The Bishop's Message

To the Women of the Church in the Diocese of Western North Carolina:

As we press forward in our great Forward Movement toward the goal unto the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus, let us see if practicing "day by day" will not not only make us more effective in work but also make us happier in what we do. What we do regularly and frequently has a great effect upon our lives. If religion is to mean much to us it must have regular and frequent expression. Here it is that work of the Auxiliary presents the opportunity for varied, and at the same time, methodical exercise of our Christian life. What a difference it would make in one's life if each night one would plan what he would do for God the next day, and then when the day was done see what was accomplished and what could be carried over to the following day to be added to the new duties! A few suggestions as to what one might plan to do: Read an article in the Spirit of Missions, write a friendly letter, make a call in the name of the Church perhaps to leave a "Forward Movement" booklet, to invite some one to Church or to find a child to be brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord; and so on. Great fortunes have been built in the five and ten cent business. Great accomplishments can be realized in the many acts of kindness and love offered to God day by day. The Sunday duties are taken for granted. May it be said of us all in the words of the hymn: "Day by day thou find us doing what we can."

Sincerely yours,

ROBERT E. GRIBBIN

The President's Letter

Greetings of the New Year to each and every one!

May we strive together through the year to realize more fully the joy of "Fellowship in Faith and Works" which is our watchword through this triennium.

What can we do to extend and deepen "fellowship in faith and works?"

Are we doing our share to help all men become witnesses for Christ here at home and in other lands? Are we doing our share to support the budget of the whole Church? Is our giving of ourselves and our means a measure of our faith?

As Christian women, are we doing all in our power to promote the cause of peace? The following resolution was passed at the Triennial: "That the members of the Woman's Auxiliary endeavor each day to pray more fervently than ever before for peace throughout the world."

We hope this Year Book will be a helpful guide in every phase of your activities. Especially do we urge the use of the educational program and calendar outlined by our chairman of Religious Education. This following of the Church's way, day by day, will give us a higher value of missionary work and a greater willingness to accept leadership as a privilege.

The fulfilling of each Branch's share in the Calendar of Gifts, with interest through knowledge of the chosen fields for this year's giving is another way of living up to our watchword.

Let us lift our regular routine undertakings to a higher level, making the Auxiliary so vital in the life of the parish that the interest and membership of every woman will be enlisted.

Faithfully yours, JEAN S. WOOLDRIDGE

Calendar of Gifts for 1938

The Treasurer has suggested to each Branch the quota needed as its share of the budget adopted at the Annual Meeting. Your gifts cover the five fields, as you can readily see by the tabulation below. Let us individually strive to bring ourselves to a fuller realization of these words, "And here we offer and present unto Thee, O Lord, our souls and bodies to be a reasonable, holy and living sacrifice unto Thee."

Suggestions for Meetings

ORDER OF MEETINGS

Opening Devotions.
Roll Call. Reading of Minutes. Officers' Reports. Committee Reports. Unfinished and New Business. Missionary Program. Closing Prayers.

PRAYERS

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

(To be said in unison at every meeting)

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy Beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

O Lord, our Heavenly Father, we pray Thee to send forth more laborers into Thy harvest, and to grant them Thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all women everywhere to give gladly as Thou hast given to them. Accept from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering of prayer and gifts and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR WORLD PEACE

Almighty God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed; kindle, we pray Thee, in the hearts of all men the true love of peace, and guide with Thy strong and peaceful wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth, that in tranquility Thy Kingdom may go forward, till the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of Thy love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR THE COMING OF THE KINGDOM

Almighty God, we pray Thee for the coming of Thy Kingdom of righteousness and peace. In the midst of a changing social order may faith in Thee and obedience of the teachings of Thy dear Son prevail, to build a new life of love in which the ill of this present time may disappear and the glad day of brotherhood and mutual service may dawn. Strengthen all the agencies of Thy Church which are laboring for the happiness and welfare of all people, that they may find in Thee their salvation and their peace, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER PARTNER

"Almighty God, Who didst call holy women to be helpers and workers in Thy service; bless we pray Thee Thy servants, Lona Weatherly and Grace West Brady, and prosper them in the work to which Thou hast called them. Grant them sufficient wisdom for every task, Thy gracious help in time of trouble, the sense of Thy presence in loneliness and the power to accomplish whatever has been begun in Thy name and for Thy glory; through the might of Jesus Christ, our Lord." Amen.

FOR VISION AND ZEAL IN RURAL WARK

O God, heavenly Father, we beseech Thee to grant to us and all the leaders, members and organizations of Thy Church, a vision of the fields white unto the harvest in the country districts of America. Increase in us a desire to minister to those living on farm and ranch, in little town and open country, and so guide us by Thy Spirit that we may harvest the souls committed to our care in love and power and understanding; through Him who said of old, Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth laborers into His harvest; thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

FOR THE CHILDREN OF THE COUNTRYSIDES

O Saviour of the world who didst say: Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not; bless, we beseech Thee, all children and young people at work and play in the country districts of the world. Raise up friends, we pray thee, who will seek them out and bring them within the blessed influence of Thy Church, that so they may know and follow thee who, with the Father and the Holy Ghost art ever one God, world without end. Amen.

