the official minutes of the Auxiliary.

Thirty young women's branches were started, most of which now flourish as regular older branches.

I think this work so ably started by Mrs. Holloway and carried on by Miss Lucy G. Arnold of Geneseo, did more for our present strength than anything else of which I find a record.

In 1913, the name Little Helpers was officially adopted in place of "Babies' Branch" and began to be considered a separate unit, not included in the Juniors.

Work among the isolated was started by Mrs. Harvey Burkhart of Batavia in 1914.

In order to maintain our close interest in the Junior Department the heads of the Little Helpers, Juniors and Intermediates were appointed Vice Presidents. Second Vice President, Miss Arnold, Section 3. Fourth Vice President, Miss Carrie Sanders, Juniors, and Fifth Vice President, Miss Mary Hart, Little Helpers. It seems that we were far ahead of other Dioceses in our work with Intermediates or Young Women at that time.

During the period of the War our work did not slacken and from the economy and efficiency demanded of us we learned many things.

In 1917, Provincial Organization was approved and the appointment of delegates to the Provincial Synod became part of our regular business. These years of general unrest and anxiety of war time nevertheless showed increase and growth. Cooperation with other organizations was first mentioned about this time.

In 1918, owing to the influenza epidemic ,and a strike on the trolley lines, the annual meeting was postponed for several months. Then also this year our beloved Mary Hart entered into Paradise and strangely enough this was the year when the fruit of her labors, the Junior Auxiliary and Little Helpers ceased to function under these names and became identified with the Church School Service League and no longer reported through the Woman's Auxiliary.

In 1919, the Semi-Annual Meeting at Brockport, the first appearance of our beloved Bishop Brent was the outstanding feature. I remember perfectly the terrific heat at that time. It was at this meeting that we were asked to present a report from the Woman's Auxiliary to the Provincial Synod, which report was read by our president, Mrs. Nicholas.

First mention of The Church Service League appears and we find the formation of a Diocesan Council of the League with representation from the Auxiliary.

At this time we come to the end of Mrs. Nicholas' long term of office as president and her transference to that of Honorary President. No one reading the record of the years when she was president could fail to notice what her leadership meant, not only to our own Diocese but also to the church at large. Her fairmindedness, vision, keen intelligence and unusual tact laid sure foundations upon which we rest securely in these troubled times. Her successor was Mrs. Kingman N. Robbins, now Mrs. Stebbins.

1921 reports show many forward steps such as the appointment of Miss Elizabeth Lawrence as Field Secretary for the Church Service League; the election of Mrs. Robbins, Mrs. Nicholas and Mrs. Cooper as representatives on the Diocesan Council of the League and the election of Mrs. Potter to the Provincial League.

1922-25 covers an important period. There was much discussion regarding the status of the Woman's Auxiliary which resulted in the revision of the Constitution and fomation of our Executive Board to transact business between sessions. We ceased to be exclusively a Missionary organization and as Auxiliary to the New National Council, included Social Service and Religious Education, as part of our work.

The post-war years seemed filled with inspiration and steady growth. In spite of the uncertainty and difficulties connected with our ventures, our bonds of union seemed to grow stronger.

The time of the annual meeting was changed to January as an experiment and soon after to late in the Spring. The election of Mrs. Stebbins to the National Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary took place, a signal honor for Western New York and ever since, our Diocese has been represented on that Board. After many years' consideration, rotation in office became an established fact. Other Church organizations were represented on our Diocesan Board. Each one of our Vice Presidents became responsible for a definite part of the work, viz. Devotional Life, Business Woman's and Evening Branches, Isolated Women and at a later period Foreign Born, Recruiting, Social Service and Closer Association with Missionaries in the Field. New triplicate report blanks were used and substitution of Spring and Fall District meetings instead of the Semi Annual. The Book of Remembrance was given by Mrs. F. K. Knowlton in memory of her mother. The Olean District was incorporated with the Buffalo and Bath Districts.

These later years have seen many changes. The failure of the Church Service League to win National recognition and our consequent abandonment of organization while continuing its principles. The tremendous change in the personnel of our Diocesan officers brought about by rotation in office, and the consequent increase of interest and inflow of new ideas and new leaders. The honor which has come to Western New York through its connection with the National Executive Board in the person of Mrs. Stebbins and Mrs. Harper Sibley as not only members, but chairmen of that Board. Miss Brent as representative of the G. F. S. also, making three. Mrs. Stebbins has also been Provincial President and Mrs. Sibley the only representative from our Church at the Jerusalem Conference. It is impossible to mention the many names of those who have contributed through the years to the success of our work. These may be found in the records and all honor and praise be to them.

BOX WORK

In the beginning almost everything was Box Work which was supervised entirely by our small staff of two to four officers. In 1896 at an annual meeting, the Comfort Club was started in Geneseo, and we find nothing else of note until we come in 1901, across an exhibit of the "Ideal Missionary Box". Gradually about 1905 emphasis on Box Work began to change. This was due to many things. Increase in the salaries of Missionaries, better facilities for purchasing through the Mail Order houses, the advent of ready made clothing, increase in freight rates, and many other things. In 1906 Box directresses were appointed in the Districts. 1909 saw the stopping of valuation of second hand clothing. In 1914 the valuation of Boxes was standardized and with many ups and downs along this line we have now a standard of values. Fewer family boxes and clerical suits are sent.

After the war we find a great change, the work became far too much for the Corresponding Secretary to handle, and a Secretary of Supplies, Mrs. Pollard of Buffalo, was appointed. Even this was not enough, so the Bureau of Supplies in the Diocesan House, Buffalo, was started with a paid worker. The Comfort Club came to an end. In 1927 we find a Supply Fund. The key note became "increased efficiency".

Our war work taught us the advantages of wholesale buying and distribution from the nearest point from which the demand came. We are now the distributing center through our Supply Secretary of all Box work undertaken by the Diocese, the G. F. S. gets its work through us.

Only those who have done the work in its irritating detail know the self sacrifice and devotion of those who in the past brought things to a place where Mrs. Dyett with her practical mind, could make our last step forward, possible.

FINANCIAL GROWTH

We started with a Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Mather, and our total gifts for the first year, both money and Box Work, was $3800.

In the year 1883 a Treasurer was appointed and so great has become the work in connection with the office that this year we are asking for an assistant.

In 1883 a special fund was started to fill special needs and this lasted until superceded by other plans.

The Pledge system came into operation in 1889, the first one being made by Trinity, Buffalo. By 1909 the Apportionment Plan was under way.

1911-15 we stopped reporting money that did not pass through the hands of the Treasurer and detailed information regarding the disposal of Parish money also stopped. The Treasurer's report appeared in printed form at the annual meeting.

1915-25 seems to be a period of large money gifts which we all remember. Some of these were the assumption of part of the Diocesan apportionment, the War Emergency fund which in spite of every adverse happening went over the top; the Emery Fund; the Bishop Tuttle Memorial Fund; the Mary Hart Memorial Fund; Hooker School; the Gold and Silver offering for Japan, and the Corporate Gift; the setting apart of $50.00 each year to pay the expenses of the delegates to the Triennial and now our latest contribution to the Advance Work.

Some years have been greater than others but none have fallen back. All the time greater efficiency. The work of our Treasurers has been difficult and many are the compliments paid to them by auditors and financiers. Our Golden Offering is finished. From $3800 in 1881 to over $44,000 in 1931. If money is "consecrated personality", we have indeed something for which to be thankful.

THE DEVOTIONAL LIFE

We have always had opening and closing prayers, and a Celebration of the Holy Communion, and Missionary Service on the first evening of spiritually, beyond this was in 1883 when Noonday Prayer for Missions began.

In 1908 the Women's Auxiliary prayer was adopted.

In 1910 we find the Prayer League first mentioned.

In 1913 Prayers were printed in the Manual, and Ascension Day was chosen as a day of united prayer for Missions.

