That the 81st General Convention amend Article VIII of the Constitution by adding the following paragraph at the end of the existing article:

Article VIII

Of Clergy in Local Ecumenical Partnerships

An ordained minister in good standing of one of the constituent denominations serving in a formal Local Ecumenical Partnership may be appointed by the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese in which the ministry is located to serve as an ordained minister of this Church within that specific ministry and as governed by the relevant canons.

Explanation

Many dioceses throughout the Episcopal Church already contain combined ministries with other Christian denominations. The Church of England calls these “Local Ecumenical Partnerships” and shares them with various Christian denominations. In the Episcopal Church’s context, this is increasingly becoming a missional reality in rural communities and college chaplaincies. The Constitutions and Canons of the Episcopal Church have no explicit provision for these combined ministries to operate with ordained leadership other than Episcopal ministers or those in formal full-communion agreements. The Standing Committee on Ecumenical and Interreligious Relations believes this constitutional change and a relevant canon (also submitted to the 81st General Convention) would make that provision and lay out the limited circumstances under which such partnerships could be formed. The canon also makes clear that this only applies to denominations whom the Episcopal Church has affirmed their “apostolicity, ordained ministers and sacraments” by act of general convention or membership in organizations chartered to do so and that ordained ministers of these denominations are credentialed only within the bounds of the ministry of the Limited Ecumenical Partnership.

Title: Amend Constitution Articles VI and VIII [Regarding Full Communion--Second Reading]
Legislative Action Taken: Concurred
Final Text:

Resolved, That the 80th General Convention amend Articles VI and VIII to read as follows:
ARTICLE VI

Sec. 1. The House of Bishops may establish a Mission in any area not included within the boundaries of any Diocese of this Church or of any Church in full communion with this Church, and elect or appoint a Bishop therefor.

ARTICLE VIII

No person shall be ordered Priest or Deacon to minister in this Church until the person shall have been examined by the Bishop and two Priests and shall have exhibited such testimonials and other requisites as the Canons in that case provided may direct. No person shall be ordained and consecrated Bishop, or ordered Priest or Deacon to minister in this Church, unless at the time, in the presence of the ordaining Bishop or Bishops, the person shall subscribe and make the following declaration:

I do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, and to contain all things necessary to salvation; and I do solemnly engage to conform to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Episcopal Church.

Provided, however, that any person consecrated a Bishop to minister in any Diocese of an autonomous Church or Province of a Church in full communion with this Church may, instead of the foregoing declaration, make the promises of Conformity required by the Church in which the Bishop is to minister.

If any Bishop ordains a Priest or Deacon to minister elsewhere than in this Church, or confers ordination as Priest or Deacon upon a Christian minister who has not received Episcopal Ordination, the Bishop shall do so only in accordance with such provisions as shall be set forth in the Canons of this Church.

No person ordained by a foreign Bishop, or by a Bishop not in full communion with this Church, shall be permitted to officiate as a Minister of this Church until the person shall have complied with the Canon or Canons in that case provided and also shall have subscribed the aforesaid declaration.

A Bishop may permit an ordained minister in good standing in a church with which this Church is in full communion as specified by the Canons who has made the foregoing declaration, or a minister ordained in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America or its predecessor bodies who has made the promise of conformity required by that Church in place of the foregoing declaration to officiate on a temporary basis as an ordained minister of this church. No minister of such a Church ordained by other than a Bishop, apart from any such ministers designated as part of the Covenant or Instrument by which full communion was established, shall be eligible to officiate under this Article.