FOR THOSE WHO SEARCH FOR HIS SHEEP

Blessed Lord Jesus, the Good Shepherd of the sheep, whose flocks are upon a thousand hills, and who hast put into our hearts the hope of a better country, even a heavenly; bless all those who search for thy sheep in scattered places, that they may bring them to thee, who art with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

INTERCESSION FOR ISLAM

"Enkindle our cold hearts, O Lord, with the fire of Thy love; awaken in us a greater desire to share with all men the unsearchable riches of Christ, who is the outshining of Thy glory.

"Having expressed our penitence, let us make our first approach of sympathy with those for whom we desire to pray. The heart of their religion is a great reverence for the majesty and power of God. Let us join with them in an act of adoration.

"Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts: the whole earth is full of His Glory. Only we must add, as they cannot yet, Thou art the King of glory, O Christ: Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father."

"O everlasting God, the radiance of all faithful souls, who didst bring the nations to Thy light and kings to the brightness of Thy rising, fill, we beseech Thee, the world with Thy glory, and show Thyself to the nations, through Him who is the true Light and the bright and morning Star, Jesus Christ our Lord." Amen.

—From National Council Intercessions for Islam.

CLOSING PRAYER

We commend to Thy mercy, O Heavenly Father, all that we have thought, and said, and done this day, beseeching Thee to pardon all that has been amiss in us, and to accept for Thy glory all that has been done in accordance with Thy holy will: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

—Used daily at Second World Conference on Faith and Order, Edinburgh, 1937.

Suggestions for Parish Programs

THEME: Fellowship with Christ in Faith, Work and Worship
St. Matthew 28:18-20

The Invitation: "Come Unto Me."

The Commission: "Go ye."

Suggestions for Leaders:

1. These programs are only suggestive. Every branch should have a Committee to arrange a program for the year adapted to its own needs. Refer to W. A. 49 and 55. Your Diocesan Chairman of Religious Education will be glad to assist you. Use her.
2. The person who presents the program should have a conviction about the subject and approach it with earnestness and enthusiasm.
3. Promote discussion; it helps to interest people if they have a chance to express themselves.
4. See that the sick or shut-ins or isolated are informed of the program and ask them to share through the ministry of intercession.
5. We are seeking to build a Christian world order. It is an impossible task for any other agency than the Church of the Living God. Let us believe it IS possible for the Church, but only for a Church whose members are informed and spiritually alive. "The things that are impossible with men are possible with God." (St. Luke 18:37).

I. FELLOWSHIP WITH CHRIST IN FAITH

(Epiphany to Lent)

What are the principles which must characterize a Christian world fellowship? "We believe in a God . . . who cares about each member of His human family and seeks relationship with him." "We believe in a God who cares about the kind of beings you and I are and become." "We believe in a God who cares about all our relatednesses." "We believe in a God who has made us for an immortal destiny." "So God loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Our Lord Jesus Christ teaches us: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy mind, with all thy soul, and with all thy strength; this is the first and great Commandment. And the second is: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." This is the faith by which the Church must live. From this gospel grows the Christian Fellowship in Faith and Work.

—Report of Triennial Committee on Findings and Plans.

HYMNS (to be sung or read): 117, 211, 212, 224.

BIBLE READING: Romans 8:38-39; Ephesians 6:16; Hebrews 11:1.

PRAYER: Lord, I believe in Thee, help Thou mine unbelief; I love Thee, yet not with a perfect heart as I would; I long for Thee, yet not with my full strength; I trust in Thee, yet not with my whole mind. Accept my faith, my love, my longing to know and serve Thee, my trust in Thy power to keep me . . . I wait Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

II. FELLOWSHIP WITH CHRIST IN WORK

(Lent to Easter)

The Evangelization of the World

"The purpose for which the Church was brought into being is to carry the message of the Love of God to the whole world."

—Bishop Azariah.

"The first aspect of the Church's work is with missions."

—Bishop Parsons' Convention Sermon.

HYMNS: 474, 477, 480, 482, 483, 485, 486.

BIBLE READING: St. Matthew 28:18-20; Acts 1:8; Romans 10:13-15; Isaiah 6:8.

PRAYER: O God, who hast made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on the face of the whole earth, and didst send Thy blessed Son to preach peace to them that are far off and to them that are nigh; grant that all men everywhere may seek after Thee and find Thee. Bring the nations into Thy fold, pour out Thy Spirit upon all flesh, and hasten Thy kingdom; through the same Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Practical Suggestions:

THROUGH WORSHIP:

1. For the Individual and the Family:

Rededication of the whole life to Christ and witnessing wherever and whenever opportunity comes. Prayer and intercessions for missions. Attendance at meetings and Services where the Christian Mission is proclaimed and reports given of its effect upon the world today.