In 1916 the first Sunday in Advent was chosen as the day for Corporate Communion.

In 1917 "The Advent Call", a plan to deepen the spiritual life by sending Messenger trained at special classes, to help to awaken interest in the Parishes. In spite of influenza, strikes and war it met with great success.

In 1921 a Diocesan Devotional Committee was formed with Miss Lucy Arnold of Geneseo as chairman. Institutes and Conferences were held and we cooperated in the Interdenominational Day of Prayer for Missions and still do so.

In 1925 one of the vice presidents was appointed to take charge of the Devotional Life. The Prayer Partner Plan resulted and the appointment of District and Parish committees or chairmen in charge of this work was the next step. About this time also our annual meetings closed with a Meditation and Prayers.

The leaflet on Devotional Life published by the National Office was contributed by this Diocese as a result of the work we accomplished.

The Executive Board formed itself into a Prayer group and a definite effort was made towards personal consecration.

In 1926 we had the "Message" with its Call to Prayer, its Day of Intercession and Re-dedication, and in 1927 our Educational Courses were on the Bible and "The Church Awake".

The Executive Board included a celebration of the Holy Communion and Meditation as part of its regular routine. In almost every parish there is a Devotional Committee and many of the members take active part.

Next came the day of Intercession during the Triennial.

Each year finds us realizing more deeply the need of a personal example before we can hope to influence others.

EDUCATION

Since its earliest days the Auxiliary has stood for Education. Leaflets, speakers, and programs of course, but the first definite mention of any special effort being made in this direction comes with the mention of a gift of $3.50 from Christ Church, Rochester to an Educational Fund in 1888. I can find no further mention of it.

There is mention of A. B. C. classes held by Miss Hart.

In 1895 Mrs. Nelson reports a Study Class in Geneva and there were united classes made up from the different parishes held for many years in Buffalo and Rochester.

We have record also of many speakers, teas and papers read.

In 1901 Mrs. Thomas B. Berry was appointed "Mission Study Secretary", changed afterwards to "Educational Secretary" and she reports ten places outside of Buffalo and Rochester doing Mission Study. Now we have an Educational Secretary and Educational work of some kind in almost every Parish.

This department has sponsored the completion of a file of "The Spirit of Missions".

As the years pass we see a great change taking place. We indeed "look up from our needles and off to wider horizons".

In 1913 we led the Nation in our number of classes. By 1915 we had Conferences of Educational leaders at our annual meetings and participation in the classes of the Geneva Summer School. Normal classes were frequently held and increased interest on every hand.

In 1920 we cooperated with the Diocesan Department of Religious Education in their program and later had a representative in that department.

By 1925 we had Educational Secretaries in the districts, regular Normal Classes or Intensive Days twice a year at the chief centers when both method and content were taught.

Since Mrs. Berry's resignation in 1919, Mrs. Kingman Robbins, afterwards Mrs. Stebbins of Rochester, Mrs. Pierson of Newark and Mrs. Cooper of Geneseo have each contributed to the success of this work.

We have cooperated with the committee on Adult Education and our classes have been thrown open to those leaders of other organizations who wish to come.

We have had our Educational leaders conducting classes at the General Conventions, at Summer Schools and National gatherings of leaders.

This perhaps is the Department that requires more special training than the others, and the most difficult in which to maintain a high standard on account of the constant change in Educational methods and the distaste on the part of many to read and think. We must "know to grow" so let us with increased knowledge hope our work in the future will go far beyond our really fine achievements of the past.

I wish you could all have had the privilege of searching the records with me, harmony, devotion, self sacrifice, nothing to show petty jealousies or rivalry but a record of really Christian women trying to obey the Master's command "Go Ye". A real illustration of what a Bishop said of us in the very early days and quoted by Bishop Coxe, "My Diocese has never been so harmonious as since the establishment in it of the Woman's Auxiliary". And so we bring to a close the record of Our Fifty Years with the words of Bishop Brent at his first appearance after his long illness in 1928 and his last with us in this world, "I like to think the Woman's Auxiliary stands for the very best. The very best is at the Altar when the Christ comes down to meet us even as we corporately rise up to meet Him." With these words ringing in our ears let us prepare for the challenge of the future.

"Forward be our watch-word
Steps and voices joined,
Seek the things before us
Not a look behind.
Weak are earthly praises
Dull the songs of night
Forward into triumphs
Forward into light."

MRS. SIBLEY:

Another cause of thankfulness is our intimate connection with the Mother Church and the Canadian Church. We are thankful that three thousand miles of frontier has been unguarded and unprotected all these years, showing that nations can live together peaceably.

One of our neighbors has come to us from Canada, from a near part, and you know it is said that near neighbors find it hard to get along, but we disagree.

Mrs. Dudley Smith, President of the Woman's Auxiliary, Diocese of Niagara, coming with greetings from our Canadian neighbors.

Bishop Ferris: Madam President: Mrs. Sibley: Ladies of the Woman's Auxiliary:

It is with great pleasure that I speak to you today, and bring the sincere good wishes and greetings from the Woman's Auxiliary of the Niagara Diocese to you, the members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Western New York.

We of those two Dioceses are very near neighbors, and the Peace bridge, so recently constructed, symbolizes our feelings for one another. The miles of unprotected border between our countries are an example to the world of how two nations can live and work side by side in harmony.

The Church with her high ideals and aims should prove a great factor in spreading love and fellowship and bind us together as no other power could; and our Church needs us women today--needs us as possibly she has never done before.

Fine and delicate and manifold and much entangled are the tissues of life which surround us, but in the midst of them all, like a rock, stands our Church, calling those who are without to come within and we are her messengers, to extend to the far away places the hope and blessing that goes with our religion. That religion which possesses the magic of being as easily understood by the most illiterate man, woman or little child as by the most polished scholars.

Your great country has produced many distinguished men but possibly none greater than have been nourished in the Episcopal Church.

Bishop Brooks is a name known in every land of the English speaking world. It was my good fortune to be a parishioner of his for two years and to hear many of his most famous sermons as they fell from his lips for the first time. Although only a school girl, I realized I was in the presence of genius of a very high order.

Also your own beloved Bishop Brent, so widely known, so deeply loved, and so greatly missed. We are happy to think that he was born in Canada.

No one can watch our work in the Woman's Auxiliary without realizing that our hearts and souls are in this work and as our member's prayer says, "Grant that we may never be discouraged under difficulties, but go forward in faith and hope looking unto Thee". And at last when the gates of the next world are opened to receive us, there will be no fear in our hearts, the transition will be so simple, as we pass from our work here to our work beyond, and may we each go leaving this world better because we have lived.

Mary L. Dudley Smith.

MRS. SIBLEY:

Now the last message of this part of the meeting is to be given by one whose great leadership and real statesmanship in planning the policies and the forward-looking vision of the Woman's Auxiliary, both diocesan and national, during the past years, have made her one of the very outstanding women of our church. I speak of Mrs. Stebbins, so well-known and highly considered all over America.

THE CHALLENGE OF THE FUTURE

Mrs. Edwin Allen Stebbins

We have been considering yesterday and today our Auxiliary life of the last fifty years. We have been surprised at the number of fifty year member, members who can recall today each event and detail of the past. Some of us are quite young and are hearing for the first time a history of inspiring growth and achievement.

I am sure that as we have listened to the various speakers this afternoon and have thought back into the Past we have been impressed, first of all, with the challenge of the leadership of our Bishops, of Bishop Coxe, Bishop Walker, and Bishop Brent; of our presidents who have been mentioned by Mrs. Cooper today, and of Miss Mary Hart and countless others whose lives and service of courage and faith will continue to live with us as long as we are making history in this Diocese.

We have been impressed also with the record of growth in devotional life, educational work, and giving, and in the widening conception of our work as a whole, from that of an Auxiliary to the Board of Missions to that of an Auxiliary to the National Council in all its departments.

