

We appeal to all our people to show a spirit of charity in their dealings with other Christians wherever they may be, to respect other Christian Churches, to refrain from harsh or unkind words about them, whether in speech or in writing, and to seek to understand both their life and their doctrine by common study and by personal contacts. Above all, we appeal to them to pray for Christian unity, privately, corporately, and together with members of other Christian communions, that all believers may be united "in the way Christ wills and by the means he chooses", and to remember always that the nearer we draw to Christ, the nearer we draw to one another.

-IX Lambeth Conference, 1958

That every opportunity be taken to emphasize the Divine purpose of visible unity among Christians, as a fact of revelation.

-IX Lambeth Conference, 1897

As result of our deliberations in this national consultation, we are firm in our intention to remain in dialogue and participate in the renewal and revisioning of the ecumenical movement. We recognize, nevertheless, many sharp differences with our dialogue partners and have a host of unanswered questions about the way forward in ecumenism. We foresee a number of ecumenical possibilities as we move into the first decades of the 21st century.... as we consider both possibilities and obstacles, we have several specific recommendations that we commend as immediate opportunities to realize the possibilities and overcome obstacles.

-National Consultation on Ecclesiology, 1993