

Resolved, That the Council express to the President and the people of Liberia our compassion that this tragedy has over-shadowed their national life, and join with them in the expression of grief in the issue of The Liberia Official Gazette on Saturday, November 22, 1969, that describes so eloquently the bereavement that affects us all; and be it futher

Resolved, That the Secretary be requested to transmit this Resolution to the bereaved families and to the President of the Republic of Liberia.

Resolution adopted
(Standing Vote)

RECESS

The Council recessed at 4:20 p.m., to reconvene at Seabury House, Greenwich, Connecticut at 7:30 p.m.

GUEST SPEAKERS

The Rt. Rev. Dr. Campbell introduced the Rt. Rev. Yohana Madinda, Assistant Bishop of Central Tanganyika.

Bishop Madinda addressed the Council.

The Rt. Rev. Dr. Mosley introduced the Rt. Rev. Anthony Hunter, Bishop of Swaziland.

Bishop Hunter addressed the Council.

RACISM AND VIOLENCE

The Deputy for Program introduced the Special Order, on the subject of Racism and Violence.

Bishop Bayne deferred to the Rt. Rev. Dr. Blanchard, who introduced "his psychaiatrist", Dr. John Ordway of Cincinnati.

Dr. Ordway gave an account of his self-analysis in respect of his attitudes of racism, prejudice, and cultural rejection, as he had experienced them in working with Black-power groups in Southern Ohio.

Dr. Ordway answered questions, and amplified his earlier statements in response to comments from the floor.

WEDNESDAY SESSION

The Executive Council convened on Wednesday morning in the Great Hall of Christ Church, Greenwich.

The President called the meeting to order at 9:15 a.m.