As you listened to Mrs. Sibley and others yesterday, you were conscious with me, I know, of the challenge of the Present. We have already spoken of the special opportunities of women today, different perhaps from those of yesterday, but important privileges and responsibilities which challenge us to service of the highest order.

Serious world problems and conditions challenge us on every side. There is nationalism, showing itself insistently in many countries. There is communism which, as the Bishop of Washington has said, is casting its shadow over America. There is the challenge of secular civilization and rationalistic thought, of international relations and here in America, of many races and many people. Even nearer, there is the challenge of our family and economic life and conditions.

The Church also is facing problems at home and abroad. I will mention briefly but two; the first, that of church unity, which Bishop Brent cared so much about, of vital importance to the present and future life of the Church. South India today in its scheme for re-union is attempting to solve that problem as we have not yet dared to do in America. The second is the new religious thinking that is coming to us today through books, magazine articles, over the radio, coming to us from the young people, from our own children, when we do not know how to answer their questions. They seem to be able to out-argue us, to out-think us and often to out-live us. "What is needed for most of us," - according to the Lambeth Encyclical of 1931 -- "is nothing less than a new vision of God. A vision so wide that we can see all things, even the universe itself, in relation to Him, and so strong that He is never obscured by the complexities of other interests or the contrast of things temporal and things spiritual." "We live in an age when it is possible to gain a more worthy idea of God than in any preceding age of the world's history. This is true because of the light that comes from other religions all over the world, from the amazing advance of scientific knowledge and from the investigations by which we realize the conditions of our Lord's life on earth more vividly." It is a challenge to all our powers of thought and imagination.

How can we in Western New York try to meet some of these pressing problems upon the solution of which the future depends?

Let us place first, now as in the past, the missionary motive and ideal, thinking of others first, -- other nations before America, other races before the white race, other parishes before our parish, other people before ourselves.

In the second place, let us lay hold of the principles of growth for all departments of our work and for ourselves personally. The Quota idea has become almost a handicap to us for it has given us often a fixed ideal of what we need to give, even of what we need to be, regardless of needs and conditions, setting limits to our giving, service and personality.

In the third place, we should think in terms of all the women of the parish and not just the members of the Auxiliary. In planning our programs, in work, in prayer, in giving, and education, we must think of every woman, young and old, those in business, teachers, those who are shut in, those who are not active as well as those who are.

In the fourth place, we need always to remember that no matter how much we love the Woman's Auxiliary our organization is a means to an end and not an end in itself. Therefore we need to keep our organization flexible and sensitive to new thought, to the opportunities that come, in order that we may do the real and vital thing and not just the routine thing. One of the glories of the past has been that we have not been bound by any set forms.

May I speak of a recent experience which brought vividly to my mind the challenge of the future for every Christian man and woman? I went to the Metropolitan Opera House in New York two weeks ago to hear some modern music - Stravinsky's Oedipus Rex and Prokofieff's Le Pas d'Acier. While the ballet was criticised musically, it was filled with significance for me. Le Pas d'Acier means the Age of Steel, or machine age. When the curtain was raised to the sound of very modern music, you saw at the back of the stage, high up, a group of people representing human machines, people who used to work and earn their living by the actual sweat of the brow. They were stripped to the waist, the women with long hair flowing. Someone was beating them with a whip to keep them going. In the group in front you saw men who worked at machines. They were dressed to represent coal and steel and iron, in costumes drab and uniform, their faces covered with the same material, absolutely indistinguishable the one from the other. With them were two efficiency experts wired with every kind of apparatus all over them to speed up the men and get the most out of them. As they danced you saw the workers quickening their pace, going faster and faster until you wondered how they could keep it up. Into their midst came suddenly a refreshing group, representing the individual craftsmen, who were dressed in bright colors. They danced with freedom and joy, each one a little different from the other. They could not get into the rhythm of the others nor could they keep up the pace, so they were finally taken out on stretchers.

These were followed by an entirely different group, who danced self-consciously onto the stage. They were somewhat caricatured and wore masks. They represented the Red Cross, the Boy Scouts, the Church, (the agencies of uplift), the lawyers and business men. They passed quickly to the side while the pace still quickened. Finally the workers were moving at such terrific speed that they could not stand it. As you looked toward the back of the stage you saw red appearing on the horizon and red material coming out of the machines, you saw the workers waving red flags of revolution, while the efficiency experts sank to the floor out of commission. Finally some soldiers appeared, masked and with tear bombs and the workers were made to continue their work, the efficiency experts were revived and all went on as before.

During the time that this disturbing revolution was going on, while the pace was quickening so that no one could keep it up, while these world conditions, so to speak, were in front of this group at the side, what were they doing about it? You found that they were sound asleep!

It was an extreme picture, a somewhat untrue picture, but nevertheless it held for me a challenge for all of us who are sometimes so engrossed with our own routine of living, with our daily tasks, that we fail to see the important things that are going on around us.

So if I were to paint a picture of the Auxiliary of the Future, I would paint in the background first of all, in brilliant colors on the horizon, world movements and conditions, all the great forces which have stimulated us from the beginning until now; I would also throw our Auxiliary life against the background of the life of the parish, entering into its whole life, never permitting ourselves to be a separate group, a "peculiar people". In the foreground I would place the figure of Jesus Christ, seen with the fresh vision of a new day, stripped of some of the trappings and false traditions of the past, able to win and draw all men everywhere, regardless of race or color.

At the feet of the Christ, or surrounding Him, I would place all the women of the Church in an attitude of worship, in an attitude of receptive listening for His voice, in an attitude of loving service, being made fit to be interpreters of Him and of His spirit and life to their generation.

"These are great days you are living in, days which will witness great changes in all things. They will be better days than any yet seen. Life will have grown freer and richer and will have deeper meaning to the coming generation that it has ever had before. Greater works will be done." (Phillips Brooks at the end of his life.)

Book of Remembrance

The following list of those who have entered Eternal Life was inscribed in the Book of Remembrance on the Distinguished Service Page. It represents a great and serious loss to our beloved Church, and we pray to God in accepting them for a larger service, to bring to us again as devoted and faithful workers, to carry on the splendid part they have borne in the Master's Kingdom on earth.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH KENT KNOWLTON,

In Memoriam

MARY ELIZABETH WOOD—St. James', Batavia

On May first, Mary Elizabeth Wood, of Batavia and Wuchang, China, who had been ill many months, laid down her work at Boone Library to take up--we believe-- new work for the Master in other of the "many mansions" in the Father's House.

Founder of Boone Library, the First public library, in the modern sense of the word, in China, and of the first—and still the only—Library School in all that vast land, most of the librarians of China were trained by Miss Wood, as were also the librarian in charge of the Chinese books of Harvard University, and an assistant in the Library of Congress in Washington.

"The greatest friend of the library movement in China", she gave thirty-one years of devoted service to the Chinese, and we are proud to do honor to her name. May we show our love and appreciation of her, by ever doing our share in helping to carry on the work she so wonderfully began.

MINUTES OF ANNUAL MEETING

The 50th annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese opened in Christ Church, Rochester, May 5th. Holy Communion was celebrated at 9:30 by Father Carver, rector of Christ Church. 158 were present.

The first business session opened in the Parish House at 10:30 with the President, Mrs. James H. Dyett of Buffalo, presiding.

A prayer of Thanksgiving and Invocation was read by Mrs. David Lincoln Ferris. Mrs. Dyett announced that Miss Elizabeth Lawrence would act as "dispatcher" of business.

In a few well chosen words Mrs. Walter B. Slifers, President of Christ Church branch delivered the address of welcome.

A motion to approve the minutes of the last annual meeting as printed in the year book was adopted.

Mrs. Dyett announced that Mrs. B. B. Chase, chairman of the Resolutions Committee was unable to be present and that Mrs. Samuel Hipppler had kindly consented to act in her place.

The following recommendation from the Executive Board was read by Mrs. J. W. D. Cooper, Chairman of the Constitution Committee.