2. For Parish Groups: Same as above.

Cooperate with other Christian bodies in Interdenominational days of Prayer, Lenten Services during Holy Week, etc. Invite members of other Christian churches to share in Quiet Day for Prayer for Peace (Nov. 11).

THROUGH STUDY:

1. For the Individual and the Family:

Read the SPIRIT OF MISSIONS and other Church periodicals. Join Reading Circles or Mission Study Classes. Be informed of the share your Parish has in the General Church Program. Read: Volunteer Work in the Church, by Miss R. M. Gordon, 5c.

2. For Parish Groups: Same as above.

Study the Partnership Plan of the Church. Start Missionary Library or Book Shelf. Present Missionary Pageant, drama, or illustrated talk.

Study Courses: (a) The Program of the Church. (b) The Fellowship in the Church; In the East, by Bishop Azariah, 5c; In Latin America, Bishop Salinas, 5c; In the United States, Rev. P. Roberts, 5c. THROUGH SERVICE (Including gifts):

For the Individual, Family and Parish Groups:

By systematic and sacrificial sharing of time, talents and money to forward the whole Program of the Church. Recruiting Workers. Providing scholarships at Church Conferences. Cooperating intelligently with workers in the field. Sharing in work of Supply Department, Church Periodical Club, United Thank Offering, Birthday Thank Offering, Lenten Offering. Volunteer Motor Corps to provide transportation to Services and Meetings. Trying to interest the indifferent or uninterested woman, (Definite suggestions for this will be mailed upon request to the Educational Chairman).

THROUGH FELLOWSHIP:

For the Individual, Family and Parish Groups—in worship, study and service.

III. FELLOWSHIP WITH CHRIST IN WORSHIP

(Easter to Trinity)

"Worship is first of all an experience. The most important thing about it is its experience quality. Worship may express itself through certain forms, but worship itself is not primarily a form; it is an experience." (Marie Cole Powell, "Guiding the Experience of Worship.")

HYMNS: 8, 12, 200, 205, 208, 380; Te Deum, Part I; Benedictus es, Domine.

BIBLE READING: I Chronicles 16:23-29; St. John 4:24; Rev. 11:15-17.

PRAYER: O God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, we lift our hearts unto Thee; we praise Thee, we bless Thee, we worship Thee, we glorify Thee. With angels and archangels, and with all the company of Heaven, we laud and magnify Thy glorious Name, evermore praising Thee and saying,
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts,
Heaven and earth are full of Thy Glory;
Glory be to Thee, O Lord most high. Amen.

"Every interest and concern of a truly Christian life is a form of worship."—Willard L. Sperry "Reality in Worship," p. 164.

Practical Suggestions

THROUGH FELLOWSHIP:

In Worship, Study and Service.

IV. WORLD-WIDE INTERESTS TODAY

(Trinity to Fall)

"Above all we shall wake to the fact that it is our responsibility lity as Christians to carry the spirit and meaning of the Gospel into every phase of the problems which beset us today."

—Bishop Parsons' Convention Sermon.

The theme of the Triennial, Fellowship in Faith and Work, has received a new meaning and fresh power out of the Oxford and Edinburgh Conferences. In the light of this we are asked to consider the following subjects: (a) Christian Unity and Cooperation. (b) War and Peace. (c) Social and Economic Life. (d) Church and State.

Instead of giving detailed suggestions for programs on these subjects we suggest:

First, that you read the "Report of the Committee on Findings and Plans" in the "Minutes of the Triennial Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary". (Free)

Second, that you read the following reports: Fellowship in Faith and Work, Oxford, 1937, Mrs. Pierce, 5c; Fellowship in Faith and Work, Edinburgh, 1937, Mrs. Stebbins, 5c. (Obtained from Woman's Auxiliary, 281 Fourth Ave., New York.

Third, that you plan special study courses on these subjects as outlined in: The Oxford Conference Study Series. Prices, series of six booklets, 75c; single copies, 15c.

The first of this series, "Church and Community", is ready, and may be obtained from The Universal Christian Council, 297 4th Ave., New York, N. Y.

Fourth, the following is specially recommended for study under the subject, "War and Peace:"

"Peaceful Change, the Alternative to War." Single copy 25c. A special 10c edition may be ordered from the National Peace Conference, 8 West 40th St., New York, N. Y. We are entitled to this 10c edition as our National Auxiliary is a member organization of the National Peace Conference.

A Discussion Program on the above book, by Marguerite Ann Stewart, may be ordered for 15c from the same address.

Fifth, recommended by the Rev. Almon R. Pepper, executive secretary, Department of Christian Social Service, for study under the subject, "Social and Economic Life:"

"Standards of Foster Care for Children in Institutions," 25c. Order from Department of Christian Social Service, 281 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y.

PRAYER: Show unto the nations, O Father of all, how to rise above the causes that divide us, and to seek in faith a world made one in the love of Thee, that we may win our way to justice, freedom and peace, not by might but the Spirit in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