To amend the Constitution and By-Laws so as to provide for the election of assistant secretaries and an assistant treasurer.

Article IV, Section I;

Insert assistant recording secretary—Assistant corresponding secretary—and assistant treasurer.

Section 7—Group 1—Assistant corresponding secretary

Group 2—Assistant recording secretary

Group 3—Assistant Treasurer

By-Laws—

Article 1—Section 4--insert after the words recording secretary--and in case of her inability to serve, the assistant recording secretary

Section 5--insert after the words corresponding secretary--and in case of her inability to serve, the assistant corresponding secretary

Section 6--insert after the word treasurer--in case of her inability to serve, the assistant treasurer

SOPHIA S. DENNESS COOPER

JULIA M. GRAY

MAY FERNESS COSBEY

Mrs. Cooper moved the adoption of the recommendation—Carried.

Mrs. T. W. Shannon read the report of the Nominating Committee. The President appointed the following ladies to act as tellers: Mrs. H. B. Graves, Mrs. A. M. Anderson, Mrs. John F. Little, Miss Florence Tracey, Mrs. Lena Williams. Ballots were distributed and the vote taken.

Mrs. Harper Sibley of Rochester, Chairman of the National Executive Board, gave a very pleasing and inspiring address relative to the coming Triennial to be held in Denver, September 16-30.

She said in part, that by considering carefully and prayerfully the theme of the Triennial—"The Way of Renewal", in its five points, namely Family Life, Property and Economic Contacts, Interracial Contacts, International Relations, and Religious Thinking of Today, we as the Woman's Auxiliary can best contribute to the Religious thought of the World today.

The President asked for nominations from the floor for delegates to the Triennial. After twenty had been nominated a motion to close the nomination was seconded and carried.

Reports of Diocesan and District officers occupied the remainder of the morning session.

Noonday Prayers were conducted by Father Carver of Christ Church.

Mrs. Dyett thanked the Branches for their quick and generous response to her appeal for aid for Bishop Denby. In one week from the time she sent out the appeal she was able to send him $100.00, and has since sent $37.00 more. A letter of appreciation was received from the Bishop.

After announcements, more than 300 adjourned to the Columbus Building across the way for lunch.

The meeting re-convened at 2 o'clock with the President in the chair. After the singing of a hymn and prayers led by Mrs. Stephen Comstock reports were resumed. After all had been given, a motion to accept them was adopted. Mrs. Dyett expressed appreciation of the splendid reports, and excellent work done the past year.

The President read her annual message which appears elsewhere.

The following ladies were appointed to act as tellers for the election of delegates and alternates to the Triennial: Miss Catherine Forsey, Mrs. J. G. Tropman, Mrs. J. H. Herendeen, Mrs. J. F. McAmmond, Mrs. Fred Kreitner, Mrs. David W. Densmore, who distributed and collected the ballots.

Mrs. Graves, chairman of tellers for the election of Diocesan officers made her report, and the President declared the following officers elected:

2nd Vice President—Miss Esther Smith, Buffalo

3rd Vice President—Mrs. Samuel Tyler, Rochester

4th Vice President—Mrs. Nelson G. Russell, Buffalo

5th Vice President—Mrs. Charles R. Allison, Warsaw

Recording Secretary—Mrs. Charles G. Berry, Kenmore

Assistant Recording Secretary—Mrs. Charles M. Wilson, Buffalo

The President appointed the following Standing Committees for the coming year:

Finance—Miss Loraine Loosen, Mrs. Frank Sheard, Miss Hilda Hequembourg,

Constitution—Mrs. Walter B. Slifers, Mrs. J. F. Buckley, Mrs. Allan McKay.

Resolutions—Mrs. Schuyler Hazard, Mrs. E. D. Curtis, Mrs. George M. Stowe.

Nominating—Mrs. Samuel Edsall, Mrs. Walter Titter and three appointed from the floor, Mrs. F. R. Oliver, Mrs. Martin Rutherford and Mrs. A. C. Pollard.

Miss Mattie C. Peters, founder of the Mary E. Hart Memorial Hospital, was introduced by Mrs. Dyett. Miss Peters told how she went to the little town of Farmington, in northwestern New Mexico, expecting to teach among the Navajo Indians, and ended by founding a hospital. It was started in a little five room house previously occupied by an Indian Agent and later grew to be a well equipped hospital.

Miss Catherine Forsey gave the report of the tellers on the election of delegates to the Triennial and the President declared the following elected delegates: Mrs. Harper Sibley, Mrs. Edwin Allen Stebbins, Mrs. E. C. Way of Rochester, Mrs. J. W. D. Cooper, Geneseo and Miss Esther Smith, Buffalo. Alternates: Miss Jean Higbie, Rochester, Mrs. F. H. Nixon, Buffalo, Mrs. Cameron J. Davis, Buffalo, Mrs. Samuel Tyler and Mrs. Walter B. Slifer, Rochester.

After announcements the benediction was pronounced by Bishop Davis.

Meeting adjourned.

In the evening a service attended by about 350 people was held in Christ Church. Bishop Davis was the first speaker. He congratulated the Woman's Auxiliary for the fifty years of service rendered the church and said he was very grateful to them for keeping ever before the church the Missionary idea. Missions, he said, was the savor of the salt of Christianity.

The Rev. C. L. Pickens, Jr., missionary to China, and now home on furlough was the next speaker. He paid a very splendid tribute to Miss Mary E. Wood, who on May 1st entered the Life beyond. He said that all the libraries in China today were directed by men and women who had been trained by Miss Wood. Mr. Pickens' address was most enlightening as to conditions in China at the present time. He said China needs the church today as it has never needed it before.

On the morning of May 6th, in St. Luke's Church, which has occupied its present location for over 100 years, and where the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese was organized in 1881, the Corporate Communion was held, Bishop Ferris celebrant. 538 persons communed.

It was a glorious and inspiring service. Bishop Ferris took for his text—Matt. 13, 31-32. He said, "Christianity started as small as the mustard seed, but like it, grew and grew until it has encompassed sixty generations of men."

At this service each branch presented an offering of gold, the money to be used to erect an altar in All Saints Church, Bontoc, P. I., in memory of Bishop Brent. A representative of each Branch marched up the aisle and reverently deposited their offering in the Alms Basin, while the congregation sang "Holy Offerings". This part of the service was most impressive.

Following the service, luncheon was served to about 600 in Hotel Rochester.

The afternoon session was called at 2 o'clock, Mrs. Harper Sibley presiding. The singing of hymn 422 opened the meeting.

The complete program of the afternoon session, introduction of speakers and their addresses, is printed verbatim elsewhere in the year book.

Mrs. Sibley closed this part of the program with a beautiful prayer after which the President took the chair for a few last minute items of business.

Announcement was made of the amount of the Golden Offering which was $1405.83, from 90 branches. Included in the offering was a gift worthy of special mention—a gold dollar of the year 1855. On the envelope containing it was written, "A treasure from childhood".

Mrs. Hippner read the report of the Resolutions Committee which was unanimously adopted and is appended.

Mrs. Gard, Chairman of Registration, reported 881 persons registered from 93 Branches.

Father Carver pronounced the benediction which brought to a close the Golden Anniversary Celebration of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Western New York to which we had all looked forward with much enthusiasm. Truly it was a golden occasion. The sun shone its brightest for those two days. Both Christ Church, where the business sessions were held and St. Luke's Church, the scene of the Anniversary services were decorated with a profusion of yellow flowers. Our President said, surely we all ought to carry home much sunshine in our hearts.

Much credit and many thanks are due the ladies of both Churches, for the splendid way the sessions were handled and their most cordial hospitality.

Respectfully submitted,

E. CHARLOTTE BERRY,
Recording Secretary

RESOLUTIONS

Resolved, That the Woman's Auxiliary of Western New York record its deepest appreciation of her life's devotion by our dear friend and fellow worker, Mary E. Wood. She was Christ's faithful soldier and servant until her life's end.

Resolved, That the Woman's Auxiliary assembled in this Fiftieth Anniversary celebration deem it a great honor, joy and privilege to have had so many fifty year members here with us. May we, who follow, carry on this glorious work for the extension of Christ's Kingdom on earth.

Resolved, That the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Western New York, assembled in this Fiftieth Anniversary celebration and annual meeting, extends thanks to the out going officers for their faithful and efficient services during their term of office.

Resolved, That we express our appreciation to Bishop Ferris, to Bishop Davis, to the Rev. Mr. C. L. Pickens, Jr., to Miss Mattie Peters, and to all other speakers who have contributed to the success of this Fiftieth anniversary celebration.

Resolved, That the members of the Woman's Auxiliary attending this Fiftieth Anniversary celebration, express to the Rector and to the members of St. Luke's Church and Christ's Church, and to all members of the Auxiliary in Rochester their sincere thanks for and appreciation of their cordial welcome, gracious hospitality, and courteous attention during the two very pleasant days of the convention.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. SAMUEL HIPPLER, Chairman
MRS. JOHN S. WILLIAMS
MISS HELEN HUNT

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members of the Auxiliary:

It is a very real joy to welcome you for this occasion, our Fiftieth Anniversary. I wish we might fully appreciate the significance of these years of willing service of hands and hearts and minds. We of today are building on that foundation of loving devotion laid those many years ago, and the collective lives of all the members of this half century have brought us where we are.

The affection and faithfulness of women to Christ Jesus have been a treasure of the Christian Church since the beginning. Women have shared from the first. They were present in that little upper room when the Holy Spirit came, and in countless numbers in these nineteen hundred years the Spirit power has been the source of this radiant usefulness.

May we feel as gathered here together a very real fellowship with this great throng of followers of Jesus, and may we too be filled with the power of the Spirit which alone can enable us to venture all things in joyous service for the Master.

Stanley Jones, in the wonderful book The Christ of Every Road, says it is the tragedy of present day Christianity that we accept the life, the death, the resurrection of Christ but not the giving of Himself in experience, so that our Gospel lies in history not in US. There is a dimness, a farawayness, and unreality to our religion but through the indwelling of the Spirit this is changed and Christ is made an ever-present living fact of our lives, and we are transformed and energized by this unfailing power, so that we—just ordinary people—can live vivid lives and accomplish extraordinary things.

The past year has been a test of your loyalty and you have stood that test so that we have increased in all lines of our endeavor. Especially gratifying is our educational work which is being given more time and thought. The total amount of disbursement report was over $43,000—an astonishing amount for the women of this Diocese to have earned and given and tangible evidence of untiring devotion. But with all that has been done there are many of us who know in our hearts that we have not shared in the doing as we might have done. Other calls have taken first place. Our enthusiasm has not been for the Master's work. It is so easy to put things off. To think that we will have more time a little later, but yesterday has gone and tomorrow is not here. The only day we have is today. We must look for true values and not be drawn into the confusion around us. God is not limited in Himself—He is only limited in us. He has given to each of us peculiar gifts—some more, some less—we should make full use of our talents, and we must not keep from His service what we owe to Him.

In looking over the reports I was impressed by the increase in the number of quiet days and corporate communions. It is thus we are going to build up Christian lives that will help, not hinder, the cause of Christ. Some one has said that "it is not the anti-Christians who make difficult the spread of the gospel, but the sub-Christian men and women who are living unhealthy, anaemic spiritual lives and calling them Christian". Even Christ felt the need of renewal, times of quiet, prayer and communion. How much more do we!

This is the first year that we have had a special Social Service report. Many branches have done this work for years, others are only just beginning to take it up. It has a very great appeal because of the direct contact with those needing help. There is no greater treasure than neighborliness—the comfort of a friend. Food and clothing mean nothing compared to the heartfelt sense of strength and calm that comes from knowing some one cares.

It is our hope that branches will further develop this work in relief and study of local and general conditions. There is much need of constructive work in this field. It is well said that the highest test of a civilization is the sacredness of a person. Human value was everywhere shown by Jesus. Let that mind be in us which was in Him that we may with understanding hearts minister in His name.

Last year our Diocese was $35,000 short of its quota and the same is true again this year. Ninety-five per cent of the parishes pledge only a part of the quota assigned to them. It seems as though there must be ways in which we could help more. Where women have not been on the Every Member Canvas Committee why not suggest a trial of their assistance? We certainly ought to be able to help in the educational program which is a most vital factor. I beg of you to acquaint yourselves with the problem in your own parish and prayerfully co-operate to reach the desired goal. If all who outwardly acclaim to be Christians were so truly Christ's work would never suffer.

I am glad to report 131 new members. A large part of the gain is due to the uniting of guild and auxiliary into one organization, which guarantees so much more effective parish effort. Even yet, after twelve years of explanation, there are those who persist in speaking of "Guild work" and "Auxiliary work". Since we are auxiliary to the National Council there is no work in the Church that is not Auxiliary work, and we look to the day when every woman of our Diocese will be a member of this "fellowship of women bound together for worship, study, work and manifold self-giving". Every once in a while I ask someone, "Why aren't you a member of the Auxiliary?" More often than not the answer is, "Oh! I haven't time to waste sewing a seam on something that could be better purchased". Surely we are not properly expressing ourselves if that is the impression we are giving.

This is Triennial year and uppermost in our thoughts is the presentation of the United Thank Offering—the outpouring of gratitude for our countless blessings. We hope that every woman in our Diocese is sharing in this most beautiful gift.

The National Executive Board has chosen for consideration at the meeting the following subjects:

1. Family Life
2. Property and Economic Conditions
3. Inter-racial contacts
4. International Relations

5. Religious thinking of today. Most searching and far-reaching, yet touching our every-day life. It would be well for us to direct our prayers and thoughts to these matters during the next months that we may be ready for the definite objectives that will come to us after the meeting in September.

There was one sad note in every report—Not one recruit for the Mission Field. Are we not imparting to the coming generation a living faith, a depth of conviction that compels, so that Christ is the dominating, irresistible passion of our lives?

There is nothing so hopeless and futile as to be without faith. Every great thing that man has done has been the fruit of faith. If we have faith even as a grain of mustard seed we are told nothing shall be impossible. Faith is not static. There is always a something on our part. We must seek expecting to find, we must ask certain to receive, we must knock knowing the door will open, we must follow, daring all things in utter trust.

Lord Jesus—suffer not our faith to falter nor our vision to grow dim. Give to us a vivid sense of Thy presence. Show us the beauty of sacrifice and guide us to so live that we may draw others to Thee.

Suggestions to Officers for Making a Plan for the Year's Work

1. DEVOTIONAL LIFE
Corporate Communions, especially at the beginning of your year's work.
Quiet Days, Prayer Groups, Bible Study Classes, Classes in Personal Religion. Interdenominational services. Circulation of Prayer Leaflet.
2. UNITED THANK OFFERING
Increase the number of givers.
Plan one meeting with U. T. O. speaker.
3. EDUCATIONAL
 - a. Make a program or plan for the fall and winter. Think of new members and of younger women in preparing it.
Try to have a five or ten minute Educational program at every business and sewing meeting.
 - b. Give one meeting or more to learning about the great Triennial gathering of the Auxiliary in September in Denver. Watch the church papers.
 - c. Before the "Every Member Canvass" in your parish have presented the new General Church Program made by General Convention in Denver. Make every effort to understand our Western New York needs and work as well.
 - d. Plan for general reading, talks, study on the special subject for the year—"Building a Christian Nation".
Start a book-shelf with interesting books and magazine articles on American history, biography and fiction, our Church in America and the trends in American life.
 - e. Have someone in charge of subscriptions for the "Spirit of Missions." Increase number in your parish.
 - f. Keep records in detail of what you do. They will help others.
4. FINANCES
Be sure your members understand about all gifts of money.
Study the Auxiliary diocesan budget.
5. WESTERN NEW YORK MISSIONARIES
Continue your interest in Western New York Missionary assigned to you.
6. SUPPLIES
Send money for Supply Fund to your District Supply Secretary in one or two installments. Preferably October. If in two payments October and March. Last week in October pack and ship second-hand clothing as designated by your District Secretary. Send all family boxes before Christmas. All articles for Missions, Schools and Hospitals before April 1st.

7. SOCIAL SERVICE

Plan study of various problems in your community. Co-operate with existing agencies for bettering conditions. Help the needy as much as you are able by securing work and giving emergency relief.

8. MEMBERSHIP

Increase. A special committee as hostesses at meetings, to follow up absent ones and invite new members.

"To be alive in such an age!
To live to it!
To give to it!
Breathe the world thought, do the world deed
Think hugely of thy brother's need.
Give thanks with all thy flaming heart,
Crave but to have in it a part.
Give thanks and clasp thy heritage
To be alive in such an age!"

REPORTS FOR 1930

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

The past year has been a busy and interesting one for the Corresponding Secretary. To one, new in Diocesan work the office has provided a wonderful opportunity to become acquainted with the splendid work being done by the women of the Diocese and to appreciate more fully the fine body of women active in this work.

During the year, the correspondence has consisted of about 800 communications.

There are at present 126 auxiliaries in the Diocese. Four of this number are inactive, temporarily we trust, and there are five new ones to balance those inactive. The new ones are: The Dorcas Society of All Saints, Buffalo; Elizabeth Owen Branch of St. Mark's, Buffalo; the Branches at Church of Holy Apostles, Perry; and Mission of Our Saviour, Lackawanna, and St. Thomas, Rochester. One Branch has been revived---St. Matthias at East Rochester.

The Corresponding Secretary wishes to urge even greater co-operation of the Branches in prompt replies to requests for information and accurate reports of changes in officers whenever such changes occur.

With thanks and grateful appreciation to all who have assisted in the work of keeping accurate records of activities in the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,
HELEN T. VIDAL,
Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY

To the President and Members of the Woman's Auxiliary of Western New York:

The Educational report for the year 1930 shows real progress over that of 1929—progress that is due almost entirely to Mrs. Cooper and not to the efforts of the present educational secretary who came into office in the early summer. Mrs. Cooper's inspiring and original way of presenting educational material and of revealing educational possibilities within the individual branch has made a permanent contribution to the growth of the work.

The reporting has been better this year, though in a number of cases it is still very incomplete. Often a full report is not given because of the failure of the president to co-operate with the educational leader or committee or of the recording secretary to include in her records, if not in her minutes, the various speakers, programs, informal talks, readings, etc., as they take place. It is seldom possible to remember accurately in December all that has been done in January or February, for example, and consequently many things are omitted.

Again, some branches have not understood what educational work is, and think of it only as an advanced, formal, or rather complicated effort. Several times I have found the words "No educational work this year," and then in the same report, "reading from the Spirit of Missions at our sewing meetings," or "Mrs. ---- spoke at a tea on our work among the Indians, or about a community need," or "Mrs. ---- told us about the mission where our box work was to go."

In this report I have included as educational work any effort, educational in character, from occasional speakers, reading of Spirit of Missions, joining in parish Lenten programs, etc., to well arranged discussion or study groups and a regular educational plan for each meeting of the branch. Under the head of program meetings I have included only those branches having two or more during the year or a series during Advent or Lent.

Every year shows a greater number of branches using a ten minute period at the time of the regular business meeting for a short educational talk or paper, or for missionary current events, charts, maps, etc. Often this is in addition to the topic or study for the year and is providing one of the best opportunities for educational work.

In January and February Mrs. Cooper held her usual intensive days. The subject was the Jerusalem Conference and the chief text book "Roads to the City of God". In June I held an informal meeting of leaders in the Rochester District, and sent a letter to every branch giving some summer suggestions and telling of India, the subject for study in 1931. In the fall I arranged an all-day conference for district educational secretaries; educational material and suggestions were presented at each District meeting of the Auxiliary by the district or diocesan educational secretary. Two intensive days were held in Buffalo and Rochester, reaching a large number of parishes. In Rochester the presidents were invited as well as the educational secretaries and members of the educational committees. Some branches tried to send a new person and a young woman if possible.

The usual article was written for publication in Our Diocesan Fellowship on the general subject this year of Adult Education, with suggestions for reading and study.

I am greatly impressed with the vital interest and enthusiasm for the educational activities on the part of the younger women in the parishes which have encouraged the formation of younger groups or where several have been approached and given definite responsibility. This is a splendid opportunity and a challenge to every parish. Let us make the most of it in 1931.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH SIBLEY STEBBINS,
Diocesan Educational Secretary

REPORT OF DEVOTIONAL CHAIRMAN

There are three special reasons for encouragement in the reports on the Devotional Life of the Auxiliary in our Diocese during the year 1930:

FIRST —The Devotional Life has been strengthened by an increased number of corporate Communions.

SECOND —A greater number of branches report using the Intercessions in the Prayer Leaflet and the circulation of Devotional books.

THIRD —Christian Unity and Fellowship with other denominations have been promoted by fully a quarter of the branches through services on Good Friday, Thanksgiving Day, Day of World Prayer, Memorial Day and numerous other services.

An analysis of the Reports discloses the following interesting facts: Of the 104 Report Blanks returned to me only twelve make no report on Devotional life.

51 Branches joined in the Day of World Prayer.

27 Branches have shared in other Interdenominational services.

243 Corporate Communions have been held. (207 last year)

35 Quiet Days.

69 Prayer Groups.

39 Branches report special Intercessions for 42 different objects.

40 Branches circulate Religious Literature, over 450 Daily Bible Readings distributed.

34 Branches use the Prayer Leaflet. (19 last year)

38 Branches are praying for their Prayer Partners and a few of them are writing her.

I have made a definite effort this year to supply all Branches with copies of the Prayer Leaflet, to inform them regarding their Prayer Partners and to suggest and furnish material for use in their Devotional services. I have made seven personal calls on Branch Leaders, sent out one hundred fifty-seven letters, conducted ten Devotional services and held conferences at the Geneseo, Geneva and Rochester District meetings.

In closing this brief summary I wish to mention the report of the Fairport Branch which I received very carefully filled out by their Devotional Leader, Mrs. F. M. Elliott. At the bottom of the sheet, however, in another hand, were written these words, "Mrs. Elliott died suddenly yesterday, December twenty-third".

May the reward accorded by the Master to the "good and faithful" be hers in abundant measure.

Respectfully submitted,

MARTHA THOMAS COMSTOCK,
Vice-President in charge of Devotional Work

A Prayer

For Advance Work

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, who so loved the world that Thou hast sent Thy Son to be the Saviour of us all: Help us, we humbly beseech Thee, to see beyond ourselves to the need of the world. Grant us such faith in Thy power to meet that need that by our prayers, our lives, and our gifts, we may strive to make Him known to all men. Bless the present work of Thy Church for new hospitals, schools and churches in the mission field. Hold in Thy loving care, we pray Thee, St. Luke's Hospital, Manila, and grant that we Thy servants in this Diocese may give gladly and liberally to the promised fund for the building of a nurses' home for this hospital, for the sake of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Authorized by the Bishops for use in the Diocese of Western New York

REPORT OF THE ADVANCE WORK

(Formerly Corporate Gift)

To the President and Members of the Woman's Auxiliary in Western New York:

This past year the Woman's Auxiliary has joined with the Diocese in an effort to undertake one definite piece of Advance Work as its share in the Advance Work program of the General Church. There has been no independent national or diocesan corporate gift for this purpose on the part of the Woman's Auxiliary, in view of this larger gift of the whole Church.

The Diocese of Western New York has promised to give the addition to the Nurses' Home in connection with St. Luke's Hospital, Manila, Philippine Islands, at a cost of $6000. Toward this amount the Woman's Auxiliary pledged and gave $2000 in 1930, an amount similar to that given to the Corporate Gift in 1929. It is a splendid testimony to the loyalty and self-sacrifice of the women in a difficult and abnormal year.

Owing to the general financial depression and to many pressing duties within the Diocese, the Woman's Executive Board, in consultation with the Bishops, offered in December, 1930, to do two things in 1931. First, to try to raise another $2000 within the Auxiliary for the Nurses' Home at St. Luke's instead of undertaking a new objective; and second, to assume the responsibility for raising the remainder of the $6000 generally through the parishes.

A letter has been sent to each rector by the Bishops, and to each Woman's Auxiliary branch by the Advance Work Treasurer, explaining the situation and suggesting the same amount for the Woman's Auxiliary as last year and an additional amount to be secured preferably outside the Auxiliary, that is from the parish as a whole, from men as well as from women.

Among the suggestions for the parish are: forming a committee to call on certain men and women who might be interested; presenting the need to the various groups and organizations, such as Vestry, Men's Club, Parish Guilds, etc.; arranging for a parish supper, sale or entertainment, the proceeds to be used for the parish gift; making a special appeal to the congregation. The method best suited to the possibilities of the individual parish and approved by the rector will be the one to try.

All pledges and gifts should be sent to Mrs. Edwin Allen Stebbins, Treasurer, 935 East Avenue, Rochester, by September 1st if possible, but the books will be open until December, 1931.

We need the continuing interest, loyalty and enthusiasm; the prayers, gifts and practical help of every branch and every parish in making good the pledge of our Diocese to the General Church.

Respectfully submitted,
ELIZABETH SIBLEY STEBBINS,
Advance Work Treasurer

REPORT OF THE GENEVA DISTRICT

The annual meeting of the Geneva District was held in St. John's Church, Canandaigua.

Owing to the unavoidable absence of the Rector, Dr. Gaylord, the Rev. Irving McGrew, Chaplain of Hobart College, celebrated Holy Communion. About 60 were present.

Mrs. E. C. Stebbins spoke on the advance work of the church and also on Adult Education, Deaconess Kate Sibley Shaw gave an interesting account of her work as a teacher in the school for Igorot girls at Bontoc, Philippine Islands.

The noon-day prayers were conducted by Mrs. Stephen Comstock. Following luncheon conferences were held by the Educational Secretaries and the Supply Secretaries of the District.

It was agreed that the Geneva District should "adopt" Miss Helen Lade of St. Luke's Hospital, Tokio, as our special Missionary. Plans were made to establish occasional correspondence with her from two Parishes.

In January Miss Margaret Marston, the National Educational Secretary held an intensive day on India, for the district.

The meeting took place in Trinity Church Parish House, Geneva, and in spite of icy roads was well attended.

The Treasurer reports the sum of $30.13 in the Treasury.

Respectfully submitted,
ELIZABETH C. E. BOSWELL,
District Chairman

REPORT ON CONTACT WITH MISSIONARIES

In order that we at home may enter more fully into the work of our Missionaries who have gone from Western New York, we have endeavored to promote closer contact between them and us, through our individual Auxiliary branches.

In September the following plan was adopted:

1. (a) That as we have in Western New York 121 Woman's Auxiliary branches, and there are 20 Western New York Missionaries, each missionary be the special friend and responsibility of a group of branches.
(b) That the group—or their representatives—plan their contact with their missionary, so that the friendship shown by the group may be intelligent and constructive, as from “understanding hearts”.
(c) That the kind of plan for contacts, and the manner of planning the same, be left to each group. But their District Chairman, and Miss Esther S. Smith, 305 Porter Ave., Buffalo, are ready to give suggestions if desired.
2. That each group of branches be given a different missionary every three years.
3. That each group see to it, that their missionary receives each year a copy of the Woman's Auxiliary Year Book (or Supplement), the Diocesan Fellowship, and such other diocesan publications as may be helpful in her—or his—work, such as the “Information sheets” of the Department of Religious Education, etc.
4. That each branch appoint one person, or a committee, who will keep the branch in touch with their missionary: and also see that opportunities are provided for friendship and a happy and profitable time for that missionary when home on furlough.

About twenty-five branches have entered whole heartedly into the plan. Letters have been written to the missionaries, magazines and gifts sent to them. Knowing them better, has made it possible to pray for them and their work more intelligently, and also to help their work. Some of the missionaries SEEM not to care for closer contact with the home Diocese, as they do not respond, while others are keen for it. To quote two: “I am thrilled over the plan for the Diocese really knowing their representatives on the firing line. It seems to me excellent and ought to secure at least some results”, and, as we are seeking friendliness, we are glad Miss Wood of Boone Library could say, “I feel that I have found such a good friend in you, that I can take the liberty to ask a favor of you”! The favor was, that we should sell for her “Emergency Fund” Chinese linens which she was sending me. (I have sold $33.00 worth, but have much more on hand).

Believing that closer friendship between us—those witnessing for Christ far and near, and those at home—will give strength and inspiration to us all, we rejoice in contacts made, and hope during the coming year to deepen these and add many more.

Respectfully submitted,

ESTHER S. SMITH,

Vice-President in charge of contact with Missionaries

REPORT OF CHAIRMAN OF SOCIAL SERVICE

The year 1930 has marked the introduction of a department of Social Service among the activities of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Western New York.

Early in the year our Diocesan President requested each Parish President to appoint for her branch a Chairman for Social Service.

Out of 102 reporting Parishes we have

25 Chairmen

44 doing some social service work

48 are co-operating with other social service agencies, while a very few are well organized and doing splendid work. If with this initial effort a few hearts have been cheered and burdens lightened may we not feel that it has been very much worth while.

May we go forth with increasing knowledge and clearer vision, and a more Christ-like understanding of the needs of others.

Respectfully submitted,

MARION SHERWOOD STEUBER,

Vice President in charge of Social Service.

REPORT OF THE BUFFALO DISTRICT

An increase in the number of branches reporting Educational work during the year 1930 is most gratifying. An intensive day on "Roads to the City of God", under the leadership of Mrs. J. W. D. Cooper, was held in the Church of the Good Shepherd in January, one hundred and twenty-five being present. On November 6th, a most inspirational institute for leaders was conducted by Mrs. E. A. Stebbins in St. John's Church. Forty were in attendance during the day, representing twenty-two parishes.

A conference of parish and district officers, to discuss plans for the year's work, was held in May in the home of the chairman, Mrs. Nelson G. Russell.

On the first Sunday evening in June, at a very beautiful service in St. Mary's-on-the-Hill, the Annual Presentation of the United Thank Offering of the women of the Buffalo District was made. The Rev. Alfred S. Priddis preached the sermon. One of our Western New York missionaries, Mrs. E. P. Miller, formerly of St. Luke's Church, Jamestown, gave an address on her work in Wuchang, China.

At the Annual meeting, which was held in Grace Church, Lockport, October 23rd, twenty-eight parishes were represented with an attendance of one hundred and seventy-five. The day began with a celebration of the Holy Communion, the Rev. Henry Zwicker, celebrant. Noon-day meditations were conducted by Miss Lorraine Loosen.

During the business session in the afternoon, Mrs. Russell presiding, the following officers were elected: Mrs. Frank H. Nixon, chairman; Mrs. William E. Townsend, secretary; and Mrs. Charles A. Cyphers, treasurer. Mrs. James H. Dyett spoke on the Advance Work and Mrs. E. C. Way, on the United Thank Offering. Deaconess Kate Sibley Shaw of Bontoc, Philippine Islands, presented an interesting picture of All Saint's School and the work among the Igorots. The offering, amounting to $93.00, was given to Deaconess Shaw for her work in the Philippines.

Two new officers have been appointed: Mrs. H. N. Yates, devotional leader and Mrs. John H. Radcliff, vice-chairman, in charge of the Advance Work.

Throughout the year, the district officers have visited many of the parish branches. The personal contact formed through these visits is invaluable.

Fifty of the fifty-eight branches of the Buffalo District were most generous in their contributions of work and money to the Supply Department.

The total receipts for the year 1930 were $327.92—disbursements, $209.45, leaving a balance January 1, 1931 of $118.47.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCES M. NIXON,
District Chairman

REPORT OF THE ROCHESTER DISTRICT

The 44th meeting of the Rochester District of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in St. Stephen's Church, Rochester, on October 24, 1930.

Twenty one branches were represented with an attendance of 242. Deaconess Shaw of Bontoc, Philippine Islands was our speaker.

The offering of $118.50 was given in support of her Missionary work. It was also our privilege to hear from the following Diocesan officers.

Mrs. E. A. Stebbins, Educational Secretary

Mrs. E. C. Way, United Thank Offering Custodian

Mrs. Stephen Comstock, Vice-President, led the Noon-day devotions.

Two most profitable intensive days have been held during the year. The first at the home of Mrs. Stebbins, November 17, 1930, open to Branch Presidents, Educational Secretaries and their Committees. Mrs. Stebbins was the leader and introduced the study of India. Then on January 12, 1931, Miss Margaret Marston, National Educational Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary, conducted an intensive Educational Day at Christ Church, Rochester, open to all interested.

The attendance of 95 was most gratifying. Arrangements for this meeting were made by Mrs. P. Richard Jameson, District Educational Secretary.

Mrs. Victor Hurst of St. Paul's Church, Rochester, on July 1st very generously offered her home and gardens again for the Annual Garden Party conducted by the Supply Department of the District.

The affair was delightful and $130.30 was raised for the Supply Department Treasury.

Miss Martha Cramer, a Missionary from the Diocese of Western New York is home from All Saints' School, Guantanamo, Cuba, and is ill at Tola Sanitarium, Rochester.

Mrs. Alan Davis, District Devotional Secretary, called on Miss Cramer the day before Christmas to leave flowers from the District and to extend our greetings.

We have the organization of a branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to report for St. Thomas' Church, Rochester. It has been decided to omit the spring District meeting so as to all co-operate more heartily and bend our efforts toward the golden Anniversary of the Auxiliary to be celebrated in May, 1931.

Respectfully submitted,

ALICE BOOTH HOLMES,

District Chairman

REPORT OF THE BATH DISTRICT

There were two Spring conferences held in 1930.

The first in the Parish House at Angelica on May 8th, where Mrs. Dyett and Mrs. Champlin met the members of the Allegany County Missions. There were 75 present.

Returning from Angelica, Mrs. Dyett and Mrs. Champlin were guests of the Woman's Auxiliary at Hornell at a picnic supper in the Parish House. Preceding the supper there was an informal discussion of the church plans and Auxiliary work.

The parish Presidents' conference for 1930 was held in Christ Church Parish House at Corning on May 16th, 25 being present with Addison, Bath, Canaseraga, Hammondsport, Corning, Montour Falls and Watkins Glen represented.

The annual conference of the Bath District was held in the Church of the Redeemer at Addison on October 22nd, with 55 responding to Roll Call. The offering for the day amounted to $50.00. $30.00 was given to Deaconess Shaw and $15.00 to be sent to Mrs. Stebbins for the Advance Work.

Mrs. Walter Hollands, Hornell, was elected District Chairman to succeed Mrs. C. A. Champlin; and Mrs. Arthur Burrell of Bath, Secretary to take the place of Mrs. J. G. Spencer.

Several conferences were held. United Thank Offering conducted by Mrs. Way; Mrs. Windsor met with the Educational Secretaries; and Miss Walker talked with the Supply Secretaries.

The Treasurer reported a balance on hand of $21.85. We were greatly privileged to have as our speaker Deaconess Shaw who told us of the work of the church among the Igorots in Bontoc, Philippine Islands and some of her personal experiences.

The Educational work during 1930 was very satisfactory. Most of the Auxiliaries in the different parishes studied "The Roads to the City of God." The Branches responded very willingly to the calls of the Supply Secretary and an increasing interest has been shown in the United Thank Offering.

Total receipts for 1930, $93.38. Total disbursements, $53.10. Balance on hand January 1, 1931, $40.28.

Respectfully submitted,

HATTIE HOLLANDS,

District Chairman

REPORT OF GENESEO DISTRICT

The Geneseo District has been actively interested during the past year in the new plan for increased contact with our Missionaries.

Two chapters of the districts have been appointed each month to keep in close communication with Miss Wood, our personal Missionary with a view to keeping her informed of our activities and our interest in her work. This arrangement promises to be more successful as it ceases to be an experiment but some of the chapters have already been very enthusiastic about it.

It is a pleasure to report the real interest of the members in the subject chosen for study this year. This is without doubt largely due to the fact that the books selected were easily interesting and did not demand excessive study. They have proved an incentive to many to do further reading. There had been some inter-chapter fellowship shown in the study of our subject in the exchange of papers, in sharing special feature meetings with other units, and so on.

In May 1930 the chairman and secretary held a luncheon meeting at the Rectory in Warsaw which was well attended by Diocesan Officers, District Officers, and Branch Presidents, at this time Mrs. Dyett discussed the plans for the work of the year.

The annual meeting of the district held at Trinity Church, Warsaw, on October 20th was opened with Holy Communion. Dr. Charles R. Allison, celebrant. Dr. Allison welcomed the members most cordially and the chairman extended greetings from the hostess branch.

The business session was very brief. The Treasurer reported a balance of $36.78 in the Treasury.

Noon-day prayers were conducted beautifully by Mrs. Stephen Comstock. There were various officers' Conferences held at noon which were particularly helpful to branch officers and interesting to all delegates.

The three addresses of the day were both inspired and inspiring. They were given by Mrs. Edwin Allen Stebbins, Mrs. Harper Sibley and Deaconess Shaw of Bontoc, P. I.

One new branch has been formed this year, The Woman's Auxiliary of the Church of the Holy Apostles in Perry.

Respectfully submitted,
ESTHER S. SMALLWOOD, District Chairman

REPORT OF THE BUREAU OF SUPPLIES—1930

The Supply Work for 1930 has been most encouraging. Women in all the Auxiliaries have felt very keenly the need of giving both old and new clothing for our Missions. The last week in October, inaugurated and conducted as "Second Hand Clothes Week" met with a very generous response.

13 personal boxes provided families with necessary clothing and many branches take this opportunity to add the personal touch with dainty and attractive gifts.

3 Catechist suits brought joy to those who are working so conscientiously in our Western Missions.

14 Xmas gifts, the price of each gift not to exceed five dollars help to make Christmas away from home a little brighter for our women Missionaries.

Just here may I say a word about the Missionary box of today. Color and style have seeped into the making of garments and a display of articles to be packed brings many surprises and much admiration from us all, so our box packing has become a real event and one to look forward to.

From the letters received in acknowledgment we know of the real joy and comfort our work brings and may I take this opportunity to thank all those connected with Supply work. Their loyal support and sincerity of purpose means more than I can tell in words.

97 Branches have contributed to the purchasing of articles at wholesale and 98 Branches have packed and sent boxes to Missionaries listed below.

A Prayer

For the Woman's Auxiliary

OUR HEAVENLY FATHER, to Thee we offer our joy and praise for those who have gone out from this Diocese to bear Thy witness and to serve Thy needy children in all parts of the world. Grant unto them that courage which makes defeat impossible. And to all of us Thy servants give a greater power to reveal Thy son our Saviour in our daily lives.

May the adventuring spirit of our girls and boys be directed into paths of service in Thy Church. And we pray Thee to fulfill our hopes and prayers that on our Golden Anniversary there may be presented at Thy Altar not only gold but lives eager to do Thy bidding — All of which we ask in the name of our Master, Jesus Christ. Amen.

HELLEN C. C. BRENT
